SENSITIVENESS HURTS A MAN

Affliction Often Results in Absolute Ruin of Persons Who Are Inclined to Be Ambitious.

In an article called "How I Cured Myself of Being Sensitive," a writer says in the American Magazine:
"Wagner, you've got ability," he cried, "but you'll never get anywhere in this world until you quit tearing yourself to pieces! I've watched you for the last three years; twice I've had it in mind to push you up a notch in the office, and every time I've passed you and picked some one else, because I knew you aren't fit to handle other men. No man is fit to handle other men until he has learned to control himself. You can't, you're too blamed sensitive."

"Little setbacks break your heart.
A letter of complaint comes in from some customer and you take it as a personal criticism, and lose a day's work brooding over it. You see me in conference with some of the other men and you stub yourself wondering why you weren't invited and imagine that I have turned against you. You hear about some one who is making more money than you, and immediately all far fields look greener. You're a fairly useful cog in your present job, and it might put me to some annoyance to lose you. But you'll never hold a big job until you can forget your own petty self, and learn to laugh when the world takes a crack at you. Hanged if I don't think sometimes it might be better if you were to get out and try your hand somewhere else."

Fuel Problem in China.

Mrs. Calvin Wright, a missionary at Tangchowfu, tells of famine conditions in China. She writes, according to the Christian World: "Between us and the sea is a field of the tall grain we call gooliang, which has been almost completely stripped of its leaves by the poor of the city, trying to find fuel for their kitchen fires. When we cut our millet the poor came out in families and the hired reapers seemed to take them all for Ruths, for each woman and child had handfuls of purpose and went away with baskets and armfuls of grain. It seemed a pity to stop them, but the memory of 100 months to feed led us to send them word to wait until the reapers were done. So the gleaners sat in groups among the graves or by the roadside and waited. When the last stalk was cut and carried off they pounced upon the land and raked it bare. We had our lawn cleared of wild grass for nothing, as the gleaners were only too glad to pull up the roots for fuel."

America's Severest Winter.

A letter from John Winter to Rev.
Dr. Cotton Mather describes graphically the severest winter and deepest snow ever recorded in America: "It held the north half of the continent in its grip. In the Illinois country in this winter of 1716 and 1717 the snow fell to a depth of six feet on the prairies and hid so long that all wild animal life, such as the larger game—buffalo, elk, deer and antelope—died. The buffalo and antelope never crossed the Mississippi river, and these two species (peculiarly plains and prairie ruminants) never came back, but elk and deer and other large game did."

Make This Room Yours

Whether you are building a brand new home, making additions to the old one or merely repairing walls, you can have a room like this if you use genuine Beaver Board.
Beaver Board walls and ceilings are more handsome, more substantial and more sanitary than any other kind. They are the easiest walls to build. No lath or plaster—therefore, no litter. Beaver Board always gives satisfaction. But you can't expect Beaver Board results unless this trade-mark is on the back of the board you buy.
