Railroad to Push Into
Harney Valley at Once

That the O. W. R. & N. will continue its line into Harney Valley this summer seems to be an assured fact. Surveying parties are now in the field doing cross-section work along the line of survey, headquarters being at the Duncan McRae ranch above Riverside.

The yards at Riverside are being fixed up to accommodate the shipments of grading machinery that is now on the road in, and within a very few weeks the contractors will be on the ground and dirt will be moving.

The importance of this news can hardly be appreciated by people not familiar with conditions in the interior, where settlers have expected railroad construction for over twenty years, and whose faith has never dimmed by the long years that have come and gone without fruition. They have gone on improving the country, building homes, schools, churches and towns with a firm belief that sometime the true worth of their country would be appreciated and a railroad would be built to accommodate them.

Assistant Engineer Young has just returned from a ten days trip to Portland, and will be up from Vale the latter part of the week, from which place he is directing the work of getting the necessary equipment assembled. A more detailed account of the activity, the probable destination and the character of the work will be given next week.—Juntura Times.

Aged Pioneer Resident
Passes Away in California

There passed away Friday afternoon, at her home in Gould avenue, Mrs. Mary Aladine Hembree, who had been in failing health the past eighteen months, though she was ill but a few days before her passing.

Deceased was a pioneer resident of Oregon, having come with the bereaved husband to Southern California about two years ago.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, February 23, at the family home about one-half mile northwest of Belvidere.

Mary Aladine Hembree, born April 8, 1839, near Cincinnati, Ohio, and died February 19, at 2:30 p. m. at her home near Redondo Beach, California. She was the third daughter of Calvin Pell and Mary McCann Pell. She moved with her parents to Missouri when she was about ten years of age and after living there a little more than two years, they crossed the plains with an ox-team in 1852. The family settled in Shampooc, Oregon. She was married to Albert Hembree on December 28, 1854, near La Fayette, Yamhill county, Oregon. They celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding day less than two months ago.

Nine children were born of this union, all of whom are living and married and settled in homes of their own. Their names are: Alice Simmons, now of Fallon, Nevada; Annie Hamilton, Enterprise, Oregon; Emma Moomaw, Baker, Oregon; Minnie Wooley, Redondo Beach, California; Eugene, Princeton, B. C.; Rose McGrath, Trenton, Missouri; John L. Hembree, Dixon, California; Guy L. Hembree, Riley, Oregon; and Loren C. Hembree, Los Angeles.

These of her family who were with her at the time of her death are her husband, three of their children, Minnie, Rose and Loren and her only living sister, Mrs. Rose Anne Stafford, of Halsey, Oregon. Word was sent to all her other children but death came before they could reach her side.

All are expected to be present at her funeral except two sons who live farthest away, and who could not reach here in time.

The first four years of their married life Mr. and Mrs. Hembree lived in Yamhill county, Oregon and the next twenty-eight on a farm near Eugene, Oregon. They then moved to Harney county, Oregon, where they lived until a little less than two years ago, when they came to California on a visit and decided to remain. They bought a home near Redondo Beach where they have resided for the last year and a half.

She was a member of the Christian church since early girlhood and her whole life has been one of unusual purity and unselfishness. She was a woman of noble character and fine mind; a good and faithful wife; a devoted and self-sacrificing mother.—The Redondo Reflex.

Prof. Sutton of the public school has announced that the school time will be advanced 15 minutes next Monday morning. This is done to conform to the general time kept around town and parents are asked to advance their time to correspond with this and have the children ready early Monday morning.

H. J. Jokisch was in the city the fore part of this week and told The Times-Herald he looks forward to a very successful crop season. He has completed an adequate irrigation system at his place with the water already filling in the reservoir. His ditches are all completed and he feels confident of a good harvest.

Jap McKinnon had the misfortune to lose his home on Poit creek by fire night before last, the contents being destroyed with the exception of one bed. The family has been living in town this winter but on that night Albert and his wife went to the farm to spend the night and it seems the fire started after they retired. It is a total loss as there was no insurance. Jap says he has another shack on the ranch that will do him until he can get around to build a new house.

One gentleman who attended the last installment of "The Treasures of the East" at Tonawama, stated he had witnessed the series in one of the theatres of the east. He says it is one of the most popular serial picture stories ever produced, every installment being of interest regardless of whether the preceding one had been seen or not. A lady who witnessed a portion of this story in Seattle says it drew the biggest houses of anything ever put on the scene there. People of this vicinity may keep up with the story by reading it in The Times-Herald therefore any installment of pictures they see are directly connected with the last chapters read, besides so far a synopsis of what has been in the former pictures has been thrown on the scene. The third episode of this wonderful production will be seen Wednesday night. This installment will show a thrilling fire scene on a fishing boat in which Allan Law nearly loses his life.
