Dr. H. M. Horton came over from Bend yesterday to be present at a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Drinkwater were guests of their daughter, Mrs. C. A. Harlan, in this city for a part of this week. They also visited with their other children here.

Mrs. Emanuel Clark arrived over from her home at Mann Lake yesterday evening to be present and take part in the parade of mothers and wives of soldiers this afternoon. She has one boy over there.

The Times-Herald expressed regret that Chapman got "sloppy" in giving Wm. Hanley a complimentary write-up in his Oregon Voter. It was equally unfortunate that it was reprinted in the manner in which it was. However, neither article has done Mr. Hanley any harm.

Gall Barnes and wife left yesterday for their new home near Nampa, Idaho. They took their belongings to Crane and there chartered a car in which to ship to their destination. Mrs. George Haggy accompanied them out and will visit with them for a time. George is keeping a bachelor's hall during her absence but says when she returns he's going to make a trip himself.

E. J. Hunter and his mother were here from their ranch in the Crane Creek country during the week.

M. D. Fleming, the optometrist, will be at the Hotel Levens on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 24 and 25.

Reward—Two bay work geldings branded H D veated with lazy D on right shoulder got out of the Purington sawmill pasture in June. A reasonable reward will be paid for information leading to their recovery.—Address A. H. Weber, Burns, Oregon.

Ellsworth Egft took his departure Thursday morning on his return to California after a very pleasant visit with his father, brother and sister and his many school friends. The young man had expected to go east in a short time but because of his age it will be necessary that he remain in the present California quarters. His friends in this vicinity are proud of his advancements and prospects and he was given encouraging words on his departure.

O. T. Storli, formerly principal of the North Bend high school, arrived here Thursday evening to succeed B. E. Ralston, who has resigned as principal of the Harney County High School to answer a call to the colors. Mr. Storli is a married man and has brought his family with him. He has worked with Mr. Ralston in the schools in the past and comes with the recommendation not only of Mr. Ralston but other educators, therefore we are quite sure of the school going forward without interruption in a most satisfactory way. Mr. Ralston has been notified he is expected to report for duty at Camp Lewis on Oct. 7 and has the interval to look after any business affairs he may have. He will remain in this city for a few days before going to Portland from which point he is to report.

FOR SALE

1914 Buick Touring Car, self starter electric lights, in good, first class condition. Burns Garage, Crane town Thursday accompanied by his mother, Mrs. P. H. Gray. The latter and "Daddy" are making preparations to go to Emmett Idaho, to make their home, having leased their farm near Crane. Mr. Gray is over there now having driven over with the team which he wants to use on his three-acre tract. Mrs. Gray had intended to join him at once but finds upon consulting with her local physician that she will have to go to Portland for an operation for an old ailment. The Senior Grays are among the old and respected pioneers of this country and are well known to many people. The Times-Herald regrets to learn of their contemplated move but considering their age and the fact that the lower altitude is beneficial to their health, it joins with other friends in sending them off with best wishes for a contented and comfortable time during their reclining years.

BANK DIRECTORS TO ELECT MAN TO SUCCEED GAULT

There is a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank of this city today for the purpose of electing a successor to J. L. Gault, who has resigned as cashier and will leave soon for Spokane. Among the out of town directors here for that purpose are John D. Daly of Boise, president of the institution; Prestley Smyth of Diamond; Grant Thompson, of the Crane Creek section.

DENIO COMES UP SMILING AS USUAL

J. E. Rounseville went out to the south end at the same time the Liberty Loan campaigners made their tour. Mr. Rounseville formerly resided at Denio before taking up his residence in this city and takes a pride in the patriotic loyalty of that community.

He was in yesterday and said the Red Cross dance down there was a complete success and together with the supper made a neat sum of money for the cause.

The supper was under the management of Mesdames E. H. Bathrick, H. E. Felton, Lester Hamilton, Bert Hamilton and Mr. Hilmer Olson. It was the best of everything that could be had and was pronounced a banquet by visitors. All the Liberty Bond delegation were honor guests at this supper.

The dance was under the management of Peter Egošue and under his energetic and persuasive methods it netted a neat sum, which with the dance amounted to over $190 which was brought back by Mrs. Lampshire.

Through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Alberson the hall over their hotel, together with the dining room and kitchen and free fuel, it is possible to make everything taken in at these dances and suppers practically clear.

In addition to the above funds raised for war purposes, Mr. Rounseville informs us that $141 was contributed to the Salvation Army drive and some $6,000 pledged and subscribed to Liberty Bonds.

WANT BEST OREGON POTATO

To find and develop the best strains of the leading commercial potatoes grown in Oregon, the U. S. Department of Agriculture proposes to cooperate with the O. A. C. experiment station in conducting a statewide investigation. Dr. A. B. Cordley director of the station, and Dr. William Stuart, of the U. S. A. probably the greatest potato authority in the country, have planned the campaign, which will work hand in hand with the seed inspection and certification now conducted by the College. G. R. Hyslop, professor of farm crops at the College, will probably have charge of the work in the State. It is expected that a reliable source of the best seed stock for farmers and potato specialists will be obtained.

A LIABILITY—OR AN ASSET?

We don't need to be told that war is wasteful. We have already surmised it.

If generals of all ages, from Sennacherib to Napoleon, can watch us from their present habitation, they will take on an increase of cynicism. They were probably cynical enough before they died.

They learned the futility of trying to create something by a policy of destruction, and must feel some disappointment at this epoch. We have learned nothing from their mistakes. We build cathedrals and shoot them to bits with cannons. We raise and educate a generation to make hecatombs out of it.

Most of us have at least the excuse that we are fighting to destroy something that hoped for aggrandizement out of conquest. But it is absurd that such a policy should have survived Sennacherib. Angels they must feel tempted to laugh.

And yet, for us in progressive America, the process is not one of waste. Our young men will return from France with a developed efficiency heretofore undreamed of.

Have you ever read figures giving details of the system of piping that carries water to the battle front? As the front changes the system changes, and the new formations can never be foreseen. Here are problems which our young engineers learn to solve with a speed and precision never developed in time of peace, because they were unnecessary.

Do you know that armored tanks charge into battle with telephone wires laid out to keep them in touch with the main command? Field batteries also manoeuvre without falling to get answers to "Hello, Central."

Do you know that by team work forty American soldiers erected a steel bridge over a hundred feet long in five minutes? We didn't need to do those things in time of peace; so we didn't learn how.

In scores of other ways young Americans in France daily achieve the impossible. The fruits of their experience will be reaped in America—here in Burns—when peace is declared.

Many peaceful traders are dangerous. The half-built skyscraper, the railroad, the machine-shop daily make work for the surgeon; but in half a century surgery would never have the strides that it has made in four years of war. Even the telephone wire is now used to locate an internal wound, and this is only one of thousands of expedients lately devised for relieving human pain.

War is wasteful; but for that very reason it teaches conservation and inventiveness. We shall realize this when 5,000 young American magicians return from Europe.

the Germans see a flaming sword at the gate of their lost Paradise. They will never enter there again.

In considering the question of peace by diplomacy we must remember that howitzers and machine-guns are the peace arguments best adapted to the understanding of Germany—and she is likely now to get enough of both to convince her.

Men who usually read novels have been reading the questionnaires instead. It is almost as long as a book and of enthralling interest.

The news from abroad is certainly encouraging. But it is not yet quite time to beat shields into plough-
