INVITES YOUR BUSINESS

Peter Hansen has been in from his Silver Creek home for several days this week.

Mrs. Fred Haines and Mrs.
Arthur Thompson were down from Harney Thursday.

For Sale—Pure bred Rhode Island Red Cockerels; pen No. 1 $2. No. 2, $1.50.—J. H. Eich-ner, Buchanan, Oregon. 41.

The high school athletic boys have secured Tonawama for a big masquerade ball on the night of Jan. 7. Particulars will be given of this event in the near future and those who desire to participate may have plenty of time to arrange for their costume.

The late Mrs. Win Gowan was a member of the local Woman of Woodcraft circle and carried an insurance policy. The proof of her death was furnished at once to the headquarters of this organization and in less than three weeks from the date the money was in the hands of the beneficiary. This promptness is commendable and wins friends to the order.

You will find all the newest ideas in millinery at Clingan's.
The ladies of Burns and vicinity are invited to call. One door north Haines' store.

J. F. Mahon and wife were in the city the fore part of this week on business. Jim is pleased to find Senator Chamberlain has been given such a fine vote throughout the state and says the right man has been returned to the job.

W. W. Nichols, of The Dalles, who owns some good land near Narrows, has been kept quite busy with carpenter work in this vicinity during the summer and fall. He is now doing some repair work for Thos. Baker but expects to leave for The Dalles in a short time to work during the winter, returning here in the spring to look after his real estate.

A. J. Johnson, president of the Benton County National Bank, and one of the heavy stockholders of the First National Bank of this city, was here from his home at Corvallis this week attending a meeting of the stockholders of the home concern. This was his first visit for three years and he sees considerable change in the town as well as noting advancement in the development of the county. He left for home again yesterday morning by way of Bend, and promises to come in more frequently in the future.

Married—At noon Monday, Nov. 9, at the home of Mrs.
Hattie Hastie, in this city, Miss May Coleman and Mr. Harley Quier, Dr. E. Benson performing the ceremony. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Hastie and a sister to Roy Coleman. She is one of our successful teachers and is at present engaged in teaching near Princeton. Mr. Quier is a homesteader of the same locality and a promising young man. Each have a homestead and they will make their home on Mrs. Quier's claim. The Times-Herald extends its hearty congratulations and wishes the young couple happiness.

Joe Barns and wife are here on a visit with relatives and friends.

anized barb-wire. Will exchange for horses, mules, wagons or farm machinery.—P. S. Weittenhiller.

W. U. Scott, the big sheep dealer, was again in our vicinity this week renewing acquaintances and looking after business interests. Mr. Scott has made frequent trips to this place during the past summer and fall.

Perry Boyd, M. M. Doan and J. E. Rounseville were among our visitors from the southern part of the county this week.
These gentlemen are all property holders of the Denio section and were here looking after some business affairs.

Clarence and F. O. Erickson, brothers, who have homesteads in Catlow section, were in the city this week. The boys say they are pleased with their places but complained of the mail service. The people down there are entitled to better service and the matter will be brought to the attention of the postal authorities in such a manner that they will take notice.

days 2 to 4 p. m. Everybody welcome.

B. L. Allen, of Laurens, Iowa, who is associated with P. S. Weitenhiller in a big area of farm land in this Valley, came in last Saturday and has been visiting with Mr. Weittenhiller and looking after his business interests since.
Mr. Allen is pleased with the advancement in development since his last visit to this section and feels he has some good investments in this big country. Men of his character, with capital and faith, are the kind that are going to make this big section respond to development and bring about the change so much desired in the way of attracting others to farm.
