

Statement of the Condition of the First National Bank
Burns, Oregon

At the close of business June 29, 1918

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts	$518,458.23
U. S. Bonds	105,312.50
Bonds and Securities	27,970.22
Stock, Federal Reserve Bank	3,000.00
Real Estate, Furniture and Fixtures	9,200.00
Five per cent Redemption Fund	2,500.00
CASH	140,494.98

$896,935.93

LIABILITIES

Capital	$ 50,000.00
Surplus Fund	50,000.00
Undivided Profits Account	35,018.81
Circulation	50,000.00
Bills Payable (Liberty Loan Account)	25,000.00
Re-discounts with Federal Reserve Bank	24,800.00
DEPOSITS	572,117.12

$896,935.93

Capital and Surplus - $100,000.00

United States Depository
Oregon State Depository

ACCOUNTS INVITED

The Times-Herald

Has The Largest Circulation Of Any Newspaper In Harney County.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1918

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Buy a War Saving Stamp.

Mrs. G. W. Rembold is home from her short visit to Ontario.

Phone B63 for your Fire Insurance—Harney County Abstract Co.

Fall opening of Garrett Millinery Aug. 30. New fall stock on display. Come while the stock is new.

B. F. Johnson, the Oregon & Western Colonization Co. man, was over looking after company business.

The oldest Insurance Agency in Harney County—Harney County Abstract Co.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Foren and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunsmore returned home Wednesday evening from a visit at Bend where the Foren boys are now located with their families.

Notice to parties who have ordered wood from me; When you are in need of wood please notify me a few days in advance and I will take care of your wants. E. B. BENNETT.

Alton Byrd, who has been visiting with relatives in this city for the past few weeks, took his departure for his home in Prineville yesterday in company with Frank Johnson.

Mrs. Anna Haines and her children were in town this week from their home at Diamond making preparations to go to Portland where the children will enter school for the coming year.

Herman Ruh and his wife were up from their home near the Malheur Lake below Lawen. Mr. Ruh thinks some of the stock men were scared too soon as to the scarcity of hay as he finds there thousands of tons more hay cut around the borders of the lake than was last year and he is of the opinion that there will be plenty of hay.

Prolonging Human Life!

In the effort to lengthen the span of human existence, every available resource in Nature's storehouse is utilized. These must be classified and systemized and ready for use. This is the work of the chemist.

The intelligent handling of this vast store of remedies, under the direction of your physician, devolves on
Your Druggist

We employ none but competent graduated pharmacists.

The Rexall Drug Store
REED BROS., Props.

B. B. Clark was registered at a local hotel the first of this week.

Building Loans and Investments—Harney County Abstract Co.

Wm. Welsh, ex-sheriff of Grant county, was a business visitor during the week.

S. Alherson was in town yesterday, having just returned from a trip to Portland where he had been on business and pleasure combined.

Nollie Reed returned from Ontario the fore part of this week. He went over to look at a drug store that was for sale but has not yet made any purchase.

Don't miss that big patriotic picture at the Liberty in which Geraldine Farrar stars on next Saturday night—"Joan The Woman." It is a ten-reel production of great merit.

J. W. McCulloch, one of the leading attorneys of Ontario, was here last Sunday and Monday looking after the interests of some of his clients.

Page's Sweet Shop is going to have a consignment of peaches next week that will not cost to exceed $1.35 per box and perhaps less, in any quantity desired.

Mrs. Robt. Irving was here for a few days during the week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Young, before she and the children left to join Clarence in Portland where he is at work.

Gregg's shorthand and touch typewriting taught. For particulars call on or address Mrs. C. B. McConnell Burns, Oregon. Term begins Sept. 9. Free tuition to those desiring instruction to engage in war work.

Vic Cozad left this forenoon for Cahyon accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farre, having been called over on account of the serious condition of his brother Ben who had recently undergone an operation.

I am shipping my Surprise Valley grown alfalfa seed to this place this season and find it in great demand. Those desiring some of this fresh seed should give me their order at once.—Chas. M. Faulkner.

Stockmen are not so much concerned about feed for their herds and flocks as there is more hay than at first thought. We understand that one can buy hay cheaper now than it was quoted earlier in the season.

C. B. McConnell and his three children, Kathleen and Carroll Jordan and John Garrett, who had been camping at the Lee Thornburg mill on Emigrant Creek, have returned home so the children may be in readiness for school.

Mesdames Dalton Gibbs, Roy Moulten, James Lampshire and Roy mother, Mrs. Linten, together with the children, left Thursday afternoon for Tim Donovan's mountain place to camp for a few days. The men folks all expect to go up Saturday.

Mrs. Cal Clemens, who was secretary of the "Five Hundred Club" this week turned into the Red Cross all the money in the hands of that club, amounting to some $6.00 The members voted to give what it had for that purpose.

Friends in this community have received the information that Charley Bolshaw, one of the pioneer farmers and fruit men of the low John Day, died on August 17. He was well known to many residents of this section where he used to market his fruit.

