Clad Young, who lives in the neighborhood of Narrows, accidentally shot himself the other day with a revolver. He was carrying the weapon in a scabbard under his arm and at the time of the accident had been walking behind his wagon. He decided to get into the rig from the rear and in jumping up it is evident the hammer struck the bottom of the rig causing it to explode, the ball striking just above his knee and penetrating to the bone where it lodged. Dr. Smith removed the bullet and the young man has returned home.

Henry Geer arrived home the first of this week and has since been greeting his many friends. Henry is the first boy from this vicinity to get back from actual service in France and it is interesting to hear him tell of things. He was promoted on the front for gallant service and is now a Lieutenant. He was transferred immediately upon reaching France to artillery and saw much service, being in four of the big battles. He was in France for eleven months, four of which were spent in the front line. Henry returns with excellent credentials from his superior officers as to his conduct his army experience and Burns feels proud to claim him as a native son. He expects to remain in this place permanently if he can find employment to suit him, although he is not entirely decided.

Mrs. Arthur Turner brought her little daughter Amy in from the ranch yesterday afternoon to have a wound dressed on her forehead caused by falling on the ice. It was a bad cut requiring two stitches to close it up.

James Donegan and his daughter, Miss Carmen, were passengers out the first of this week, the former bound for Portland where he would take part in some of the public meetings there including the irrigation congress, reconstruction meetings, etc., going later to Salem to look in on the law making body there. Miss Carmen will go directly to California where she will remain for an indefinite time with her aunt.

J. O. Butler was in to see us the other day. Mr. Butler is at Narrows at present but stated he expected to return to Callow in the spring providing something was done to get rid of the rabbits, and put in a crop. He stated that many of the Callow people had moved out and there were but few left, therefore if they were to make a success of their crops they must have protection. He is interested in the poisoning method and may make a test of it.

Lloyd Johnson was up from Lawen yesterday and stated to a representative of this paper that they were again circulating their petition to secure an irrigation district in that neighborhood and that this time they would make a good job of it. There is a decided feeling that something must be done toward a more equitable manner of distributing the water and this is one of the means at the disposal of the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krumbeln are here from the White Horse ranch. They have been in charge of that ranch for several years but Mr. Krumbeln has been promoted by the P. L. S. Co., for whom he has worked for many years, and they go to Los Banos, California where he takes charge of another big ranch of the company. Their many friends in this county wish them success in their new field of labor. Mrs. Krumbeln was formerly Miss Emma Johnson who graduated from the high school here and following her graduation from the state normal spent a few years teaching. She is quite well known to the people of this vicinity.

On the left the vest is the thing. This waistcoat is fashioned in ermine and embroidered in jet. It is a feature distinctly new.
