THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

John McLean and family were up from their home near Fields for a few days this week. They came up to have some dental work done for their little girl and took in the pioneer reunion before returning home.

Lost—A saddle horse estrayed from Jack Creek this spring. Bay in color, branded CB on left stifle, saddle marked, weight about 900 lbs. Reward for his recovery or information leading to his recovery.—M. S. Davies, Narrows, Oregon.

R. T. Yokes and wife are here from Seattle on a visit with former friends. They formerly lived in the Lawen country and are quite well known to many of that vicinity. While here they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hayes.

The Misses Agnes and Nettie Stirling arrived home this week from Portland where they had been engaged in library study and work. The young ladies will spend a vacation period with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stirling, at the Bell A. Ranch.

Roe Buchanan and family have gone to Portland where Roe expects to engage in war work, likely in the shipyards. Mr. Buchanan was formerly a deputy in the county clerk's office and the vacancy has been filled by the appointment of Mrs. Blanche Robinson.

Miss Lois Sweek came down from the mountains the fore part of the week to take in the celebration but was taken ill with an attack of tonsillitis. However, she has recovered and returned today to resume her duties as lookout at a ranger station during the dry period.

Jack McGuire, who recently lost his garage by fire in this city, left the first part of this week for Portland to secure a complete equipment including an oxy-acetylene welding plant. He will also bring back two more Hupmobile cars. He has not learned where Mr. McGuire will house his plant.

The people of the Sagehen neighborhood gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simmons last Sunday and spent a most enjoyable day with a picnic dinner on the lawn. While it was near the National day and the good things to eat were in keeping with a celebration there were no patriotic addresses given but every individual present was a loyal patriot.

Thos. McKinnon, son of R. J. McKinnon, is at his father's home. He arrived in the vicinity the latter part of May but did not come within the writer's vision until last Wednesday. Tom had been living in the Willamette Valley near Beaverton for some time but is here to remain with his father for an indefinite time. He is well known to the old time residents of this section who welcome his return.