Albert Swain and Peter Christensen with their families, spent a few days in the mountains during the past week. They didn't find any deer and but few fish; however, they had a fine time and ate up all the provisions they had before returning home.

John Robertson was here from Portland Thursday evening. Mr. Robertson formerly resided in this county and is one of the well known cow men of the country. He had been a foreman for a big stock concern in Nevada of late years but the firm sold out last fall and he spent the winter in California coming to his Portland home this spring. He is here for a few days visiting his sister, Mrs. Eunice Thompson.

The Camp Fire Girls surprised Mrs. W. F. Shields at the Presbyterian Manse last Tuesday afternoon, by coming in upon her with the necessary eatables for a little party and a social time with their comrade of several interesting sessions and camp life during her stay in this city. It is with regret that these girls bid farewell to Mrs. Shields as she has taken a unkind interest in their work and recreation. Before departing the girls presented the lady with a handsome pin as a token of their appreciation of her interest in them.

Ed Egli is over from his ranch home near Wagonfire.

For Sale—40 acres adjoining Burns. See J. J. Donegan.

Ira Mahon was in town the other day.

Farm Loans on Irrigated ranches—Harney County Abstract Co.

In the future as in the past, it will be our aim to serve you.—Harney County Abstract Co.

R. J. Williams and his son Lester were among our visitors from Silver Creek during the week.

Henry Dalton and family are home from their camping trip in the mountains. Henry landed a deer.

Where others fail, a college man succeeds. Mt. Angel College, St. Benedict, Ore.

Carroll Cecl and his son-in-law, Mr. McArty, were in from Silver Creek during the fore part of this week.

For thorough business, high school and college courses send your boy to Mt. Angel College, St. Benedict, Ore.

Mrs. E. J. Catlow left this morning on the Wray Stage for Bend where the family will make their home in the future.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

F. E. Swope, assistant in the law office of J. W. Biggs, left for Portland this morning for a vacation and upon his return he will be accompanied by his family.

E. J. Sizemore was in town yesterday bringing in some things from the ranch for the folks who will come in tomorrow for the winter. They will occupy the residence property recently purchased by Mr. Sizemore.

Dyke Jameson arrived home last night from Portland where he had been to take in the G. A. R. encampment. He stopped in Bend for a time to visit his daughter, Mrs. H. M. Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gault and son Lester arrived home last night from their vacation visit to outside points. Mrs. Gault had been away for several weeks, Mr. Gault and Lester going out the first of this month to join her.

Henry Jennings was in town yesterday and told the writer that he was going to lose his post office as no one in Harney would take it, therefore it is to be discontinued. This is an inconvenience to many people in that vicinity and it is hoped it may be re-instated soon.

Chas. Newell, one of the few civil war veterans of this vicinity is just back from the encampment meeting at Portland. He reports a fine time among the "boys." Mr. Newell did not go over to Idaho with Mrs. Newell, but remained here to look after their interests.

Mrs. Eloise Roderick, who is to take charge of the Commercial Department; Miss Jennie Huggins, U. of O. instructor in English and Latin; Miss Helen Norris, of Denver, who is to take up the work of music and art in the high school and grades, have all arrived in readiness for the opening of the schools.

M. Saunders, the sheep man who now owns the Parker ranch in the Warm Springs country, is over from Lakeview looking after his business interests. Mr. Saunders has his sheep over in Lake county where he has more range and hay.

Mrs. James Lampshire gave a theatre party and dance to the young friends of her daughter, Miss Gwendolen, last Wednesday night. There were twenty guests to occupy the Loge seats at the Liberty to witness the production of "His Father's Son" following which the young people were escorted to the Lampshire home where they enjoyed dancing and games until a late hour. Light refreshments were served. All report a delightful time and Mrs. Lampshire may be sure of no regrets being sent should she again invite this company.

Principal Sutton of the public school and the manager of this great religious weekly have each enjoyed an extended vacation trip to the mountains. They went up to the camp of Albert Swain and Pete Christensen on Sunday afternoon at the Lee Thornburg sawmill, spent the night there, came back down to Spring Creek the following day and remained there for one night and then home Tuesday afternoon. They didn't hunt much or try to break the record for the number of trout caught, but did wear out shoe leather climbing hills and viewing the scenery.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE THIRD LIBERTY LOAN

Your bonds are now ready for delivery. Please bring your receipts.

The
Harney County National Bank of Burns, Oregon
"YOUR HOME INSTITUTION"

L. M. Hamilton is up from his ranch in the Denio section.

We write all kinds of fire insurance. If you can't call, Phone B63—Harney County Abstract Co.

FOR SALE—Several head of good milk cows and heifers, also a young bull. Beef stock.
THEO. FORCIER, Crane Ore.

An aunt of Clyde Cowing arrived here last night to visit with the family for a time.

"Young Mother Hubbard" ESSANAY

Little Mary McAlister at Liberty Theatre, next Saturday, Sept. You remember her in "Pants"—Tell the children

School Supplies

We have a complete line of Tablets, Pencils, Colored Crayons, Pen Holders and other school supplies to fit out the children—Come in

Burns Cash Store