Chas. Comegys was in town Thursday from Diamond.

Judge H. C. Levens arrived home the forepart of this week from his visit to Portland.

Mrs. E. B. Reed and Mrs. E. N. Jameson are home from their visit to Baker.

Grover Hudspeth, who is in charge of the Burns Cash Store branch at Riley, was in town the forepart of this week.

Chas. Moore and family were over from Diamond the first of the week and left on Wednesday for Bend where they may decide to remain for the winter.

John Wintermeier was down from his Silver home the fore part of the week. Mr. Wintermeier states he had a very good crop of hay on his place.

Geo. Raycraft was a caller at this office Wednesday. He informs us he is putting in his time at his trade of carpenter and the family are looking after a dairy herd of Holsteins which are making good as he is receiving 51 cents for butter fat at Caldwell.

Burr Wood and his wife arrived here Wednesday evening from Ontario on their way to Portland, making the trip by auto. Mr. Wood is a son of Col. C. E. S. Wood and informed the writer he was hurrying through to enlist in the artillery upon his arrival in Portland. He did not say whether he had been called in the draft just issued or whether he was going in some special capacity.

G. A. Collier was in town this week.

Carroll Cecil was over the other day.

There will be services at the Baptist church every Sunday with special singing by Mrs. Hunt.

Albert Oakerman and his mother were over from their home at Riley on Thursday afternoon.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $ $ $ $ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Frank Keuny was in town yesterday and said his flocks are now doing quite well on the range, although his part of the country was not so fortunate as this section in the supply of rain.

C. T. Miller was in town yesterday and stated that the range and pasture have been improved by the recent rains but not to an appreciable extent so far as the cattle are concerned as the new grass is yet too short to do them much good.

J. C. Reatty was up from his ranch in the fertile Trout Creek valley during the week trying to find some help to go down and assist him in taking care of his garden. He will have many tons of tomatoes which he hopes to send out by parcel post.

J. W. Buchanan was in from his ranch the other day making the final arrangements completing the deal whereby he is the owner of an additional acreage adjoining his ranch, having bought out a neighbor over there and in so doing left himself afoot as he traded in his Ford car on the deal.

Prof. G. Meriggoli and wife came over from Catlow Tuesday on business before the land office. After making his proof next week Prof. Meriggoli expects to go to Seattle where he will be employed on the Orpheum Circuit during the coming season. They were accompanied over by A. S. Hebener who has returned together with Mrs. Meriggoli to Catlow.

W. B. Johnson was among our Silver Creek visitors during the week.

Lester Hamilton came up from his near Denio Wednesday.

Melvin Dean was a business visitor from the south part of the country early this week.

Atty. J. W. McCulloch is here from Ontario on legal business.

Wanted—20 head young, sound work horses, broke, five to seven years old. Good mares preferred. Address Eastern Oregon Land Co., Ontario Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKinney left Monday for a short vacation trip during which they will visit their former home in Pendleton and take in the Round-Up.

Patriotic Assurance Company. Founded 1824—One of the oldest and strongest Fire Insurance companies in the world.—J. J. Donegan, Agent.

Mrs. John Gemberling and her daughter, Miss Isora, arrived home Thursday from their vacation visit with relatives and friends on the Atlantic coast.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $ $ $ $ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Notice—James McKee has taken over all the property of Cecil McKee and all persons holding accounts against Cecil McKee are requested to present the same to the undersigned at Diamond, Oregon.—James McKee

Earl Conner, a brother of Mrs. J. L. Gault, arrived here yesterday evening for a short visit. Mr. Conner is a resident of Prineville and is an assistant cashier of the First National Bank of that place, being associated with Tom Baldwin, one of the well known bankers of that state.

Thos. Cleveland and his wife were over from their home near Van Tuesday. Tom came over to have his questionnaire filled out and then go home to get things in readiness so if his Uncle Sam called him he would be ready to go and help lick the kaiser.

