A young man by the name of Joe Simmons was killed by lightning last Monday afternoon at SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1915 the OO Ranch. He was a member of a haying crew and was riding the pullback horse when the bolt struck him, knocking the horse down and killing the man. Three others of the haying crew who were on the stack

C. A. Bedell and a party of autoists had quite an experience the other day while returning from a recreation trip to a summer resort. They were coming along at a moderate speed when one of the wheels of the big car broke. This caused the car to swerve but Mr. Bedell righted it at once and then a front wheel went down throwing the car over. All the occupants with the ex-ception of Mr. Bedell were caught under the car but as it is a large one and the top was up no one was hurt to speak of. Mrs. Bedell, Mrs. Gowan and Mrs. Hollopeter were all prisoners under the car for a time but none of them were hurt. The time seem ed rather long as it was hot and the occupants felt suffocated, although there was room for air to circulate. It was a most fortunate thing that none of them were hurt as it might have been

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914 we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915 we would share profits with the retail pur-chasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so with-

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford gars during 1914-5 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until

We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September and October, 1915.
