Rooms to rent. Mrs. Eunice Thompson.

Mrs. George Smyth was over from her home at Diamond last Monday.

J. E. Rounsaville has been up from his home at Denio for several days.

The sugar that goes to waste in the bottoms of American tea-cups sweetens the dreams of the Kaiser.

Our new quarters in the Levens Building are quite convenient and we hope to see you in at once to inspect them.—Williams-Zoglmann.

Smith Crane, the horse buyer, was again circulating among his friends in this city during the first part of the week.

J. W. Biggs returned home yesterday afternoon from a professional trip to Malheur County to appear in a case before Circuit Judge Biggs.

The profiteers are after the scalp of Secretary Daniels because he distinguishes between "doing a bit" and "taking a bite". Longer life to you, Josephus.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jones were in town yesterday to have some dental work done and attend to some other business. They had the baby with them.

The senator from Wisconsin now finds himself in such a hopeless minority in Washington that "as lonesome as LaFollette" has become a popular saying.

Old customers and new ones are cordially invited to call and see us in our new location in the Levens Building.—Williams-Zoglmann Clothing Co.

How about that three pounds of sugar? Are you keeping down to the conservation limit? Hoover says Not More than Three Pounds of Sugar Per Person Per Month.—and this must include what you dip out of the bowl in the restaurants.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hayes are home from their visit over the holidays with their children who are attending school at Monmouth and Eugene. Ted said he had a fine time during his absence and that both Ilda and Dell, as well as their cousin, Lulu Hayes, are doing fine in their studies.

This office is in receipt of a letter from Herman Ruh, who is staying at Hot Lake, asking The Times-Herald be sent to him there until further notice. He reports his health good but Mrs. Ruh had recently undergone a severe operation from which she had not recovered. He said he was homesick for Harney Valley and the paper would help him.

Married—Thursday evening at the parlors of the Hotel Fass, Miss Gladys R. Cawfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Cawfield, of Narrows became the bride of David R. Crow. Rev. W. L. Wilson of the Baptist church officiating. Both are well known young people of this county where they have many friends who join us in extending best wishes. They will make their home in the vicinity of the Narrows.

A. A. Collins and Geo. Bevans have enlisted in the navy as mechanics in the aviation branch. They enlisted recently while in Portland and were given time to return home and get their affairs in shape before going to California where they will be stationed for at least a year. Gus said yesterday his wife and little child will come to him after he has gotten settled in his new field of work. Lee Miller is also going out to take the examination for a particular position connected with the marine aviation branch and if successful in the examination will join. The boys leave at once as the first two are required to be in Portland on the 14th.

Richard Ausmus, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ausmus, arrived here the fore part of the week and has gone to visit his parents. "Dick" was a former student of the Harney County High School and is on the honor roll of that institution because of his service for his country. He had been in the navy for some time prior to the declaration of war and has now been discharged. We are informed the young man had the misfortune to get hurt during service and was confined to the hospital for a long period before his discharge but has fully recovered his health and is here to visit for a short time after which he will return to the service, enlisting again in the same branch. The Times-Herald did not have an opportunity to interview the young man while he was in town the other day.

Have you pulled that sweet tooth?

Donald Jokisch is in town this week visiting friends.

Lost—Gasoline filler cup painted gray. Finder please return to Summit Garage and receive reward.

Lloyd Johnson is up from Lawen on a visit to his children who are in high school.

Mrs. Clark reports that many schools are without teachers not only in this county but a shortage is reported all over the state.

Carroll Cecil was among the out of town stockholders to be in for the annual meeting of the Inter-Mountain Tel. and Tel. Co.

Some questioned the suggestion that the Japan current had been changed by earthquakes when it turned cold last Wednesday but they're ready to believe it again now.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Saunders are registered at the Levens from their home at Warm Springs. They have recently returned from a visit to Lakeview.

More than ten million families have signed the Hoover pledge card. This pledge is the pledge of service, as real as that of any soldier. Is it being kept in your family, or is it merely a "scrap of paper?"

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hamilton and their daughter, came up from their home near Denio the fore part of this week for a short visit. The daughter was left in this city to finish the eighth grade in the public school. Bert, accompanied by his brother, Lester, took his departure via Crane Monday afternoon for Walla walla county where they go to visit their parents for a short time, also their sister, Mrs. Swanson, who resides at Baker. Mrs. Hamilton returned home.

Relatives and friends have received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Chespa King to Lloyd Crandall, at the home of her mother in Olympia, Washington on New Year's day. The young couple left immediately for a short honeymoon trip which would take them to Seattle, Tacoma and also Camp Lewis. They will make their home at Vale. The Times-Herald wishes to join the many friends of the bride in this city where she was born and spent most of her girlhood, in wishing the newlyweds every happiness and prosperity.

