Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Balcomb Miss Balcomb and Mrs. R. R. Grant are here from The Lake. Miss Balcomb recently came out from Chicago to visit her brother and may remain in this country permanently.

Mrs. Ellis McKinnon came over from her home near Prineville last week and has since been a guest of her sister, Mrs. James Kennedy. The latter underwent an operation on last Monday afternoon and is confined at the hospital for a few days but is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Arnold, who have been making their home in this city for the past few weeks, will return to the homestead near Princeton in the immediate future. Mrs. Arnold made proof on her land Wednesday before the local land office. She was assisted by Judge Grant Thompson as one of her witnesses.

J. W. Biggs, Wm. Farre and Register Vic Cozad of the local land office went to Canyon City Thursday to attend the funeral of G. I. Hazeltine. Mr. Hazeltine was one of the highly respected pioneers of that section and was also well known to many people in this country. He died in the early seventies and his genial personality had won for him lasting friendships. Mr. Hazeltine was well along in years and had been in feeble health for some time. The Times-Herald family feel the loss of a dear friend in the passing of G. I. Hazeltine.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGowan started on their return home yesterday after a short visit with friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Starr Buckland and Mrs. Len Vickers were visiting with relatives and friends in this city the fore part of this week.

Deputy Sheriff Platt Randall left this morning on some official business to the southern part of the county. He was accompanied by Mrs. Randall.

Mrs. Hunt, wife of Rev. Hunt, will lecture at the Baptist church tomorrow forenoon at 11 o'clock. Public cordially invited.

Sam Mothershead and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Biggs and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Swain are going over to Blue Mountain Springs this afternoon to spend the week end.

Miss Helen Biggs of Baker arrived in Ontario last Thursday evening to visit with her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Weese. Miss Biggs expects to return home about September 1st.—Ontario Argus.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Griffith, Mrs. Millar and Clarence Luckey have returned from their trip to western Oregon. The party came back by way of Crater Lake and most thoroughly enjoyed the journey and the scenery. Mrs. A. W. Glosy, a sister of Dr. Griffith, returned with the party and spent a few days here, leaving for her home this morning.

R. F. Cooper, a business man of Portland, is in the city. The gentleman is here a guest of Ira Mahon.

Tourists are numerous going through the country. When the highway is completed this will be increased many times.

Mr. Wright, one of the engineers in charge of the highway work in this vicinity states that road districts may be formed to levy taxes for road improvement. This should have attention of road builders.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Geer took their departure this morning for Riddle, Douglas county, to bring back Mr. Geer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Geer. They will drive over the McKenzie pass and enjoy an outing while on the way. The senior Geers are well known to the pioneer people of this city who will be glad to learn they are returning to make their home here.

The friends of Bill Hanley in this country were disappointed in a recent story written by Chapman in his Oregon Voter in which he gives some past history. It is a pity to spoil a good story of a man like Bill with fairy tale stuff. Most of that story is good and the friends of Mr. Hanley would appreciate it if some things which are purely imaginary were left unsaid. It wasn't necessary either, to discredit Peter French to bring out the good qualities of Mr. Hanley. There are many here who respected Mr. French and know him to have been a different character entirely from that pictured by Mr. Chapman.

All praise to the man who harvests and the woman who cans.

The name of the river Ourcq is suggestive of seasickness. It is hoped that both name and river are making the Germans sick.

Nat Goodwin has appealed to a New York court to have a receiver appointed. Very few people would be willing to receive Nat under any circumstances.

While cotton is growing up the price is going down. It is to be hoped that next year a plain gingham gown will be within reach of the ordinary American woman.

The interest of the country seems largely to center on the amendment to the agricultural bill. There is quite a difference between a "dripping wet" and a "bone dry" nation.

Husband and Wife

Mrs. Frank P. Wood, Box 18, R. F. D. 2, Morrill, Me., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills helped me so much. My husband also has received much benefit from them. He was so lame he could not stoop over and now he feels so pain." Lame back, sore muscles, stiff joints, rheumatic aches and pains quickly conquered by Foley Kidney Pills.—Sold by Reed Bros.

BRITONS GET HINTS FOR PLAYING HOSTS

Their country flooded with Americans, the British are doing their best properly to entertain the strangers. Many of these attempts are doubtless flat and unexciting according to one Yankee who has undertaken to give the English a correspondence course on how to please the new comers. Writing to a British paper recently, he spoke of what had been done to amuse Americans and then proceeded to outline what should be and what should not be done in this respect. His symposium is amusing. Here it is:

"There are two forms of entertainment. One amuses the host only; the other satisfies the host by delighting his guest. The former is the simpler and more common.

"As a sample, I read in a London paper the announcement of a great Sunday entertainment supposed to be given for the American soldier guests. Its big feature was a song by 150 voices:

So I'm going back again
It's a tiny little country,
To the dear old spot,
But it means a lot;
So it's England every time for me.
"What an entertainment for an American!

"There are a few simple rules for avoiding such vicarious entertainment:

"Don't take the Yanks to a cricket match. Cricket is about as exciting to a baseball player as a Bolshevik demand to Hindenburg.

"Don't 'rush the gowler' as the introductory midway and final exposition of your friendship. Thirty-four of Sammy's 48 states have deliberately decided that entertainment doesn't necessarily center around a bottle 20 of them that cold water has other uses than to bathe in.

the Woolworth building and Brooklyn bridge?

"Don't imagine you amuse him by laughing at his slang. There is nothing ridiculous in having discovered other descriptive adjectives in the English language beside 'ripping' and 'rotten.'

"Don't talk tradition. The only use he has for tradition is its lessons. And America is famous for having profited by them.

"Don't keep him in the country. He admits there is nothing the world like English gardens and woods and hedges. But neither is there anything like London. Rusticating is an interlude not a career.

"Don't feed him purely English meals. Meat once or twice a day is his custom. More than three meals will probably ruin his appetite and temper. And he likes soups, salads, and more substantial desserts (sweets) thin custards. He may fall to afternoon tea when he has overcome the shame of it; teaing is a waste of time, and in America there is nothing more contemptible than the 'pink tea' man. Give him good coffee for breakfast—if you know how. (The chances are you don't.) so beware of experimenting.)

"Don't freeze him. If the trenches are as uncomfortable to him as English houses in cold weather war is sure hell. You may not be able to heat halls and bedrooms as he has them at home, but indoor draughts and dampness may send him to the hospital with rheumatism.

"Above all don't study him openly don't try to convert him and don't set yourself to 'arranging' his salvation by marrying him to an English girl.

Keep the Blood Steam Pure

Rheumatic pains, backache, swollen joints and sore muscles often are the result of impurities in the blood gathering in the region affected, a result of failure of the kidneys to eliminate waste products from the blood stream. Foley Kidney Pills heal, strengthen and invigorate weak diseased kidneys and bladder. W. H. Hill, Justice of the Peace, Detroit, Tex., writes: "I used Foley Kidney Pills and say unhesitatingly that of all I have used they are the best, and have done the work where the rest failed." Sold everywhere.
