Brakeman was up from Waverly this week and told The Times-Herald he wanted him to hitch up "Doc Yak" and come down. He wants us to see whether anything can be raised on the land in his neighborhood. Mr. Brakeman has a fine crop this season. The Christian Scientists of this city recently purchased lots just back of Mrs. John Robinson's home on the corner toward the court house and this week bought the building recently occupied by Tom Jenkins and will have it moved immediately upon the lots to be used as their church. They have secured a nice location and with some repairs to the building purchased they will have comfortable quarters. B. L. Allen of Laurens, Iowa, who is associated with P. S. Weittenhiller in considerable real estate in this Valley, arrived here the first of this week and has been putting in his time looking over the crops, visiting his friends and incidentally shooting some sage hens. Mr. Allen is optimistic in viewing conditions this season, finding exceptionally good crops, and with the railroad starting construction, he feels we are coming into our own. Joe Raker came over from Catlow the fore part of this week en route to outside points to be absent some time. He reports harvesting bumper crops in Catlow, but that the rabbits were becoming thick again and he had fed several hundred during the past few months. He finally got his hay cut and will be satisfied if they leave the potato portion of his garden. Mr. Raker goes by way of San Francisco to take in the fair, then around through the Panama Canal to Philadelphia where he will join Mrs. Raker and the boy. He will be absent for some time and Charles Hansen will be in charge of the ranch during his absence.

Frank S. Miller and wife arrived here from their home in Southern Oregon last Wednesday evening, coming by way of the Deschutes country in their car. They came in the usual way, unheralded and surprised their many friends. They were none the less welcome and have our permission to stay here just as long as they want to. The Times-Herald has but recently learned that Mrs. Amanda Albersen, widow of the late W. E. Albersen, a pioneer family of this county, died at the home of her son Solomon Albersen on June 28. She was buried at the Wild Horse cemetery. Deceased came to this Valley in 1886 and was well known to many of the old time residents. C. B. McConnell returned home Thursday from a trip to the Wild Horse section in company with J. O. Bailey, the assistant to the Attorney General who has been assigned to the P. L. S. Co. land case. Mr. Bailey was taken from that section direct to Riverside and will stop off at Ontario, Weiser and Baker on his way back to Salem where he will make further investigation of the case. Carl D. Shoemaker, editor and publisher of the Roseburg News, was a pleasant caller at this office the other day. Mr. Shoemaker was recently appointed Game Warden of this state and was out getting acquainted with the deputies and discussing the problem of game with the citizens. He is a young man of ability and showed the right spirit in meeting with people, ascertaining conditions and suggesting co-operation along the line of protecting the game and fish as well as propagation. He gave The Times-Herald an interview along this line which may be found elsewhere. This shows the attitude of his department and that it is to our advantage to work in harmony with him. Our local Rod & Gun Club should keep in touch with the game department of the state and take advantage of the opportunities offered. Of course it is an expensive proposition to get game birds and fish in under present transportation conditions, but as soon as we have the railroad in the Gap we may stock our preserve and streams with birds and fish.

See the Steam Laundry about your work. Mrs. Chas. Rohn was up from Albriton during the week and we are informed has taken her departure for an extended visit to Indiana and other outside points. Tonawama has secured a magnificent picture production of Longfellow's immortal poem, "Evangeline," in five parts, for next Monday night. There is no other attraction scheduled for that evening, therefore all may have an opportunity to see it. The explosion of a gasoline torch gave John Gemberling a close call to not only disfiguring his face but having his eyesight destroyed the other day. His face was badly burned but not deep. His glasses were sufficient protection to prevent his eyes being damaged to any great extent, but he has a deep burn on his arm. As it is John's beauty is temporarily impaired but it hoped no lasting scar will be visible on his face. It was a bad accident and might have resulted very seriously. Baptist Church Doings. The pastor and his family had a good time while away on their vacation but Burns was a welcome sight. When the car was run into the garage a large steel tank of gasoline was there.
