O. A. C. REGENTS VISIT
EXPERIMENT STATION

President Weatherford of Board One of Committee Who Make Inspection of Progress. Contemplate Extension of Service in the Catlow Valley Section

Judge J. K. Weatherford and wife of Albany, Sen. C. L. Hawley and wife of Dallas, Sen. H. Von der Hellen and son of Jackson county, made a party of autoists to arrive in this city yesterday, having made the trip by way of the Rogue River Valley, Crater Lake and across to Bend in their cars.

The gentlemen of the party are members of the board of regents of the Agricultural College. Judge Weatherford being the president of the board, and they came here to visit officially the Experiment Station and report to the college authorities.

Both Judge Weatherford and Senator Hawley were members of the committee who selected the land for the station in this county and this is their first visit to the station since that time. They were most agreeably surprised upon their visit to the station yesterday and Judge Weatherford stated to The Times-Herald that the committee was more than satisfied with the progress and development made in so short a time. In fact they hardly expected half what has been accomplished.

"When one finds grain that will go 75 bushels to the acre on land that two years ago was considered about the poorest in Harney Valley, it certainly shows that the college made no mistake in establishing an Experiment Station," said Judge Weatherford. "We are glad we came and that we can make such encouraging report. In viewing other farms in this vicinity and talking to farmers we find they have benefited by the establishment of the station and that it has already accomplished much toward intelligent farming all through the valley."

Judge Weatherford has been a consistent advocate of the adaptability of this big territory to cereal farming for several years and was instrumental in the establishment of the station here. He wanted the board to establish a station in this valley long before it was really brought about and the people owe Judge Weatherford a debt of gratitude for his able advocacy of our cause.

The party left this morning for Catlow Valley where they go to inspect the sub-station in that section. It has been suggested that this station be enlarged and made to cover a larger scope of territory is fast settling up with a class of people who show a disposition to make good. It has its peculiar conditions and it will be of vast benefit to the country to have a demonstration farm there for the particular crops of the valley. The committee of gentlemen go over favorably inclined to such extension work as the people of this vicinity have impressed them with the importance of it.

Supt. Breithaupt of the Experiment Station accompanies the party to Catlow and will give them such information as they may require to report on the matter to the board of regents.

Of Interest to Voters.

I stand for an economical business administration. The financial affairs of the county should be handled with care, consistent with the growing needs of the county. Realizing the fact that the prosperity of the county depends upon its agricultural development, I am in favor of a reasonable appropriation for the extension work.

I believe in good roads, and shall be always in favor of distributing funds and labor equitably among all parts of the county where improvement is needed, with special favors for no part above another. I think that the rural public schools should be encouraged and assisted.

It has come to me from friends in different parts of the county that if elected I would favor the building of a new court house. I want to say plainly, once and for all, that if I am elected I will not be in favor of erecting any PUBLIC BUILDINGS until the question is first submitted to the people for their approval.

I have once before been honored by the people of Harney county by being elected to the office of county judge. My former administration of the affairs of the county is well known by the older residents, and I invite the new voters to investigate it fully.

Some Information on The Railroad Situation

The Times-Herald learns from a private source that Judge Lovett, president of the Harriman lines of railroad, is expected in Portland at once. It appears he has timed his visit with the completion of the construction work to Riverside on the Oregon & Eastern and while there is nothing of an authentic nature on which to base such presumption it is possible that there will be important announcements respecting the immediate future of this extension during Judge Lovett's visit. The papers will be watched with considerable interest with such expectation at any rate.

A recent letter from Colonel C. E. S. Wood to Mayor A. W. Trow, of Ontario, Ore., and published in the Ontario Democrat, contains an account of two interviews concerning the railroad situation, as follows:

"I had a talk with Mr. James J. Hill, which he said need not be treated confidential, in which he said he had not abandoned a single original plan for Oregon, but he had seen this period of depression coming and he had stopped all construction work accordingly, but as soon as warranted his work in Oregon would be resumed, but at this time he could give no more definite assurance than this. I was very glad to learn that he has no agreements with anybody and that his original plans are to be carried out. Of course, you understand, in such matters as railroads, no man can positively promise what can be done in the future."

"I also saw Mr. Schiff (Kuhn, Loeb & Co.) of the executive board of the Union Pacific system, which is really the financial backer of Harriman. He said, referring directly to the Oregon Eastern, that the apparent discontinuance of work was only part of a general order, applicable over the whole system, for a temporary shut down during the present money stringency; that they were anxious, if possible, to have the Oregon-Eastern operating at least to connect with the Deschutes by 1915, and work would be pushed on it as soon as conditions warrant it. I might also say that the right-of-way people are now applying to the Land Grant for right-of-way west."

out when the front wheel of his car struck a rock and precipitated the entire load of passengers over a high embankment, the car turning clear over and catching Mr. Howland under it in such a manner as to break both legs at the hips, the left leg being broken in a second place above the knee and the bones of the right foot so badly crushed that amputation may be necessary to save his life.

There were six occupants of the car all the other escaped with a few slight bruises. Mrs. Cochran having her finger mashed, but not seriously. Dr. Harrison of Drewsey was called and set the broken legs of the unfortunate victim and also removed the crushed bones from the injured foot and the patient was taken back to La Grande.

The Times-Herald man talked with Dr. Harrison over the phone this morning and obtained the above particulars. The doctor states that Mr. Howland was very badly hurt and will be in luck if he doesn't lose his foot entirely. Mr. Howland was here last December representing Supt. Cochran in the matters pertaining to the adjudication of the waters of Silvies River. He met many people while here at that time who will regret exceeding to learn of his misfortune. They were on their way to Drewsey to begin hearing the testimony in water cases on that branch of the Malheur, the time being set for today. Dr. Harrison stated this morning that Mr. Cochran had not yet returned after taking his unfortunate assistant back to La Grande.

Dr. Harrison stated he was just ready to start to Beulah to look after another accident in which a man was hurt in a runaway.

Man Seriously Injured in Automobile Accident

Thursday, as Supt. Cochran of the State Water Board and party were coming from Beulah to Juntura in an automobile they met with a very serious accident that may cause the loss of a foot by Asst. Supt. Howland. They met another auto on high grade and Mr. Cochran turned out when the front wheel of his car struck a rock and precipitated the entire load of passengers over a high embankment, the car turning clear over and catching Mr. Howland under it in such a manner as to break both legs at the hips, the left leg being broken in a second place above the knee and the bones of the right foot so badly crushed that amputation may be necessary to save his life.
