SEVEN REASONS FOR SAVING Seven reasons for saving and investing in Thrift Stamps and War Saving Stamps:
1. Save for your country's sake, because it is now spending millions a day, and must find most of the money out of savings.
2. Save for your own sake, because work and wages are plentiful and while prices are high now, adolar will buy more after the war.
3. Save, because, when you spend you make other people work for you and the work of everyone is needed now to win the war.
4. Save, because, by saving, you make things cheaper for everyone, especially for those who are poorer than you.
5. Save, because, by going without, you relieve the strain on ships, docks, and railways, and make transport cheaper and quicker.
6. Save, because, by saving, you set an example that makes it easier for the next man to save. A saving nation is an earning nation.
7. Save, because, every time you save you help twice, first when you don't spend, and again when you lend to the nation.

Our boys in camp have rebelled against German measles and want the name changed. They'd much prefer plain old itch.
The Kaiser is apprehensive that Austria will acquire the Hohenzol-ern view of troties--"scraps of paper."

A NATIONAL DUTY
The Treasurer of the United States has a great deal of money to raise and it can not be raised by bankers alone, says Secretary McAdoo. The banks of this country can not alone sustain America's needs in this war and extend to our allies the essential aid which they must have to continue the war.
The rich of this country cannot do it alone; the men of this country can not do it alone; the women of this country can not do it alone; but all of us, the people of the United States, disregarding partisanship, forgetting selfish interests, thinking only of the supremacy of right and determination to vindicate the majesty of American ideals and secure the safety of America and civilization, can do the great and splendid work which God has called upon us to do.
