The Times-Herald office had the distinction of being the first telephone on the local exchange to be "hitched up" on the new switch-board of the Juntura-Burns Telephone & Telegraph Co. lines. "Burning Daylight" one of Jack London's thrilling Alaska stories will be seen in pictures at Tonawana tonight with Bosworth cast in the leading role. Everybody's talking about this picture and it is going to have a big run. There are five reels. It should also be remembered by Tonawana patrons that special music is provided for each night there are pictures. Tonight Alex Eggleston is going to play a violin solo during intermission between shows. Monday night another Paramount picture is to be produced and they're every one of the best—none better. The bride is a resident of Harri-man but has been attending the high school course being conducted at Lawen by Prof. Jokisch this winter.
