Says It Acted Like A Charm

Coughs or colds which persist at this season usually are of obstinate nature. All the more reason for using a reliable remedy. Mrs. Margaret Senale, Bishop Calif., writes: "Foleys Honey and Tar Compound is a grand remedy. Suffered from a cold last week, used the medicine and it acted like a charm."—Sold by Reed Bros.

The other day the Woman's Suffrage question bobbed up serenely again in the Senate. It submerges for long periods and then surprises every one by coming to the surface. But the American craft has never carried explosives on board.

I MEAN BUSINESS

Have real purchasers for both an improved and unimproved farm, but unless you are the owner and have a good buy, do not waste time answering, as I mean business. State prices, terms, and particulars in your first letter. H. C. Irwin, 315-Stock Exchange Building, Portland, Oregon.

Unavoidable Conditions!

Owing to the fact that the war has brought about many changes in the business world, we are compelled to adjust our business accordingly. The government is regulating the prices on many articles which we have to sell, these prices are figured on a cash basis, therefore, the manufacturer is holding the jobber to a cash or a ten day term, likewise the jobber is demanding cash from the retail merchant, now it is down to the point where the retail merchant must get the cash for his goods or go broke. Therefore from this date we will confine our terms of credit to strictly thirty days. Goods are hard to get, help is scarce, expenses leaping upward, and we are forced to this very much against our desire. We hope our friends will look at this as an unavoidable circumstance over which we have no control.

If You Were There Instead of Here!

If you should see a French child—a tiny girl—sitting by the roadside, sobbing quietly because she is too weak from hunger to cry very loud, you would sell your watch to buy her breakfast.

If you should hear somewhere in the restless wards the low moan of an American soldier, you would gladly sit by him all night, if that would save his life.

You are not there, but here, where these sights and sounds are not brought home to you! But the Red Cross is there—and you can make it YOUR representative!

Over there the Prussians are crucifying the incarnate Liberty of Man, and they are making the world black for little children!

The money you give to the Red Cross now will give you the right, when the Beast is beaten down, to think: "There are happy children, clear eyed women, and strong men alive today, because my money went across!"