S. W. Laythe came up from Crane a few days ago and expects to take his departure immediately for outside points. He will go from here to Portland by way of Bend, then to San Francisco and possibly will visit in Minnesota before returning. Mr. Laythe has been in charge of the branch garage of Smith & McGowan at Crane but his health has been bad recently and he has given up the active management of the business to seek relief. He informs us his son Willard is still stationed in a western army camp but hopes for early transportation to active service.

The other day The Times-Herald man had the pleasure of reading some letters written by Leo Porter to his mother, Mrs. Millie Patterson. The young man is in the army and stationed at Camp Freemont. He states that he received a nice package from this place for Christmas and expresses his appreciation of it, he was particularly fortunate in that respect as he was also remembered by friends at Condon and at Palo Alto so he says he has more comfort kits than he can conveniently carry around. Leo says the quicker he can get to France the better it will suit him. He wants to finish up the job of licking the kaiser so he can get back to his homestead and go fishing and hunting in the Stein's Mountains.

Manager Chester Smith of the Liberty recently started another serial picture in his house with Pearl White playing the leading part. The title of the story is "The Fatal Ring" and as part of his method of advertising it and creating interest in the opening installments, he gave some prizes. He told his patrons that he had selected a young lady who would have in her possession a ring and the one who first approached this lady with the question, "Are you Pearl White?" got the ring. Miss Mamie Winters, the post mistress, was the one selected and she was not caught until the last and that by accident, when Miss Leona Thompson accosted her. Miss Thompson is now displaying a handsome Cameo set ring. Mr. Smith gave some other prizes but we did not learn just how they were drawn.

Uncle Sam is today the quartermaster of a hungry world. He is playing the game square and counts on every man, woman and child in the United States to do the same. Are you doing your share? It is up to every American to conserve food every day and at every meal.

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

The Annual Congregational Meeting of the First Presbyterian Church of Burns Oregon will be held on Friday January 18th., in the church auditorium at 7:30 P. M. Reports of the different departments of the church will be made, and officers elected for the new year. All members, financial contributors, and persons interested in any way are cordially requested to be present. The business will be followed with a social and light refreshments.

By Order of the Official Board.

A MESSAGE FROM HOOVER.

"Go back to the simple life, be contented with simple food, simple pleasures, simple clothes. Work hard, pray hard, and play hard. Work, eat, recreate and sleep. Do it all courageously. We have a victory to win."

HERBERT HOOVER.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT RETURNS HOME.

County School Superintendent Clark has returned from Salem and Portland where she had been called by State Supt. Churchill for a conference of Superintendents of the state.

Thrift Stamps, consolidation of schools, food conservation plans, etc were discussed in addition to the duties of grading the papers of the teachers who had taken the December examination.

Mrs. Clark states they had a profitable meeting, every superintendent in the state with the exception of three were present. Following the meeting at Salem they came down to Portland and took in the State Teachers' Association convention later, an account of which is given elsewhere by Mrs. Clark.

OLD MARKETING SYSTEM GOES FOREVER.

The old marketing system ruled largely by speculation and exploitation has disappeared and it is questionable whether the farmers will ever again have to complain of the former efficiency and waste since the U. S. Government has set the pace in marketing wheat and other grains, and their products.—O. A. Extension News.

One thing this war has done for us, it has convinced many democrats that republicans are human beings, and republicans have been forced to admit that democrats might even be christians.

Some of the citizens of this city believed for a time that Chester Keown, who is with an engineering corps in France, was dead, as the Oregonian of recent date had the name of a soldier who had died of pneumonia, but the name was spelled different and the man was credited as enlisting from Washington and was in a different company from Chet.

The Times-Herald received a letter from Leonard Locher the other day with English postage on it. He gave a new address to which to send his copy of this great religious weekly and that was about all. He wrote he would like to say more but was not permitted. From the address it is evident Leonard is doing duty on a transport.

Grant Critchfield is over from Catlow.

Furnished house with barn to rent.—Wm. Farre.

Fred Haines was down from Harney the first of the week on business.

Best of care given patients at Mrs. Firecove's maternity hospital.

Rev. Wilson expects to take his departure the latter part of this month from this pastorate.

Score cards for "Five Hundred," also program pencils for sale at this office.

Albert Oakerman was over from Silver Creek during the week to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the Inter-Mountain Tel. & Tel. Co.

Eighth Grade examinations will be held in the county on January 17 and 18 according to information given out by Supt. Clark.

A telephone conversation over the wire to Diamond this morning brought the information that young Rye Smyth was home. Later inquiry brings the further enlightenment that the young man had received a discharge from the army. George Marsden saw him in Portland and Rye told him he had received a discharge. He was stationed at Camp Green in North Carolina until recently.

Joe Morris was up from Narrows for a few days renewing acquaintances. He is looking fine and says his new place of business agrees with him. He reports business good and he is entirely satisfied. His many friends rejoice at his success as he deserves it.

Kemp Hardisty was down from Trout Creek the other day and said the green grass was doing fine in the mountains and that feed was fine on the range. The cold snap of Wednesday night has stopped the growth of vegetation, however, and feeding of stock will begin in the near future.
