Mr. Murphy thinks he is going to take the little fellow away from his parents just as soon as he can. He went on south to look after some property interests and will visit the fair at San Francisco before returning to Seattle. Later Mr. Murphy will go to Alaska where he has some mining property he intends to develop.

J. R. M. Davis, one of the energetic farmers of the Calamity section, was a caller at this office the other day. Mr. Davis says his neighborhood is not properly served with mail and suggests changes. His idea is to have a rural delivery up in his territory, taking the mail from Dreyway up the Malheur and coming back by another route, thus serving the entire community. A rural delivery of this character would be a convenience and no doubt could be arranged just as well as a direct line up and back over the same route.

Harney County High School. (Contributed)

On Tuesday Sept. 28, the first literary program of this year was given with much spirit and ability on the part of the pupils, which showed very clearly that our present corps of teachers are thoroughly efficient and in earnest about the proper presentation of every phase of the school work; and that the student body has caught the spirit, and are responding of a degree which bids fair to making 1915 and 1916 the banner year for the H. C. H. S. All the patrons who had the pleasure of hearing the program were enthusiastic over the splendid showing each pupil made who took part therein.

The students who made up the audience were also complimented on their decorum. From this favorable beginning the patrons may well look forward to the rapid growth of the High School.

When Baby Has the Croup. When a Mother is awakened from a sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently in the best of health struggling for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every ten minutes until vomiting is produced, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. For sale by all dealers.
