Sam King called this office over the phone the fore part of the week for informanion respecting a valuable mare which he described as having broken down in the hind qaurters. He was told it indicated the dumb paralytic rabies and to watch the animal as she might bite other animals or some one who was ministering to her. His son Frank was in Wednesday and informed us the mare had died the night before and they felt sure it was rabies. This is the first instance of rabies in this vicinity for a long time and indicates that we are yet to contend with this destructive malady.

The projecting machine used at Tonawama has become a source of annoyance to the management as it has become somewhat worn and is the cause of frequent interruptions that spoils the good effect of the pictures, therefore it has been decided to install a modern machine of the very best type. The feature pictures that have been shown in this house of late have been high class and much appreciated but the projecting machine has annoyed. Tonawama is to be renovated in every detail with new plaster and tinted a restful color.

The manager of this great religious weekly has as much—perhaps more—experience in building railroads than any other individual in Harney county, since he has been building railroads regularly once a week for 25 years; therefore the delegation of boosters that went to Portland the other day to confer with President Farrell was rather insistent that he be one of the part. He would liked to have gone as he is ready to make most any sacrifice, even to not being choice in his company that will bring about the desired result, but the regularity of the issues of this paper is a matter that is given his first consideration, in the absence of any one to take his place in the office he had to forgo the pleasure of accompaning these publicspirited citizens to Portland to see what can be done toward a railroad to Burns.
