Many of the homesteaders; in this vicinity are taking advantage of the recent warm days by burning sage brush.

Tribute to One of Burns' Talented Ladies

Cashier J. L. Gault of the First National Bank of Burns, accompanied by his wife were in Vale for a few hours Saturday, returning home from Portland, where Mrs. Gault has been during the summer under an instructor in voice culture.

Mrs. Gault is a lady of high musical attainments, having a soprano voice of the highest order. Those who have heard her are most enthusiastic in her praise, many believing that she will compare favorably with America's most renowned singers. Mrs. Gault is a teacher in voice culture at Burns, and there is a movement on foot in Vale to induce her to come here at some near future date and give a musicale, in order that the people of this city may have the pleasure of hearing this talented lady of our neighboring city.—Vale Enterprise

The Gaults visited Vale while on route home a couple of weeks ago. During her absence Mrs. Gault studied with Fraz X. Arnes, the famous master of music of New York, also with Miss Kathleen Lawler, who recently spent five years abroad studying.

Baptist Church Doings.

Subjects for next Sunday: A. M. "How to Keep Happy." P. M. "Keep up the Bars."

Mr. Loree pays us another flying visit. He is always welcome.

Regular preaching services will be held in the Wolf Creek school house.

Our silver trio, consisting of Miss Whitaker, Mr. Liening and Mr. MacRae, playing cornet, trombone, and saxophone, assist in meetings frequently.

We did not have a big crowd at Harney but all were interested enough to want us to return. We will do so.

The hot weather during August, did keep people from church. Good attendance all month.

Men, when you come to church next Sunday night, if it is warm, leave your coat and vest at home. Be comfortable.

None Equal to Chamberlain's.

I have tried most all of the cough cures and find that there is none that equal Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes W. V. Harner, Montpelier, Ind. When you have a cold give this remedy a trial and see for yourself what a splendid medicine it is. For sale by all dealers.

Warrant Call.

Notice is hereby given that there is money on hand to pay all rabbit bounty warrants registered prior to May 20, 1915. Interest ceases September 6, 1915.

R. A. MILLER,
County Treasurer.

The Burns Hotel is the headquarters for all when in town. Good table service, clean rooms and accommodating attendants.

Additional Locals.

Frank Catterson was in town the first of the week.

Fred Otley Jr. was up from Lawen yesterday.

Best of care given patients at Mrs. Firewood's maternity hospital.

A good work horse for sale or trade for milk cows or calves. Inquire at the Gates House.

Lee Wilson was up from Sunset yesterday. He states the crops are good in his neighborhood.

Mrs. Millar has returned from a visit to outside points where she ordered her fall and winter stock of millinery.

P. J. Gallagher was over from Juntura during the week greeting friends and looking after some legal matters.

Frank Clerf was over from the Alvord ranch a few days this week. He states his crops are not as large as usual owing to the lack of water.

Curtis Smith and wife have returned from their sojourn to the Blue Mt. Springs and visiting with relatives and friends in Grant county.

Lee Miller sustained a bad cut on his forehead last Sunday while playing ball at a picnic held at Crow Camp. It seems Lee was catching without a mask and was hit with the ball. Albert Swain was over from here with a party of young people so brought Lee to town in his car where the wound received proper attention.

Geo. A. Smyth was over from his home in Diamond the fore part of this week and upon his return was accompanied by Mrs. A. C. Welcome who will be one of a party to make the trip south to Winnemucca en route to the San Francisco fair. Mr. Smyth will take his son Fred and his wife out that way and after seeing the sights the two young people expect to enter Berkeley to pursue their studies. Mrs. Welcome will first go to Reno where she will visit relatives for a time and be accompanied to the fair by her aunt.

J. A. Kennedy of the Brogan Trading and Lumber Co. is in the city. This company has a big output of fruit and Mr. Kennedy accompanied a shipment of fine peaches over to ascertain conditions and take orders for further shipments if the market justified. The fruit is certainly fine and came in good shape, the distance being short and the fruit is not en route so long as from other places. The first shipment went in a hurry and another will likely follow during the coming week. Lunenburg, Dalton & Co. will handle the product.

The Masonic Lodge will resume meetings for the coming year on next Monday night. Members please bear this in mind.

Ben Brown, Harry Danley, Dr. Griffith and Chas. Johnson left this morning for the mountains to hunt deer and recreate for a few days.

Wilson's Creamery Butter at Hagey's.

Miss Helene Dalton expects to leave next week for Monmouth where she goes to attend the normal for the coming year.

NO REASON FOR IT.

You Are Shown a Way Out.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed a word of a resident of this locality who has found relief. The following is convincing proof.

E. L. Bussey, prop. cab service 1521 Madison Ave., La Grande, Ore., says: "I had attacks of kidney trouble and they were always worse when I caught cold. I had dull pains in my back and my kidneys got badly out of order. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and with such good results that from that time to this, I have relied on them. Whenever my back has bothered me, it has taken Doan's Kidney Pills only a short time to fix me up all right. I never used a better kidney medicine."

Price 50, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bussey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
