"RICHELIEU."

The above is the title to a four-reel picture production that is claimed to be one of the finest ever given and it has been selected by the Library Club as its entertainment for the library this year. It will be produced at Tonawama on the evening of Nov. 20 together with two other reels of pictures, making one of the most magnificent entertainments the people of this city have had an opportunity to witness here. "Richeieu" is ablaze with artistic illustrations and those who have witnessed the play and read the historical novel are loud in their praises. This deals with the sixteenth century and will be not only interesting and thrilling to those who have no other object in witnessing it, but will also be a source of education to many, especially the younger people who are assured of being well repaid during the evening.

This production brings to us some of the greatest play people on the stage and the vigorous, intense situations and stirring climaxes bring a treat to playgoers. This benefit performance should be greeted by a capacity house as it is for a good cause and the play is well worth seeing as it may be some time before another such picture may be seen in this city.

Library Club Meeting.

Communicated
Last Saturday, The Ladies' Library Club, met at the home of Miss Josephine Locher.

Rabindranth Tagore, the Hindoo poet and writer, who has won such sudden fame, was the subject.

Mrs. J. W. Geary read several interesting chapters, from his book, "Sadhana, on the realization of life.

Miss Locher read a paper reviewing three of his books. The Gitanjali, The Gardener, and Chitra, which was highly appreciated by every one present.

Mrs. Harry McHose sang with much expression, Shakespeare's "Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind."

Concert at Tonawama

Thursday Night.

Music lovers of Burns and vicinity are going to have another rare treat when the Treble Clef Club presents Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, one of the popular singers of Portland. The Times-Herald has given some excellent press notices of this favorite singer in former issues but she said nothing of the support she is to have by local musicians. The program will also include Mrs. James Lester Gault, our home soprano who has a warm spot in the hearts of our people as a singer; also the Treble Clef Club will render some numbers that are sure to be much appreciated. Mr. Fellows will preside at the piano giving more pleasure to the evening.

The effort of local musicians to bring in talent of a high character and giving home people such excellent entertainment is commendable and will meet with approval by the house being filled to capacity. The seat sale begins this afternoon and the box office will be open again on Wednesday afternoon and on Thursday from 10 a. m. until five in the afternoon. Admission prices have been made within reach of all who enjoy good music.

John Day vs. Burns

This Afternoon.

The John Day foot ball team arrived last night and everything is in readiness for the game this afternoon between that team and the Harney County High School. The weather is ideal for foot ball and no doubt there will be a good crowd out. The teams met at John Day recently when Burns was successful but the visiting team has been strengthened since and a close contest is expected this afternoon.

The visiting team is accompanied by Prof. E. S. Stultz of the John Day schools and also Principal W. G. Whitfield of the Canyon City schools, the latter being the coach. Mr. Whitfield was here last May with the Dramatic company and took the leading part in "All of a Sudden Peggy." Miss Teima Guernsey and Miss Mason, accompanied the team over and are guests of Mrs. Curtis Smith and Miss Hazel Cozad.

The lineup of the teams this afternoon is:

John Day	Position	Burns

Belshaw, R.	lh	Leonard
Byram	rh	Smyth

Field Sports.

When you keep a boy interested in football, baseball tennis, and the like, you lessen the chances that he will get interested in things not so good for him.

The Youth's Companion, since its enlargement, gives generous space to this matter of athletic training, and gets the best coaches in the country to write for it.

How to practice to become first-rate pitcher, how to train for a race, how to learn the newest stroke in swimming--these and a hundred other topics of the greatest interest to boys--to girls, too, for that matter--are touched upon in this important department of The Companion.

And this is only a small part of the service which The Companion renders in any home which it enters. It has points of contact with a hundred interests.

Miss Georgie Ellis

Died this Morning.

The many friends of the family were grieved to learn that Miss Georgie Ellis had passed away this forenoon at the family home in this city. The young lady was not strong and was in a hospital in Washington when her mother died last month. She came to attend the funeral and had been confined to her bed ever since. For a time it was thought she was improving and would recover but the past few days her condition had been serious and her physicians held out no hope for her recovery.

Miss Ellis was a teacher of ability and taught in the Harney County High School for a time but resigned. Later she was employed in the High School at Bellingham, Washington, but last year did not teach, remaining at home with her mother and brother, Charles. At the beginning of the school year in September she again went to Washington and took up her duties.

The Times-Herald has learned nothing of the arrangements for the funeral. The sympathy of the community is expressed for the bereaved brother who so recently lost his mother.

Resolutions.

At a regular meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church held Nov. 4, 1914, the undersigned committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect and condolence on the death of our beloved sister, Emma Gowan.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to take from our midst our friend and sister, it is but just that a fitting recognition of her many virtues should be shown; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of our Sister, this Society has lost one of its most faithful members, and the community one of its most worthy and estimable characters. And that this Society tenders its loving sympathy to the husband of the deceased in their great bereavement, and would say it is not the tears of the afflicted family, only, that fall upon the grave, the very ground which is hallowed by her remains, but the tears and heartfelt sympathy of our Society.
