The Times-Herald is pleased to note the activity in athletics and that it is now possible to get outside teams in here to compete with the local boys in games.
 It tends to bring communities closer together and also brings the schools of the several adjoining counties into social contact that brings experience otherwise impossible.

Mrs. Harry C. Smith and Mrs.
 Archie McGowan arrived home this week from an extended vis-

 Andersons reside at the Crowley Ranch, Mr. Anderson being a member of the Monte Gwinn firm, and the Carrs were guests at the ranch. The party came over to see the country and incidentally to have their car overhauled at a local garage. They are pleasant young people and Burns friends enjoy the occasional visits of the Andersons.
