Make This Room Yours

Whether you are building a brand new home, making additions to the old one or merely repairing walls, you can have a room like this if you use genuine Beaver Board.

Beaver Board walls and ceilings are more handsome, more substantial and more sanitary than any other kind. They are the easiest walls to build. No lath or plaster—therefore, no litter. Beaver Board always gives satisfaction. But you can't expect Beaver Board results unless this trade-mark is on the back of

Might Be a Good Thing for Children If No Toys Could Be Bought for Them.

"No toys!" exclaims the fond and sympathetic mother, tragically, at the mere mention of the toy business being one of those in danger of being abolished as unnecessary during wartime. Oh, yes, little mother, there would be toys-but they would not be store toys. In fact, the children would invent and make a great many of them themselves. Dame Nature would lend a hand, and you could help a bit. too! There is no doubt that children must have toys of some sort-it is the very cry of their little souls. "Necessity is the mother of invention," so with dire necessity staring them in the face-a pressing demand with no supply-they would begin to invent. Moreover, being the work of their own little brains and hands, such toys would more easily please. Simpleminded and contented types of children would once again be the rule, not the exception. What has the nursery piled high with the latest and most expensive toys produced? Nothing but that contradiction of nature-the child with nothing left to wish for! What is there to stimulate his brains or his imagination? Everything has been thought out and Imagined for him. No wonder at the age of seven or eight he finds life "stupid." But with nothing to play with would come the wonderful idea of making something.-Chicago News.

MYSTERY HOVERS OVER LAKE

Body of Water in Central Africa Has Most Curious Effect on Minds of Travelers.

Cold and gray are the waters which Lake Tchad spreads over the lowlands of central Africa. The traveler in Africa finds the mystery of the dark continent more haunting and unfathomable here than in the baffling mazes of the jungle or in the silent smile of the sphinx. Heavy winds toss the shallow waters about and whisper their secrets through the reeds. But the lake makes no answering confidences. It stretches on and on, measuring its miles of surface in sweeping wave lengths.

As far as the eye can see ahead are the reeds and rushes reaching up through the water in tangled masses. Here and there the line of the gray expanse is broken by slender islands bearing up a few round-topped native huts, outlined dimly against the skyline. The effect is that of a painting seen through gray glasses, reducing the whole to a low key. It is in the grayness that the lake's effect of mystery lies, the grayness that hovers dull and cheerless over waving reeds. The traveler gazing across Lake Tchad for the first time feels the thrill of discovery. The knowledge that he is not the first to stand upon the banks does not dispel the feeling of entering the most shut-off place in central Africa.

protesting in vain to the local game wardens, went to the city to protest against the violation of their rights.

Imagine a chieftain, 90 years old, straight as an arrow, yet half blind gle against the wilderness. He had seen his race pass control of the land to the white race. Still believing in the honor of the white man, he came to protest against the infringement of a treaty made a quarter of a century

Saluskin was informed by an interpreter that the district attorney could not change the state game laws. "Hoh!" was his only comment.

Can't Even Have "Near-Beer." Germany's brewers hoped this year to produce a beer substitute that should really resemble beer, but the Prussian minister of finance has issued a decree that puts an end to the dream of the foaming stein.

A new process has been patented by which near-beer was to be made from beetroot, hops, yeast and wa-Many breweries had already installed machinery required under the

The minister of finance has decided that the sugar of the beetroot, upon which the substitute depends for alcohol, cannot be spared for beer. Beets, he says, are badly needed for manufacture of sugar, dilution of jam and making of coffee substitutes.

Woman Frozen to Ground.

During a cold snap last winter Mrs. John Baker of Downsville took bucket of hot water and went into ment. She splashed the water around thereof. and used the broom vigorously, when suddenly she realized she could not move. She made determined efforts to move her feet, and experienced a fearful cold chill as thoughts of paralysis flashed into her mind. She screamed loudly for help, and her husband, who came running, found her shoes were frozen to the pavement.

With a vigorous jerk he yanked her loose, almost pulling her out of her 1st Pub. Sept. 21 shoes. It was a thankful wife he led 5th Pub. Oct. 22. into the house to warm her feet.

HOW TO MAKE POTATO BUTTER

British Ministry of Food Gives Time to Studying Out Plans to Conserve the Supply.

The ministry of food states that in view of the shortage of butter they have been carrying out experiments in order to find suitable and economical ways of eking out the available butter and margarine supplies by mixing in other food substances and so producing cheap and palatable substitututes, says the London Times. These experiments have shown that an excellent "potato butter," costing only thout 5d per pound (or less if margarine is used) can easily be made in any household without special knowledge or apparatus in accordance with the following recipe:

Peel the potatoes and boll (or steam) until they fall to pieces and become flowery. Rub through a fine sieve into a large basin which has been previously warmed. To every 14 ounces of mashed potatoes add two ounces of butter or margarine and one with the back of a wooden spoon until the whole is quite smooth. The butter may then be made up into pounds or half-pounds and kept in cool place.

The potato butter may be improved in appearance by the addition of a is to be kept for more than a few days butter preservative, of which there are several forms on the market, should be used. The amount should be in accordance with the printed instructions on the packet for use in butter. Both the coloring and the preservative should be well mixed into the potato at the same time as the butter and sait. If these directions are carefully followed potato butter will keep for a considerable time.

Slam Adopts New Flag.

Slam's white elephant fing is to be abandoned for the red, white and blue colors of democracy. Commenting on this, the Christian Science Monitor Bays:

"In spite of the fine feeling of enthusiasm for the allied cause which it shows, one cannot but be sorry that Siam should have decided to discard her own splendidly original flag, showing a white elephant on a red field, for a tricolor resembling that of the great entente powers of the west. Slam sees in the red, white and blue flag the colors which throughout the world stand "as a rallying sign against barbarism." It is quite interesting to find that red, white and blue do as a matter of fact figure in the national flags of Britain, France, the United States, Russia, Serbia, Cuba, Panama Costa Rica, Paraguay and Liberia. And now Siam must be added, if it is really quite true that the white elephant is doomed."
