Al. Weatherly and wife and Mrs. J. A. Robertson came over from Drewsey this week and were guests at the home of Mrs. H. E. Thompson.

We have a car of barbed wire to arrive about June 1, and can fill your orders at that time. Railroad prices with freight added.—N. Brown & Sons.

We've been having some rain and then more rain with cool weather until it begins to look like we're going to be "Web-foot" instead of a dry farming section.

It will pay you to see our new spring catalogue of the Victor Ladies Tailoring Co., comprising hundreds of beautiful styles and fabrics in high class suits, coats, dresses and waists—Clingan Millinery Parlors.

Supt. Gilcrest left yesterday for Malheur county on a tour of the P. L. S. Co. ranches. He was accompanied as far as the Agency by Mrs. Holland and Mrs. Millar. The ladies will return today.

For Sale—Registered Imported German Coach stallion, 11 years old and dark brown in color. He is a sure foal getter, having more offspring than any other imported horse in Harney County.—O. L. Shingledecker, Burns, Oregon.

A Venator, John Devine and Dick Noble came over from Crane creek Thursday on land business. In conversation with Dick The Times-Herald finds that the ranch this season but that the grass and range had not been better for 20 years.

J. C. Leedy and Miss Mildred Wilson took their departure this morning by way of Prairie City for their respective homes. Both have been engaged in the High School and Mr. Leedy was not an applicant for re-election as instructor in agriculture, a position he has held for the past three years. He will devote his time to his home near Portland in the future.

Definite date and particulars later.—Hayes & Trowbridge, John Day, Oregon.
Miss Myra King, who is now one of the main spokes at the Enterprise office in Vale, but who formerly occupied a like position in the office of this great religious weekly, came in Wednesday night to be present at the annual meeting of the alumni of the Harney county high school, of which institution she is a graduate, and incidentally to see her many relatives and friends. The young lady will remain for only a few days at present but may return here for her vacation.
Notice is hereby given that all parties knowing themselves to be indebted to me have been notified to settle up either by cash or negotiable note. Those who failed to take advantage of this call will now find their account in the hands of a competent attorney for immediate collection. I am unable to run about and see each individual and this proceeding is my only redress. I must have money or negotiable notes to satisfy my creditors. I regret very much any cost added to these accounts, but I must have a settlement.—G. W. Clevenger.
The Times-Herald family accompanied Neil Smith and wife to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Murphy at Iron Mountain last Sunday. Lack of space prevents enlarging upon the good driving (?) of the boss and experiences of the party on the road. The hospitable welcome at the ranch and a view of the big job of reclaiming and developing the fine body of land repaid us for any inconvenience of the journey. It is marvelous what can be accomplished by perseverance and a judicious expenditure of capital. Mr. Murphy has a fine property and some day will reap the benefit of his patient labor.