Joe Carter, the fruit man, has established a fruit and produce stand in the rooms adjoining Gemberling's store. His son is in charge and they expect to keep a supply of seasonal fruit and vegetables on hand. If they haven't what you want they will try and get it for you. Visit the stand and get prices on fruit for canning and winter use.

Mrs. William Stirling and daughter Miss Agnes took their departure Tuesday morning on Wray's stage for Portland where Miss Stirling will remain and take up some war work. After a short visit Mrs. Stirling expects to return home when their other daughter, Miss Nottie will go out on a similar mission.

Rev. Wm. Baird, Presbyterian Sunday School Missionary in this district, was a visitor to our city for a short time last Tuesday. Rev. Baird makes Crane and the Catlow section at frequent intervals but seldom gets to this place, therefore his occasional visits are appreciated by his friends. He now is the possessor of a Ford car which gives him a method of covering his field more conveniently.

Geo. Cobb was in yesterday to have this great religious weekly changed to his address at Nampa, Idaho, as he and Mrs. Cobb take their departure today for that place where they have purchased a developed 20 acre tract a short distance out. This tract is under irrigation and is devoted to fruit and alfalfa. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Cobb from our community but they have a delightful place to go to and since they have not disposed of their property in this county we shall expect them back at some future time.

Lieut. Roy L. Shaw spent a few days in our city during the fore part of this week greeting his old time friends. Dr. Shaw, who is a veterinarian, was formerly located in this city following his school work, but upon the declaration of war with Germany he was one of the most enthusiastic boosters for volunteers. He wanted to go to the navy but decided he would better take army service as thus he could better serve with his professional services, therefore when his number was called in the draft he responded at once. He has been stationed on the coast but was out on a furlough, his wife's former home being in Prairie City, and they came there for a visit. While she was at the parental home Doc. took occasion to run over and greet his old illiums here. Upon leaving he expected order to go directly to some point in Virginia where he would be stationed pending his opportunity of going across to get into the real scrap.

Dewey Robinson was greeting his friends on the streets yesterday.

A. A. Tipton was ab usiness visitor during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George James were down from their home near Harney the fore part of this week.

R. J. Williams was a business visitor from his home on Silver Creek the other day.

A new oil stove, four burner with oven and warming closet, for sale at a bargain. See J. L. Gault.

The Times-Herald is pleased to learn that George Bevans is being advanced in his line of war work in California where he is stationed and has several men under him.

Mrs. Nate Franklin arrived home last evening from an extended visit to outside points. She was accompanied home by Mr. Franklin's mother.

We have learned that Edna Vanderpool went to Portland recently in company with Mrs. McCarthy where she will attend high school the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huston entertained the teachers of this city at their home last Saturday. Principal Ralston of the high school being the guest of honor as he is to leave soon for army duty.

A letter from Frank Smith to his mother states that he and Othel Goff had arrived safely at Corvallis and had joined the Student's Army Corps. The former is taking mechanical engineering and Othel electrical engineering. Their school opens Sept. 30.

Preparations are being made to entertain many outside people in this city during this afternoon. The parade of mothers, wives and sisters of soldiers promises to be a most inspiring patriotic demonstration that will create and stimulate interest in the Liberty Loan.

This office is in receipt of a letter from Rev. W. F. Shields stating they arrived safely at Nyssa and were getting straightened out in their new home. He expressed the belief that they would like their new field of labor but also held a warm place in their hearts for this place and were not so far away that they could not come back for an occasional visit and a camping trip with their Camp Fire Girls.

Does Pershing Speak for You?

"The German army can be beaten;
the German army will be beaten;
the German army must be beaten."

Pershing counted on every man, woman and child in America to back him up when he said that—back him up with their souls, their flesh, their pocketbooks—to the last drop of blood, to the last dollar.

Our young men are backing him with their blood. Every one of us at home must back him with our dollars—our last dollars—our future dollars.
