Interest seems to increase in "The Trey O'Hearts" the picture serial story being run in this paper and shown at Tonawana Theatre each Wednesday evening. The printed story and pictures fit in so well that people from the country who are reading it in the paper are glad to avail themselves of the privilege of seeing the characters act the story on the screen and take advantage of it when in town on the evenings this picture is shown. Mr. LaMar has added three extra reels to this program instead of two and it has met with approval of his patrons. Last Wednesday night the program was exceptionally good with a comedy that was killing.
