Local News.

Francis Griffin was in town yesterday.

Ora Hill and wife are over from the Denio country on a visit to relatives and friends in this city.

George Greeley is renewing acquaintances in this city. He formerly resided in this vicinity but is now located in Malheur county. His many old time friends are glad to see him.

Estrayed—Two yearling heifers, estrayed from my place last April, banded XX on the left hip and marked with an underslope in each ear. A liberal reward for information leading to their recovery.—Peter Peterson, Egli, Oregon.

School Supt. Frances Clark spent the week visiting several of the school districts of the county and discussing among other things the sale of Thrift Stamps in the schools. She accompanied Rev. W. F. Shields on the trip.

Dave and Jack Craddock and their wives, were down from Silvies yesterday. When Jack was accused of bringing along that cold spell on Wednesday night when the thermometer registered two below here in town, he took the responsibility for he said it was 20 below Silvies the same night.

Deputy Clerk Wm. Carroll and Charles Foley were representatives of this city in a class of young men who were initiated in the Knights of Columbus at Ontario the fore part of this week. Neither seem the worse of the wear since riding the "goat" from their personal appearance at any rate.

Furnished house with barn to rent.—Wm. Farre.

Henry Kelsenbeck was up from Lawen during the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henderson were up from their home near the Lake the first of this week.

Al Cote and I. N. Hugnet were in from their home near the Warm Springs during the week.

Hereafter work in the repair department of the Lampshire Garage is strictly cash.—H. C. Shireman.

Mrs. W. H. Huffman has been quite ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Richardson, for some time. We are informed she is improving at this time.

Prestley Smyth, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Smyth, came over from Diamond last Monday to be present at a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank. They remained in town until yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams have been in from their home on Silver creek for the past week because of the serious illness of their child. The little one had pneumonia but is now improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christenson with the "kids" Carl and Evelyn, and "Granddad" Swain, came up from Lawen the other day. The latter remained in town for a short time, the others returning home the same day.

Frank Kueny, one of the boys who worked as a vaquero for many years in this county, was here to see the income man the other day. Frank quit working for wages some time ago and embarked in the sheep business. He has been successful in his undertaking as the size of his contribution to the war tax on his income shows.

Best of care given patients at Mrs. Firewood's maternity hospital.

Lost—Gasoline filler cup painted gray. Finder please return to Summit Garage and receive reward.

Rooms to rent. Mrs. Eunice Thompson.

Estrayed—Two steer calves, branded LH connected, the first letter being reversed and forming a portion of the H. on the right hip; wattle on the right side of neck, right ear smooth crop. Liberal reward for recovery.—L. H. McPhail, Crane Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Caldwell were down from the mountain ranch during the week visiting their son, Assessor John Caldwell, who has been confined to his home for the past several weeks from illness. The patient is improving at this time and able to be at his office occasionally.

Mrs. Archie McGowan arrived home from Bend on Thursday evening. She states that Archie is in Portland and the time of his return is indefinite. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Harry Z. Smith and little daughter, also Miss Margaret Thompson who will visit with her for an indefinite time.

Beginning Feb. 1 we will make one delivery each day to the suburban portion toward the river. Orders must be in by 1 o'clock P. M. This service entails additional expense to us but we believe our patrons in that vicinity deserve such consideration. Phone us R24. A. K. RICHARDSON

Otus Sizemore is in town.

J. E. Graves was in town the other day.

Score cards for "Five Hundred," also program pencils for sale at this office.

Albert Oakerman and his mother were in town for a few days this week.

William and Frank Dunn were up the fore part of the week to consult the income tax man.

Ralph Catterson and Scott Hayes were among our visitors from the Lawen section the fore part of this week.

Rev. W. F. Shields, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city spent most of the past week visiting several portions of the county to minister to the spiritual welfare of the people. He preached at Crane on last Sunday night and later went to Happy Valley, Voltago, Narrows and intervening points where he held services and visited with the people. He covered quite a territory and was most hospitably received by friends.

David Nelson came down from his home above Harney yesterday to deliver butter and attend to some business. He was accompanied by his son, Eugene, who recently came over from Idaho on a short visit to his parents before offering himself for enlistment in the army. The young man is of draft age and since he has not been called he thought he would prefer volunteering as he would then have his choice of service. He went to Crane yesterday afternoon to take the train out this morning for Idaho where he will make application before his local draft board.
