

Gambling with Destiny

Spending your income as you make it is simply gambling with destiny—and with all the odds against you. You stand all to lose and none to gain.

Systematic Saving

even though small, if consistent, eliminates the element of chance and establishes your future on a basis of certainty.

This bank desires to co-operate with you in building on this basis.

We have unusual facilities for promoting the interest of our customers.

First National Bank Burns, Oregon

Capital and Surplus - $100,000.00

United States Depository
Oregon State Depository

ACCOUNTS INVITED

The Times-Herald

Has The Largest Circulation Of Any Newspaper in Harney County.

SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1918

Local News

Wm. Dunn and his son were in town Thursday on business.

Two Ajax Ford tires new, for sale at a bargain.—Farmers Exchange.

M. R. Smith and family spent a few days at Juntura the fore part of this week.

Regular customers desired for milk and cream. Phone John Caldwell residence.

Remember the men in our Army and Navy do not expect luxuries. Should we at home expect them? Buy necessities and War Savings Stamps.

For Sale—Seed wheat, Early Baart or Little Club. 90 day oats. All fanned and ready to seed.—P. S. Weittenhiller.

Mrs. Allen Jones returned this week from a visit with her aunt, Mrs. J. F. Mahon, at her Anderson Valley home.

Hank Felton and family will take their departure next week for the big Trout Creek ranch of McDade & Biggs, near Denio, where they make their home.

Walton Brown was over from Drewsey the other day. We are informed that this young man is among those called in the next draft and is making necessary changes in his business affairs to enable him to go when called.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Miller are here from Medford guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson. Frank owns one of the best producing farms in this neighborhood but depends on some one else to do the work on it. He comes in to see his friends almost every year and he is always welcome.

Prolonging Human Life!

In the effort to lengthen the span of human existence, every available resource in Nature's storehouse is utilized. These must be classified and systematized and ready for use. This is the work of the chemist.

The intelligent handling of this vast store of remedies, under the direction of your physician, devolves on
Your Druggist

We employ none but competent graduated pharmacists.

The Rexall Drug Store
REED BROS., Props.

Frank Clerf is in town on business.

Harry and Jack Withers were in town yesterday for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mahon were in town last Monday on business.

C. E. Bunn was over from Silver Creek for a short visit during the week.

Geo. Baker and Charley Lutten were over from Drewsey last Monday.

Clarence Cary was over from his home on Crane Creek the fore part of this week.

For Sale—300 acres of grain hay. Come at once and see Mrs. E. J. Newell.

Several of our local boys contemplate volunteering for army service in the near future.

James Young and J. W. Davies are in the city on some land business. These gentlemen are two of our substantial sheep growers.

"Closed on account of sickness" is a sign observed on a Chicago drug store. We had always supposed that sickness was the very thing that kept the drug stores open.

James Paul and family and Ralph Weaver, cashier of the Crane State Bank, were in the city yesterday looking after some business affairs and visiting with friends.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Dan Jordan, who formerly resided in the Lawen country, but now a resident of Malheur County, was in this city Thursday on business and greeting former friends.

Frank Johnson was here a part of this week, making this his headquarters while looking after business for the Oregon & Western Colonization Co. He has gone back to Prineville.

Mrs. Thos. Cleveland and her son Victor were over from their home near Van the fore part of this week. They visited Mrs. Cleveland's father, R. J. McKinnon, and also with relatives and friends in this city.

Jesse Ferguson took his departure yesterday morning for Portland and other outside points. He will join his family at Cottage Grove for a short visit before engaging actively in some war work.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Brown have moved to the C. C. Lundy residence near the river where they will reside during the summer months. Mr. Lundy and family are going to make an extended tour during the warm months.

Lost—A saddle horse estrayed from Jack Creek this spring. Bay in color, branded CB on left stifle, saddle marked, weight about 900 lbs. Reward for his recovery or information leading to his recovery.—M. S. Davies, Narrows, Oregon.

Thos. Sprague took his departure Tuesday for Portland where he hopes to secure employment either in the ship yards or on contract work. Tom is a good mechanic and will make good wherever he is placed on wood work. Mrs. Sprague remained at the home in this city.

Miss Martha Hanley arrived home from Portland last Saturday afternoon after an extended visit in that city and other points in Western and Southern Oregon. She was accompanied by Miss Jocelyn Burke, who will spend an indefinite time with Miss Hanley and other friends in this county during the summer months.

H. H. Thompson, of Hardin, Montana, was in to see us this morning. He and Mrs. Thompson have driven through from Montana in their Franklin car and are en route to Prineville where they have some property interests. He is a former acquaintance of J. E. Weston, who used to live in that part of the country.

The Misses Jean Cook, Agnes Foley and Evelyn Byrd arrived home Tuesday evening from Seattle where they had been in school. Miss Agnes was a student at the Holy Names Academy, the other two young ladies attending the State University. Charley Foley and Newton Hotchkiss brought them in from Bend, having left here Sunday morning in the Foley car for that purpose.

Mrs. Frank Sheehan has gone to San Francisco to join her husband who was with a recent contingent of draft boys to leave this county for an army camp. He is located at the Presidio. Mrs. Sheehan was accompanied by Miss Esther Hughes who goes to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends in California but expects later to prepare herself for some duty in the army or navy.

Lester Hamilton is up from his ranch home near Denio.

Lady waiter wanted at the Star Restaurant in this city.

Burbank Clay was up from Crane yesterday.

Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and her daughters were in town Tuesday.

For Sale—40 acres adjoining Burns. See J. J. Donegan.

R. J. Williams was among our visitors from Silver Creek during the week.

For Sale—Complete well drilling outfit. For particulars inquire of Geo. Cobb, Burns, Oregon.

Seth Dixon, a retired stockman of Crook County, was in this city for a short visit during the week.

Deep grief and enduring pride enter American homes with the casualty lists.

Mrs. W. E. Huston returned home recently from a visit with relatives and friends in Boise and Weiser.

Mrs. J. L. Gault expects to leave the first of next week for Portland to visit for a short time and take a rest.

Do not forget that War Savings Stamps are not for the children only. Most of the squandering is done by the grown-ups.

There is a meeting of the farmers and stockmen at the Commercial Club this afternoon to discuss mutual beneficial subjects.

When you buy War Savings Stamps you do not give your money, you loan it at 4 per cent, compounded quarterly. You help your Government, but you help yourself even more.

Sam Mothershead was elected director in the Burns school district at the annual election held Monday and W. E. Huston Clerk. Both succeeded themselves.

Notice: All persons knowing themselves indebted to I. Schwartz, are requested to settle their accounts before June 1st. On that date all unpaid accounts will be given to a collector.

Roy Moulton is carrying one eye in a sling. He got something in it the other day and it became inflamed to such an extent that he found it necessary to cover it to protect it from the light.

W. H. Morrison was seen on the street this morning and said we were a little partial with our rain as it failed to reach his place. He may get some of it that's coming this afternoon.

C. E. Tulloch was over from Catlow the other day making proof on his land. He was assisted by W. R. Byram who stated that Tulloch had prayed for another rain and it arrived but was so little that it did no good.

Joe Martin, an uncle of Archie McGowan, formerly a resident of this section, was here for a short visit the other day while en route through in company with his son Louis. Mrs. Savidge of Crane, is a daughter to Mr. Martin.

J. W. Biggs and Water Master Foley returned Saturday night from a trip to the southern part of the county, the former on business in connection with his land and stock interests in that vicinity, the latter on official duties in connection with the use of water.

Estrayed—Two sorrell geldings, one branded CN on left shoulder, the other O on right shoulder, the latter with one eye out, collar marked and weight about 1200 lbs. Both are gentle aged horses. A suitable reward will be given for their recovery or for information leading to their being found. Address W. E. Stratton, care Purington Sawmill, Burns, Oregon.

Dot Davis and family came over from Riverside Wednesday after the sheep shearing plant had closed down. After a short visit with home folks they left Friday morning in a Ford car for Idaho points where they will join Mr. and Mrs. Beebe and the men folks will continue to shear until the close of the season. They expect to wind up their activities in Montana and will then tour the Yellowstone Park before returning to these parts.

Rev. W. F. Shields and School Supt. Frances Clark made a trip to the Denio county this week, the former to speak at a community picnic at the Catlow ranch on Tuesday afternoon, and the latter in her capacity as chairman of the War Savings Stamp committee in a campaign of education leading to the pledge day. Rev. Shields preached in Catlow Valley upon his return and Mrs. Clark talked Thrift. Both state the trip was quite successful and satisfactory as to results.

WE SELL War Savings Stamps

Save and Serve

United States Depository

The Harney County National Bank of Burns, Oregon
"YOUR HOME INSTITUTION"

Born—Wednesday, June 19, to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brasswell, a son.

O. E. Thompson was in town Wednesday on business.

J. W. Buchanan was in town the other day.

Recent rains in the mountain regions will improve the range conditions very much.

Scott and Pete Haley were up from their home near Malheur Lake Thursday.

Occasional showers are most welcome and they at least cool the atmosphere even if not sufficient to help crops much.

Found—A 22-calibre Winchester rifle, in the sage brush back of the public school building. Owner may have same by coming to this office, proving the property and paying for this notice.

Parties coming up from the Potter Swamp section yesterday afternoon following the rain state that it was more than a passing shower in that part of the country it was simply a torrent. This harder rain storm prevailed on to the east of this city and also to the north, so it has really been a benefit to the crops.

Tom Allen was in town for a few days this week.

D. R. Thorn was over from Silver Creek Thursday.

Starr Buckland and family were in town Thursday for a short time.

Jack Craddock is greeting his many old time friends in this city.

Mrs. David Craddock is in the city today from her Silvie's home.

Van Embree and his mother are up from Sunset today.

Judge J. P. Rector, who was an inmate of the Haines hospital in this city for the greater part of the winter, is able to be out on the streets these days conversing with his friends. Judge Rector has had trouble with an old hurt on his leg but is improving and glad to be out as are his old time "Cronics" to have him.

A girl friend of Bill Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Young of this city, has just received a card from him stating that he is in service, having enlisted from Plumas County, California. He is in a cavalry company stationed at Monterey, but he had heard it intimated they would be moved to the Mexican border soon. Bill is well known here.

Bone and Brawn

You can't build and keep up the bodily powers without the most nourishing foods.

For the worker, in whatever line, nothing can excel one of our luscious, juicy Hams, Shoulders, or a savory strip of Breakfast Bacon.

Greatest Reduction in Fancy Meats Ever Offered

The following prices are available for a Limited Time ONLY

Premium Bacon, per lb.	45c
Shield Bacon, per lb.	45c
Oxfords Bacon, per lb.	38c
Hams, per pound	36c

Burns Cash Store