The Times-Herald is informed that the parents of Henry Sherburn and Oliver Belzaar, both of the Denio section, have received information from the government that their sons had received wounds in the war of such character that they were being sent home.

A. E. Brown was in Monday to meet with the Liberty Loan representatives. Mr. Brown stated to some of the boys that he was not able to go on the proposed trip to organize over the county but he could help some and then handed J. J. Donegan, county manager, a check for $50. That's the way with some fellows—who are real fellows.

Prolonging Human Life!

In the effort to lengthen the span of human existence, every available resource in Nature's storehouse is utilized. These must be classified and systematized and ready for use. This is the work of the chemist.

B. G. Thompson, the government representative who was here in the summer in charge of the grasshopper pest, is again in this vicinity. He came in Thursday evening by way of Lakeview and expects to remain for a time assisting in locating the egg deposits of pests in this county.

Frank Johnson came over from Prineville the fore part of the week and met W. P. Davidson, president of the Oregon & Western Colonization Co., at Crane Wednesday. They spent Thursday in this city on business going on over to Prineville the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Cawfield were over from their home at Van Tuesday they having accompanied their son over this far on his starting for the training camp to enter active service. They have two other sons who are younger but who would volunteer today if they could.

E. Jacobson and M. R. Mathews, two infants who are well known commercial traveling men, the former with the J. K. Gill Co., the latter with a grocery firm, spent a short time in our city this week calling upon their respective customers. They are making the interior this year in "Jakes" Cadillac.

Nollie Reed, accompanied by Mrs. Harry C. Smith, left yesterday morning for North Yakima by auto. They go to visit for a short time and to bring Mrs. Reed back after an absence of a few weeks in that neighborhood visiting with relatives and putting up fruit for winter use. They will be absent some ten days or two weeks.

Joe Carter, the fruit man, has established a fruit and produce stand in the rooms adjoining Gemberling's store. His son is in charge and they expect to keep a supply of seasonable fruit and vegetables on hand. If they haven't what you want they will try and get it for you. Visit the stand and get prices on fruit for canning and winter use.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Welcome and Miss Martha Hanley took their departure Wednesday morning for Portland and other outside points of interest. The Welcomes are on their vacation and Miss Hanley is returning to her work in Portland following a few weeks visit with relatives and friends in this vicinity. The Welcomes will likely take in the Round-up at Pendleton before returning home.

Lester Williams was one of the outside members of the executive committee of the Fourth Liberty Loan to be present last Monday afternoon to discuss details with J. D. Zurcher, who was here from Portland. He was accompanied by his wife and Mrs. W. B. Johnson. The latter told The Times-Herald man that Bill had gone to Prineville and had stated upon leaving that the ranch should not be left alone (this was his reason for not taking Mrs. Johnson with him) so she decided to run away and thus prove to him that the ranch could be left without either of them being on it to hold it down.

For Sale—40 acres adjoining Burns. See J. J. Donegan.

P. S. Weltenhiller was registered from Crane the other day.

Scott Hayes was up Sunday bringing his son up to enter high school.

T. G. Howser and his son Darrell were over from Ontario during the past week on a short visit and to spend a few days in the mountains before the opening of school.

Miss Agnes Foley took her departure yesterday morning for Seattle where she goes to resume her studies in the Holy Names Academy for the coming year.

Hugh Tudor was a business visitor from the Stein's Mountain country yesterday. He states his sheep are doing very well, considering the dry season.

W. R. Byram, C. A. Moore and Roy Kiphart were among our visitors from Catlow Valley during the first of this week. Mr. Moore was here to make proof on his land and the other two gentlemen were his witnesses.

J. N. Jensen, Ralph Weaver and Sam Timbrell were all up from Crane Monday to meet with the executive committee of the Fourth Liberty Loan and to take up the details of the coming drive with J. D. Zurcher, special representative from headquarters.

Mrs. J. E. Sizemore and her children came in Sunday to be in readiness for school, but Virgil found it necessary after registering to return to the ranch for a short time to assist Mr. Sizemore in putting up the balance of the crops before entering school for the winter.

J. C. Beatty was in from his Trout Creek home this week, having accompanied his two sons over to enter the high school. Both are now located and doing fine with their school mates. These boys are Harney county products that have resided in the big outdoors all their lives and are the kind of boys that make good with their fellows wherever they are put.

Some friends were kind enough to stake out a buck deer for the benefit of Sam Mothershead and Chas. M. Faulkner (at least that's the story being told) but it appears even then they couldn't get up the courage to shoot it. At any rate these two fellows had been camped in the mountains for two days looking for a deer when Chas. Rohn came up and within 30 minutes from the time he struck the camp he had bagged the buck.

J. B. Balcomb, the civil engineer, was in town the fore part of this week. He informed The Times-Herald that he had been engaged in war work in connection with marine drawing and harbor protection more or less for some little time past, doing the work at his home but had recently received a summons to appear in Portland. He doesn't know what is expected of him on his arrival but arranged to take his family and prepared to remain there for an indefinite time. They left Thursday morning, going out by way of Prineville in their car.

Cal Geer is crippling around with a badly sprained ankle which he was unfortunate enough to hurt while coming over the mountains recently from Riddle. He is one of the industrious "young" men of this community, being 81, and his injury interferes with his activities as he wants to cut the weeds around his property, fix the fence and get in his winter's supply of wood. Mr. Geer is capable of doing all this if he is not handicapped by having to wear one of his son Irwin's shoes, which has been the case the past couple of weeks.

Frank Dibble and wife and Bauer came in from Silver Cr Thursday evening. They had been camping in the mountains for a days when Mr. Bauer got something in one of his eyes and it was necessary to come to a doctor to have removed. The young man secured relief and will be able to resume usual vocation. Mrs. Dibble informs that their son William desired enlist recently. He was absent enlisting a passenger auto at Ca Lewis at the time and wrote mother he expected to enlist. He came to Portland, disposed of his auto and was ready to carry out his intentions when his mother surprised him by coming to Portland. They discussed the matter and the young man finally decided to wait and take turn with the coming registration.
