A large number of our young people attended the dance at Albriton Monday night. The ball was crowded with dances and those from Burns say they had a great big time.

Notice—If your land is for sale, and the price is right, I can sell it for you. Send exact location, description, price and terms of payment to W. E. Sullivan, 99 South Galena Ave., Freeport, Ill.

J. W. Buchanan was in from his home Wednesday. He did not make any report as to crop conditions in his neighborhood but since he wasn't kicking we take it for granted he is satisfied.

Cashier L. M. Brown of the Harney County National Bank, and County Clerk R. T. Hughet left this morning in the former's car for San Francisco to take in the exposition sights. On their return Mr. Brown's family will accompany them.

Register Farre of the local land office, Wm. Gray and Harry Buck are all back from Portland where they had been called as witnesses before the Federal grand jury. Mrs. Gray and her little son, who also went down at the same time, went to Washington to visit her parents.

Miss Helen Sayer arrived home the fore part of this week from Portland where she had been since the close of high school taking a special course in stenography. The young lady at once took up her duties as stenographer in the First National Bank of this city, a position she had been tendered before her departure,

Cedar shingles for sale.—Wm. Foren.

Born—July 3, to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Quier, a son.

Collars from $2.25 to $5 each at J. C. Welcome & Son's.

Rabbits are again making their appearance in the grain fields.

No mistake about that chicken dinner at the Gates House every Sunday. Its there every time.

Well, the rain does interfere with haying some but we can stand it so long as the grain needs it.

The Burns Steam Laundry gives special attention to parcel post. Send us your laundry by mail.

Miss MacRae, who has been visiting her parents, Rev. MacRae and wife, took her departure last Monday for Spokane where she has a position.

Dot Davis has completed his contracts on the roads and is again with his family in town. They expect to build them a little cottage in the immediate future.

Lou Bradfield's famous thoroughbred stallion, Bonus Ross will stand this season at the T. Allen Jones farm near Burns. Terms $12.50 to insure, mares pastured if desired.

More rain Thursday, in fact we've been having considerable of it the past week. It isn't just to the liking of the man who has started haying but he can stand it.

All millinery at reduced prices at the Clingan Hat Shop.

Stop at the Burns Hotel when in town. Best service.

A marriage license was issued July 3 to John Rusek and Emma Trish.

W. E. Peters, representing the Western Electric Co., of Portland, was a business visitor during the week.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $ $ $ $ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Joe Thompson and family, Miss Leona Thompson and Miss Viola Richardson took their departure this morning for Blue Mt. Spring where they will rusticate for a time.

Paul Finke was down to take in a part of the celebration and later went over to the OO Ranch where he had learned of the stray horses he recently advertised, bringing them home Thursday.

Peter Hanson was over from Silver Creek this week and informs The Times-Herald he has leased his farm over there and expects to leave in the near future for an extended visit to other points.

This office is in receipt of a letter from Walter Sullivan who writes that times are better in Illinois than he had expected but that it's mighty hot (only he didn't write it just that way) and he and Mrs. Sullivan are longing for Harney county.

The Times-Herald is informed C. W. Loggan has purchased the Seth Bower & Co. mercantile business in Harney and has assumed charge. He is one Harney county's steady young men who should make good in such a line of business.

Fred Otley was up from Lawen Thursday and intormed the writer that he and Mrs. Otley expect to leave Monday for California where they will visit for a time. Mrs. Otley has not yet fully recovered from a severe operation of several weeks ago and it is hoped this trip will benefit her.

Married—In this city on July 3, at the Baptist parsonage, Leonard L. Goodwin and Miss Essie Wilson, Rev. A. K. MacRae performing the ceremony. The Times-Herald is not acquainted with either for the contracting parties but understands they are residents of the Diamond section. We wish them prosperity and happiness.

County Agriculturist Shattuck and bride arrived home in time to take in the celebration and he is now looking after his duties. They had a fine visit going down through Lake county to Klamath and across the mountains to the Rouge River and Willamette where they toured for a time. Mr. Shattuck reports crop condition in the section east of the Cascades as about the same as in this county. He states that there are some fine prospects for grain in the Willamette Valley.

Williams Bros. have all kinds of rough lumber for sale at their mill 15 miles north of Burns on the Canyon City road.

Fred Barron was up from the Narrows section this week renewing acquaintances. He is almost a stranger here as he doesn't come in to see us often.

Wray's Auto Stage between Bend and Burns leaves here each Wednesday and Saturday. Passengers may take all their baggage.—Vera Gibbs, agent.

R. L. Hutton and family were in the city the first of this week. The little daughters are home for the vacation period, they having attended school in The Dalles during the past year.

A. Egli and family were in from their Wagontire home to take in the celebration and were accompanied on their return by Marjorie Byrd who will spend a few days with them on the farm.

G. W. Clevenger has decided not to stock up heavy with furniture for the present but will take orders for anything desired that is not in stock, giving the customer the benefit of the wholesale prices.

It seems some have gotten the idea that the railroad will be completed into the Valley within a few weeks after construction starts, but it should be taken into consideration that there is considerable work to be done and the contractors can't bnild road as fast as The Times-Herald can on paper.

J. P Withers was in the city for a few days during the week. He had but recently returned from Eugene to look after some business matters, particularly to get some of his farm horses and send them over to a new farm he had recently purchased in Morrow county. As soon as his business is completed he expects to return to Eugene where he is making his home.

Supt. Hamilton and family took their departure last Saturday for Salem where he goes to attend the annual meeting of the school superintendents of the state and also as a member of the board that grades the papere of those taking examination for certificates. They made the trip over the mountains in their car and looked forward to an enjoyable outing in connection with the duties.

Prof. Shattuck and wife arrived in Drewsey Monday evening to meet Miss Dotha Farson, a sister of Mrs. Shattuck. Miss Farson is stenographer in the Statesman office at Boise and is on a visit to relatives in Harney Valley. Mr. Shattuck and wife made this office a pleasant call and in the excitement of the occasion we forgot to offer congratulations, and we hasten this apology and the statement that Mr. Shattuck is a good judge of crops and dry farming methods, but he is a better judge of what constitutes a dandy wife. If you don't believe this just get acquainted with Mrs. Shattuck.—Drewsey Sun.

Harvester whips at J. C. Welcome & Son's.

Sam Tetherow was among our visitors on Wednesday.

Bundles for the Steam Laundry can be left at the Capital and and Star barber shops.

There doesn't seem to be any excuse for crops growing these days.

We do your mending and sew on buttons, without extra charge. See the Steam Laundry about your work.

Mrs. Miller will take orders for the Palmer Garment Co., of Chicago. Sample book now on hand at the Schwartz store.
