Clyde Cowing was in the first of the week and told us to send this great religious weekly to him at Ontario for the next few months as he was shipping his stock out there to feed for the winter.

Mrs. B. E. Ralston and Miss Huggins, both high school teachers, took their departure Wednesday for outside points. Mrs. Ralston went to Portland to join her husband until after the holidays, Miss Huggins going to her home for that period. They had been assisting in caring for the influenza patients since the close of the schools, but others having volunteered their services to relieve them, they decided to go out for the holiday vacation.

We will do your job printing.

Do your Christmas shopping early. Prestley Smyth is over from his home in Diamond.

I. Weinstein, the Lawen merchant, was in town the other day.

Blankets numbering 1,200,000 were sent to France by the Red Cross emergencies.

LOST—Pair of large, rimmed spectacles, in long, black, leather case.—J. W. Biggs.

J. W. Biggs went to the Denio country this morning to look after some business in connection with his big ranch.

Page's Sweet Shop has a supply of lettuce, sweet potatoes and cranberries on hand at all times. Fresh fish every Friday.

It begins to look like we might have some winter after all with an occasional flurry of snow and freezing weather.

W. H. Huffman was in from his home in the Stein's Mountain section during the week visiting with his wife, who is staying with her mother, Mrs. A. K. Richardson.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS, CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

It is reported here that one of the first Red Cross nurses that went to the Denio section to aid in caring for the influenza patients had died and two nurses who came later are ill with it.

Page's Sweet Shop continues to serve finest ice cream and other cold dishes and drinks as well hot drinks. Anything desired for the holiday dinners will be given prompt attention. Let your wants be known.

Tim Donovan took his departure Thursday afternoon for eastern points to visit for an indefinite time. He goes to New Jersey to visit with friends and may also visit in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Simmons took their departure Monday for Caldwell Idaho, where they will remain for the winter as Mr. Simmons shipped his cattle there to feed. They drove through in their Ford, having shipped the stock in advance.

Miss Ethel Turner was over from Crane during the week to have some dental work done. The young lady had recovered from her recent attack of "flu" but was still weak and did not intend to take up her duties in the Crain State Bank for a few days yet.

School Supt. Clark is home from Portland where she had been attending some convention in connection with food conservation and production. She had been working very hard previous to her departure in assisting to care for influenza patients and was compelled to remain in her rooms for several days while in the metropolis being threatened with a nervous breakdown. She is feeling much better at present and able to attend her duties in the office.

W. N. Monroe was here the fore part of this week having brought his son-in-law, Fred Young, in for medical treatment. The young man had met with an accident while hauling grain out to Catlow. He was filling his gas tank by lantern light when the fluid caught fire and exploded with the result that he was some burned about the head. He could have escaped without injury but he wanted to save his load and succeeded in doing so, only two sacks of the grain having caught fire and burned sufficiently to spill. Mr. Young was just recovering from an attack of the "flu" and it was feared this would set him back but he came up smiling.

Mrs. Fred Clingan has gone to Chicago where she will dispose of some furs for L. L. Noonchester. Mr. Noonchester also went out this week to look after a consignment of furs and pelts shipped to St. Louis.

E. J. Shipman "blew into" this office the other day and gave us a very pleasant surprise for we didn't know he was in the country or contemplated visiting here. He has been over in Idaho for some time cruising for a big timber concern and where he was with his sons. However, he had a longing for his old time friends in Burns and came over for a stay of indefinite length. "Dad" Shipman helped develop the first oil prospecting hole in the Dog Mountain country and has always had faith in ultimately finding oil in paying quantities. He deserves the reward.
