Supt. Hamilton and wife were in the city this week on land business. They were accompanied by Mrs. Humphrey Ward an aunt of Mrs. Hamilton, who formerly lived in this county but has been residing in Portland for several years.

Frank Clerf was over from the Alvord during the week on business. Mr. Clerf is going to take two crates of China pheasants which the Gun Club is having brought in. He has an ideal place for propagating these excellent game birds on his big ranch where there is an abundance of feed and very little snow during the winter.

R. J. McKinnon Sr. has been enjoying a visit with a brother whom he had not seen for 50 years. The brother lives in Iowa and they had last seen each other in 1865. He came out to take in the fair at San Francisco and visited R. J. on the way. This is a long time to be separated from relatives when they are no farther apart than these brothers have been. "Uncle Bob" certainly enjoyed this visit.

Tonawama Theatre offers a varied picture program tonight that should appeal to all. It consists of "The Blind Sculptor," in two reels, "The Rag Picker of Paris" in three reels and a comedy entitled "The Baseball Bug."

J. F. Mahon was in town Wednesday. He broke some part of his Ford car and came in for repairs. The crank case had been torn off but Jim fixed it up with a piece of barbed wire and came on over. This is up to the reputation of the popular car and in keeping with the song "just wrap it up with wire, and the little Ford will ramble right along."

C. R. Peterson was in the city during the week, having brought James Weston, the Juntura-Burns Phone manager, over. They have ordered 15 phones installed at once.

Married—August 5, at Vancouver, Wash., R. L. Haines and Mrs. Hedwig Wick. The newlyweds arrived in this city last Tuesday evening and were given a noisy welcome by friends. Mr. Haines has been city marshal of this place for several years and has proven quite an efficient officer. He has been repeatedly re-elected to the position which is an indication of his ability. They at once took up housekeeping in Mr. Haines' residence and are at home to friends. The Times-Herald wishes them a happy and prosperous life.

N. Henry was up from his Sunset home last Saturday and says he is much encouraged with his alfalfa crop in rows this season. He is going to have some fine seed and will receive considerable revenue from the land thus planted. Mr. Henry says his land is worth $100 an acre devoted to just such a crop which shows that the fellow who says alfalfa in rows is not a paying crop in this country does not know what he is talking about. Mr. Henry has been offered $1 per pound for alfalfa seed grown on his place this season.

A report issued by the Commissioner of the General Land office to the Interior Department states that during the fiscal year ending June 30 of this year the area of public land decreased, through entries and sales, over 11,200,000 acres. There yet remains 279,544,484 acres unappropriated of which Oregon has 15,442,178 acres.

A picnic party spent last Sunday at the mountain "nest" of the Byrd "flock" and had the biggest kind of "cats" and a general good time. There were 18 in all who went up in autos early before the weather became too hot and the pine grove was quite inviting. About 2000 rounds of ammunition was shot away but nothing was killed during the day but time. Bottles, old tin cans, etc. were punctured for further orders. During the afternoon the garden was turned into a ball ground and some fast Volley Ball games were indulged in by using a foot ball. The Times-Herald man felt the next day like it had been a large stone that had been tossed at him. Hon. J. L. Rand, Water Supt. Cochran and Allen Biggs proved they knew how to play the game and kept the rest of the bunch dodging and scurrying around until they were perspiring like a lot of harvest hands; then the spring coming out from under a big rimrock looked most inviting.

Confidence The peoples' confidence in the Federal Reserve System is due largely to the fact that national banks are so closely related to the National Government itself. The people know that the government always insists upon good public service, if it is involved in the least. The Government is particularly jealous of the reputation and conduct of National Banks, because through them it can be of service to the people in many ways.
