

Statement Of the Condition of the First National Bank
Burns, Oregon

At the close of business June 29, 1918

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts	$518,458.23
U. S. Bonds	105,312.50
Bonds and Securities	27,970.22
Stock, Federal Reserve Bank	3,000.00
Real Estate, Furniture and Fixtures	9,200.00
Five per cent Redemption Fund	2,500.00
CASH	140,494.98
	<hr/>
	$806,935.93

LIABILITIES

Capital	$ 50,000.00
Surplus Fund	50,000.00
Undivided Profits Account	35,018.81
Circulation	50,000.00
Bills Payable (Liberty Loan Account)	25,000.00
Re-discounts with Federal Reserve Bank	24,800.00
DEPOSITS	572,117.12
	<hr/>
	$806,935.93

Capital and Surplus - $100,000.00

United States Depository
Oregon State Depository

ACCOUNTS INVITED

D. A. Brakeman was a business visitor during the week.

In the future as in the past, it will be our aim to serve you.—Harney County Abstract Co.

The alive-to-the-times parent gives his son a college education. Mt. Angel College, St. Benedict, Ore.

County Surveyor Nicholson was a business visitor to our city from Crane the fore part of this week.

C. B. Ausmus was in town the other day. He is recovering rapidly from his recent operation and says he's good for many years yet.

Mr. Newton who had charge of the school at Riverside last year, was in town this week. He states he will teach there again the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller were in town the first of this week. Mr. Miller is one of the foremen of the P. L. S. Co., having charge of the stock in this county.

Capt. A. W. Gowan left Wednesday evening for Crane where he took the train the following morning for Portland to attend the National Encampment of the G. A. R.

A tan coat was picked upon the Canyon road the fore part of this week. Owner may have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

Deputy Sheriff Randall and District Attorney Allen Biggs went to the Grain Camp Thursday evening to investigate an alleged insane man. They did not bring anyone back with them and it evidently was a mistake.

WANTED:—Man and wife for a responsible position on a large cattle ranch. Must have had previous experience and able to give references. A good place for the right parties. Inquire of The Times-Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ingram and C. A. Bedell came up from Denio the first of this week. Mr. Bedell is now residing in Winnemucca and came up on some business, he having property in this city.

Henry Eichner and family took their departure yesterday morning on the Wray stage for Portland where Mr. Eichner is employed in the ship yards and where the children will attend school the coming year.

Mrs. Claud Brown and her children arrived home last Saturday evening from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Grant Story in Idaho. Mrs. Brown says there is very little fruit in that section this season.

Miss Beatrice Hotchkiss took her departure yesterday morning for Portland where she will enter a hospital to become a trained nurse. The many friends of this young lady are sure of her final success in this profession.

Miss Jocelyn Burke took her departure Monday for her home in Portland after a visit of several weeks with friends in this vicinity. The young lady hopes to return to Burns next summer for a portion of her vacation as she has many friends here.

Mrs. Jennie Upson and her daughter, Miss Juanita, came over from Drewsey last Saturday in company with Ed Stallard. Miss Upson is one of the applicants for the nurse course offered by the government and was here to submit herself for examination preliminary to being accepted.

The Times-Herald received instructions from the postal service to change the address of this paper to several of the boys serving in the army from Camp Lewis to American Expeditionary Forces in France. Among the Harney County boys in the contingent are Buck Miller, Hadden Elliott and Roy Clark. These three boys are in the same battalion.

Fred Otley was in town Tuesday and says he is liable to lose about all his family in war work. His son Charles is going to go out at once for army duty and Dick contemplates disposing of his stock and offering his services either this fall or next spring, and his daughter, Miss Anna, has offered herself as a candidate for the nurses training course to the government.

Clarence Woldenberg and his wife were visitors to our city Wednesday. Clarence is the son of L. Woldenberg, Sr., who established the brewery here several years ago and who was a resident of Burns for many years. Clarence spent his boyhood days in this city and wanted to come back and see his former schoolmates and friends. He is a commercial traveler, selling shoes in the territory south and being at McDermitt, Nevada, decided to run up for a day or two. He reports his father in good health and also his sister. The family have resided in San Francisco for the past several years.

Chas. Newell is in the city.

Mt. Angel College, St. Benedict, Ore., the place for your boy.

For Sale—46 acres adjoining Burns. See J. J. Donegan.

Corey Smyth and wife were registered at a local hotel during the week.

Miss Daisy Defenbaugh was registered at the Hotel Levens during the week and left for Washington D. C. later.

The Harney County Abstract Company now owns the Fire Insurance Business formerly owned by J. J. Donegan. Give us a call.

FOR SALE—Several head of good milk cows and heifers, also a young bull. Beef stock.

THEO. FORCIER, Crane Ore.

Byron Terrill took his departure yesterday morning for southern Oregon to visit his mother for a couple of weeks.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rounseville have arrived from their home in the south end to take charge of their insurance and real estate business recently purchased from the Inland Empire Realty Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson and their daughter Mrs. Fred Williams and her children, arrived home Thursday from their outing spent at Payette Lakes. They return in fine health and report having had a fine time. They look it.

