School Supt. Clark has received word that an O. A. C. man is available for the teachers institute which is to be held here in October. Mr. J. F. Brumbaugh, head of the department of psychology, will be one of the instructors.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Geer arrived home Thursday evening from Douglas county where they had been to bring Mr. Geer's parents back with them. The Senior Geers were formerly residents of this community and still own a farm near Burns. They found a hearty welcome from old time friends.

Miss Mary Hendricks is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Hibbard in this city. The young lady came up from Portland a couple of weeks ago and has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Gray, near Crane until this week when she came up to spend a few days with former school mates and old time friends. Miss Hendricks is now following teaching as a profession, she having graduated from the Monmouth normal two years ago.

Principal Ralston of the Harney County High School, accompanied by Mrs. Ralston, arrived here Wednesday to prepare for the opening of the school. Mr. Ralston has been engaged in war work during the vacation and comes back looking physically fit and ready to "tackle" his work. However, while in Portland he visited the local draft board where he had registered and submitted himself to a physical examination and has been placed in Class 1, therefore expects he will be called to the colors before very long.

R. J. Williams the pioneer stockman and rancher of Silver Creek, has consented to become a candidate at the coming election for county commissioner. Mr. Williams is one of the progressive men of this county who has been a success in a business way and who has such judgement that his friends feel he will make an ideal county commissioner. He is a man of high character, stands well with his neighbors and all his acquaintances and one who will do his full duty as an officer. Mr. Williams will have the support of a wide circle of people regardless of party affiliations.

Miss Lella Egli informs The Times-Herald that her brother Ellsworth has been recommended to take the officers Training course and is expecting a call soon to Camp Pike, Little Rock, Arkansas. Ellsworth formerly attended the high school in this city and expressed a desire to volunteer in the service of his country early last spring but could not go because of not being old enough. As soon as he reached the age where they could take him he entered the service in the schools of California and has now been recommended for promotion. Quite a distinction for so young a boy.

Married—Wednesday, August 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bardwell in this city, James Lee Williams and Miss Lela LaVelle Cain, Rev. W. F. Shields of the Presbyterian church performing the ceremony. Mr. Williams is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Williams, of Silver Creek, being pioneer people highly respected. His bride formerly resided at Eugene but has been living on Silver Creek for the past two years. The Times-Herald desires to join the many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Williams a happy and prosperous life. They will make their home on one of the Williams ranches on Silver Creek.

Raymond Hickey came up from the Denio section during the week in company with Harrison Grove. Raymond will not continue his studies in the high school here during the coming year but hopes to be able to enter the Benson Polytechnic School at Portland. If not there he will attend school at Corvallis.

George Marsden was thrown from a horse at his Bear Valley ranch last Saturday afternoon and quite severely hurt. Dr. Griffith was called and found the unfortunate young man unconscious from concussion of the brain but he recovered consciousness before the doctor returned and was on the road to complete recovery.

Fred Gehring has been doing his best to make a farm pay in the Sunset section for the past ten years but this season was so discouraging that he decided he would give up that job until things were more favorable. He expects to leave in a short time for Idaho where he will visit for a while with Johnny Kessler but he has no definite plans for the future.

Dr. W. C. Brown and family are home from their vacation visit to the Van country where they were guests for a time of the Cawfields. Dr. Brown had his face fixed for a deer but while he says he ate venison it was not captured by his own gun. He comes back to the office feeling fine though, and says he can pull any aching tooth that ever grew without even exerting himself.

R. A. Blanchard, formerly a county agent in this state, stationed at Redmond, was in town Wednesday on his way to Crane. Mr. Blanchard now holds the position of Agriculturist for the Live Stock State Bank, to cover in his work. He is a live of Portland and has a big territory young man who believes in progression and is here to remain for a time to study conditions and see if he can be of any assistance to the farmers and stockmen of this county. His concern holds considerable stock in the Crane State Bank and Mr. Blanchard will make that place his headquarters during his stay in this county. Blanchard was here last summer as one of the speakers at the Experiment Station during the summer roundup program.

Rev. W. F. Shields, who has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city for the past three years, has resigned his pastorate and expects to go to another field sometime in September. Rev. Shields has been an energetic worker since coming to this community and has covered the country most thoroughly in his ministerial work. He has been aggressive and public spirited in every undertaking and has won a place in the hearts of his congregation that will be hard to fill by another pastor. However, he feels he has remained here long enough and since Mrs. Shields' health is not good here he is considering work in a lower altitude. The many friends of this estimable couple wish them well wherever they decide to locate. The Camp Fire Girls will miss Mrs. Shields in their councils and excursions.

THEIR JOB "OVER THERE"

—is not a job they are accustomed to. But they are sticking to it and making good.

Our job is to help men make good who are sticking to their jobs over here.
