Many patrons of hotels and restaurants who frown when they are offered rye to eat would smile gleefully if they were required to drink it.

It is hard to credit the report of a German-Irish plot. A German and an Irishman could not agree together long enough to formulate a plot.

President Wilson says, "The war is knitting the country together and knitting the world together." The women who have been working for the Red Cross have been laboring under the impression that they were doing that.

The army mule is to be prevented from braying. This can be accomplished by severing some muscles in its tail, as the raising of the tail is an indispensable accompaniment to the bray. This reminds us of Mark Twain's story of the man who tied a stone to the tail of his neighbor's mule so that he himself could enjoy some rest at night.

Mrs. Effie E. Kleppe, Averill, Minn. writes: "I was at a sanitarium three weeks at one time, two weeks another time, for rheumatism and kidney trouble and got no relief. Says It Acted Like A Charm

Coughs or colds which persist this season usually are of obdurate nature. All the more reason for using a reliable remedy.