The many friends of Edwin Ray Griffin will be glad to learn that he is among the survivors of the ill-fated U. S. S. "Westover" which was torpedoed and sunk July 11, 1918. Edwin writes his mother that he is in a hospital some where in France but hopes soon to be on duty again doing his bit in the great struggle for justice and freedom.

H. J. Jokisch was in town for a few days this week visiting with Mr. Jokisch and their little daughter. He went down to the ranch home Monday and Mrs. Jokisch and Dorothy followed on Wednesday. Both are engaged to teach again the coming school year. Mr. Jokisch having charge of the high school grades at Crane and Mrs. Jokisch will teach in the southern part of the county.

Grant Sturtevant and wife, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Walter Struck and her children, left Thursday morning for La Grande where they go to make their home. Mr. Sturtevant has purchased a small acreage in that place where he has a fine bearing orchard and lots of garden space. Mr. Sturtevant has been a resident of this vicinity for many years and our citizens regret the departure of this estimable family from our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Neal are in town today. They have recently turned over all their property to their children and are now at leisure. They propose going to Southern California at once, in fact are on their way, and while they do not expect to make their home in this section in the future they will no doubt make frequent trips here as this is really their home since they have resided in this county for many years. However, their friends are glad they are taking life easy as they deserve it.

Married—Sunday, August 11, William W. Gould and Miss Mamie Winters were united in marriage by Justice of the Peace Patterson. It was a very quiet affair. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rohn being the only ones present. Even the parents of Mr. Gould were not let in on the secret until after the ceremony. The bride has been the post mistress in this city for the past few years and Mr. Gould has been the deputy. Close friends of the couple had predicted such a union but they were not prepared to have it come about as it did. Both are highly respected young people who have the best wishes of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Staples are here from Ontario on a visit with old time friends. Both were former residents of this city. Mrs. Staples being an employee in the Citizens Bank and worked with John Biggs and Al Welcome. She is remembered by many of the old time residents of this city who are pleased to welcome her among them again after an absence of 18 years. Mr. Staples is in the automobile business in Ontario and has the agency for several cars which includes this territory. He came over to look over the field incidentally in respect to prospects for sales and also to renew acquaintances. He formerly worked for C. H. Voegtly and others here. He is a brother to Mrs. Thos. Jones.

YOUR VALUABLES

Whatever you have that is valuable; whether it is just a trinket worthless in itself but valuable in sentiment; whether it is an important paper that must be safeguarded; or whether it is a deed or a negotiable security; the best way to keep it safely is through the Safe Deposit Service we render for a small yearly sum.

It will pay you to inquire.

The Harney County National Bank of Burns, Oregon
"YOUR HOME INSTITUTION"

Miss Violet Harkey will leave for Portland tomorrow to enter a business college. Mr. Ed Stallard was over from his home on Otus Creek the first of the week.

At the Liberty Theatre, Tomorrow Night

THE BUYING POWER

The buying power of The Dollar is not always in the number of cents it contains

This great Family Store makes a specialty of increasing the buying power of your money. We can do this because—

We Buy For Cash
We have no heavy credit bills to pay, and take advantage of all trade discounts.

We Sell on Close Margins of Profit
A reasonable per cent for our trouble and investment is all we ask of our customers.

We Handle High Class Goods
Every article we buy is the best possible to be had for the money.

On these three business virtues we base our bid for your trade

Burns Cash Store

The Times-Herald

Has The Largest Circulation Of Any Newspaper In Harney County.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1918

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Buy a War Saving Stamp.

Phone B63 for your Fire Insurance—Harney County Abstract Co.

P. S. Weitenhiller was up from Crane Wednesday evening on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Smith, and son "Pat Murphy" accompanied by S. S. Smith, went out to Iron Mountain Thursday.

Balley Hayes was up from Lawen last Tuesday to meet his daughter, Miss Lulu, and take her down to the ranch, she having just returned from Monmouth where she had been attending the normal.

Notice to parties who have ordered wood from me: When you are in need of wood please notify me a few days in advance and I will take care of your wants. E. B. BENNETT.

Dr. W. C. Brown has closed up the office for a few days and gone out to get a buck deer which some friends claimed to have staked out for him near Van. We're getting our appetite whetted up for his return.

Sam Motherhead and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Biggs and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Swain are home from their trip to the Blue Mountain Springs. The huckleberry pie promised to some friends failed to materialize, at least some of them didn't get any huckleberries.

Thos. H. Douglas was over from Diamond during the present week on business. Mr. Douglas is a pioneer of this territory, having come to Canyon City in '65 and since has resided in this territory. He used to carry the mail from old Camp Harney to McDermitt in the early days when he had to hide along the route from hostile Indians.

Prolonging Human Life!

In the effort to lengthen the span of human existence, every available resource in Nature's storehouse is utilized. These must be classified and systematized and ready for use. This is the work of the chemist.

The intelligent handling of this vast store of remedies, under the direction of your physician, devolves on

Your Druggist

We employ none but competent graduated pharmacists.

The Rexall Drug Store
REED BROS., Props.