

Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates

Constitute a plan whereby each and everyone can do his financial "bit" in helping finance the war.

These securities are preferable to Government bonds in many respects—equally as safe—and are worth par and accrued interest at all times.

The Times-Herald learns that "Grandma" Hayes, who has the distinction of being the oldest pioneer in Harney County, and holds the title of "Mother of the Harney County Pioneer Association," is one of the entergetic knitters for the soldier boys, at Lawen. The respected lady is using the same needles she used to knit socks for the boys in the Civil War.

Gus Zoglmann and the Williams boys brought over a band of some 1500 head of sheep from Silver Creek the latter part of this week and took them to the John Eberle place to feed. They had wintered out on the range until that time but Gus says they are too valuable to be made to hustle all winter and so will feed them alfalfa until the grass is good.

The announcement of Tom S. Sprague as a candidate for Sheriff appears in this issue. Tom is the first man to make an announcement this election and shows his good judgment in getting into the field early and give the voters an opportunity to investigate his fitness and character. He was deputy in the Sheriff's office for a term of years and has proven himself. He's a good man and would make a good officer.

Married—Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Austin in this city, Roy Parker and Miss Helen Volmer were united in marriage by Rev. W. L. Wilson. The ceremony was witnessed by the parents of the contracting parties and a few friends. Both are well known young people, Roy being the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker who now reside at Paisley but who formerly lived in this county. They are pioneer people who are held in high regard. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Volmer of Iron Mountain and a young lady of many attractions and fine character. She was a student in the high school here for a time. The Times-Herald joins in wishing them every happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKinney arrived home last Monday after spending several weeks in Portland and other outside places, having gone out before the holidays. While absent Mr. McKinney had the pleasure of visiting with several of the Harney county boys who are in training at Camp Lewis. Mac says the boys are well provided for, with good, warm clothing, good beds, a fine variety of food and everything the best. He was with the boys at their meals and was asked to tell of some of his experiences during his army career and he told them they had a picnic compared to his treatment; they had fine bread, butter, roast beef, potatoes, lettuce, pudding, etc. and besides a spring bed to sleep on. Mac had hardtack and sawbelle to eat, one blanket to sleep on and under, and the ground to lie on instead of springs. He says the boys are contented with their treatment and becoming "fit" for the job of putting the Hun where he belongs.

Bring Your Dollar TO US AND WATCH IT PULL!

Our ambition is to get your trade, and HOLD IT. We know that the only way to hold it is to DELIVER THE GOODS, and make good on every sale.

We buy with this end in view, and we sell with it in view. Our every act has this end in view.

Therefore, we invite you to bring that dollar to us and watch it perform. No where in this whole community will it do more—we do not believe there is a single place where it will do as much.

It gets the goods here—the BEST goods—the MOST goods—and it gets PROMPT and ACCOMMODATING service.

Consider one fact—nearly all of your friends trade here. And they trade here because they can do better here. SO CAN YOU!
