The Coming of The Railroad.

The coming of the railroad to a new country invariably means a period of prosperity and development. The people living in Central and Eastern Oregon know this and are consequently hailing with delight the extension of the O. W. R. & N. line beyond Riverside. The prosperity that comes with the railroad is caused chiefly by two things, the opening of a way to market for the products of the country, and the investment of new capital in various business enterprises. It is rather hard to get men with money, into a country very far from a railroad even when the opportunities for investment are fairly good.

People who have all their lives lived near a railroad can scarcely realize though that the railroad means more than material prosperity. The ordinary conveniences of our modern civilization depend largely on rapid transportation. Few people in these days are content to be without the news of the world and they expect it within a few hours after the events have happened. Many things in the markets cannot be taken to a country that is reached only by stage lines excepting at great cost and inconvenience. The automobile and telephone have made conditions vastly different than they were some years ago for the pioneers of the country but for most of the people the ordinary conveniences which we regard as indispensable do not come until the railroad is built.

There are other ways in which a community changes perhaps for the worse when transportation facilities are increased. The old neighborly spirit is likely to disappear, while various fads and fashions will be imported from the cities. The new people who come do not fit into the older habits and customs and soon the old inhabitants themselves are lost in the new tide.—Ontario Argus.

Instructions to Tax Collectors.

Sheriff Goodman has requested The Times-Herald to publish the following letter of instruction sent out by the State Tax Commission:

On February 26, 1915, this Commission sent instructions to each County Treasurer (then tax collector) advising on certain matters of procedure in tax collections of the current year.

Such instructions are here repeated, in substance, with additional advice which now appears in order:

1. Where one-half of the 1914 taxes on any property was paid before April 1, 1915, the second half may be paid any time before October 1, 1915, without penalty or interest; if the second half is not so paid it will become delinquent on October 1 and be then subject to a penalty of 10 per cent and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from said date.

2. Where one-half was not paid before April 1, 1915, a penalty of one per cent for each calendar month or part thereof, on the total amount unpaid, cumulates during the period beginning April 1 and ending August 31, 1915. For illustration, if a tax bill as charged on the roll totals $100.00 and the full amount is paid in the month of August, a penalty of 5 per cent ($5.00) is to be added thereto. These cumulative penalties are not to be collected on or after September 1, 1915, being superseded on that date by the penalties and interest applicable to delinquent taxes.

3. Where one-half of the 1914 taxes on any property was not paid before April 1, 1915, the entire amount unpaid will become delinquent on September 1, 1915, and be then subject to a penalty of ten percent and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per anum. For instance, the taxes as originally charged on a certain property amount to $100.00; if paid in full on September 15, 1915, the total amount required would be $110.50, a penalty of 10 per cent ($10.00) and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per anum for 15 days ($0.50) being added to the original tax.

4. Section 1 of chapter 156, Laws of 1915, amending Section 3682, Lord's Oregon Laws, and providing in part that "The first half of all taxes legally levied and charged shall be paid on or before the fifth day of April following, and the second half on or before the fifth of October following," has no application whatever to taxes charged on tax rolls of the year 1914. Said section will become effective in 1916 and apply in the payment of taxes to be charged on the 1915 rolls.

5. Sections 2 and 3 of Chapter 156, Laws of 1915, amending Sections 3683 and 3687, Lord's Oregon Laws, are now in effect. Therefore, the Tax Collector is to make his annual statement and tax return, also proceed to collect delinquent taxes on personality, on or immediately after October 5, 1915, instead of September 1 as heretofore.

"Rip Van Winkle" is the feature at Tonawama tonight. It is a familiar play to many, taken from Washington Irving's short stories, suggested by the characters in the "Legend of Steepy Hollow." This program was selected as in keeping with present weather and general feeling of we poor souls who can't afford a trip to the fair or even the mountains. A comedy is added to help bring you to life.

E. R. Greenslet arrived last week to take up the work of soil and duty of water investigations for the Silvies River irrigation interests. This will consist of soil analysis and classification, crop adapability, location of water plane, and general irrigation and drainage conditions throughout the Harney Valley. Mr. Greenslet has been associated with similar investigations carried on by the Government for the past five years in Idaho, and came to Oregon last April and has spent this season in an investigation of the Cheweucan project in Lake County under the co-operative State and Federal plan. This is the first systematic work of this character which has been undertaken in this section and will undoubtedly prove of great interest and value.

While we are complaining about the dry hot weather and for physical comfort would like some rain, the farmer is having just the weather he needs for his harvest period. Rain would do very little good at present and would retard harvest work. Water is becoming quite scarce it is true but a little later we shall all pray for rain and get it.

Not So Strange After All.

You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wabash, Ind., writes, "Nothing did me the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914 we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915 we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-5 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September and October, 1915.
