

ONE OF OUR REASONS.

While the prospects for a commercial flow of oil in this Valley has long been considered bright and a few men have devoted their time and no small amount of means toward investigating this possibility and to prosecuting a search for it, the real importance of such a possibility has been overlooked by many.

The fact that oil has really been found at a shallow depth and that the finding of gas has been rather common in many wells in certain portions of this Valley seems to have not impressed the average citizen as a big commercial proposition arising from the direct business of producing oil. That the by-products of such an enterprise would mean much to the country seems to have been lost sight of. With cheap fuel available the development of many enterprises is within reach and should not be overlooked.

One man who has taken an interest in the oil prospecting points out the advantages of this field of endeavor most concisely. He owns several hundred acres of dry land; he has found a supply of water near the surface sufficient to irrigate this land; a six inch pump has not made any impression upon this supply and he is convinced that this method of reclaiming such land is feasible and practical. With cheap fuel this is within the reach of every dry homestead in the Harney Valley and it is certain that this land will produce.

By developing the farms we induce larger settlement and a more prosperous country. It makes possible in addition to commercial oil the establishment of sugar beet factories with associate industries—dairying and the fattening of beef by feeding them beet pulp, etc. Besides the production of profitable crops of alfalfa and forage crops on the land not devoted to beets.

Those in charge of the work at the Dog Mountain well confidently expect to find oil in that hole just as soon as the experienced driller returns, now since the water has at last been shut off. Regardless of the success or failure of this undertaking the prospecting for oil should be continued. The many mistakes of this prospect may have been fatal to its success as the water was allowed to remain in that well for months with the result that it might have driven the oil so far away that it will never reappear at that particular point again. Nevertheless the importance of such a strike to the general development of the country is sufficient incentive for further efforts along that line.

AND IT CAME TO PASS.

and when he saw the evil which was being wrought to all the people and the defiance of the radicals of authority, he was very wroth with righteous indignation for he knew that great harm was being done to the laborer as well as the employer. And he arose and girded up his loins and smote his breast and called for his Chief of Police, one Joel F. Warren, a mighty man of valor whose stature was very great and who feared no man. And the ruler, even Ole, did unto the Chief, "Canst thou with thy valiant hand provide protection for these my people who suffer, for I will issue an edict directing business to be resumed as usual at 8 a. m. on tomorrow."

Then the Chief, raising himself to his full height, which is head and shoulders above other men, answered the ruler saying, "Verily I with my men am fully prepared to offer the best protection to all the people against our common enemy, and could any there be who openly defy authority or seek to destroy property or life, I will drive them before me until their hats float over them the waters of the Sound."

And Ole the ruler was much pleased when he knew it was even as the Chief said. And Ole called in a scribe and had a parchment to be written bearing all the people even the laborers, and he denounced the radicals as "revolutionists," "reds," "sheevists," "enemies of the government." And he tore from the parchment their mask, which had hid them, and all the people heard their

The Back Comb Is Back Again

An accessory season is not anything necessarily to be desired, still what is more natural than its arrival with the peace year. Woman knows that it is the accessories which go to make her the well-dressed and attractive woman. The back comb is making its periodical reappearance. This one shown here in amber has each tip finished in green brilliants. The rich luna satin in combing jacket is cut in kimona lines, carrying design in floss ending in tassels. For the banded necklace jet is enormously favored this season. The black bag of satin with unusual needlework decoration is the most practical thing shown.

ruler and took heart, and they said, "Surely God is good that such a just and fearless man is our ruler," and the name of Ole Hansen was mighty throughout the length and breadth of the land. And his people loved him and also his Chief for the salvation they vouchsafed, not only the people of Seattle, but the whole nation.

And the deeds of Ole became an example for the rulers of other cities of the land.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

It is a difficult matter to turn the clock back five years, especially if within those five years the world has had a century's experience of terror and wrong and suffering and pain.

Yet if we strive to recall the conditions five years ago we see the nations of Europe suspicious of each other, with fears of aggression and dread of loss, and the United States lying isolated across the sea, buying and selling, reaping and sowing, to its own interests alone.

The League of Nations has been formed. It is the expression of a truth that will become more clear to us all as time goes on—that after all the separate interests of the world merge into one great interest.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Harney County.

State Land Board, composed of James Withycombe, Governor, Ben W. Olcott, Secretary and Thos. B. Kay, Treasurer of the State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs.

Esper Greathouse, A. O. Skotterud,

WHAT is there in community life that the payroll dollar doesn't do? It buys baby clothes—raises the children while they go to school—sustains in turn when they reach the working age.

Thrift is a war time lesson. There can be no thrift without industry—no industry without industries. Whether the industries of Oregon grow rapidly or slowly depends on the people of Oregon. WILL YOU HELP? Will you "use home products"?

Home Industry League of Oregon

Charles H. Mulkey and Georgia Mulkey, his wife, defendants.

To Esper Greathouse, one of the above named defendants:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in its complaint on file in this suit, as follows, to-wit:

Judgment against you for the sum of $1671.22 with interest from January 17, 1918, at the rate of six per cent per annum until paid, and the sum of $200.00 attorney fee and the costs and disbursements of this suit; that a certain mortgage described in said complaint and given by you to plaintiff covering and upon the S 1/2 of NW 1/4, the SW 1/4 of NE 1/4 and NE 1/4 of SW 1/4 section 23, T. 21, S. R. 30, E. W. M. Harney County Oregon be declared to be a first lien upon said premises to secure the payment of all sums above mentioned, and that said mortgage be foreclosed and said lands sold in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property on execution; that the proceeds of said sale be applied to the payment of said sums and all thereof; that if any deficiency remains after the application of such proceeds plaintiff have judgment and execution against you for the amount thereof; and that you as well as each and all of the above defendants, and all persons claiming by, through or under you, or any of you, from and after August 30th, 1910, the date of said mortgage, be forever barred and foreclosed of any and all right title, interest, claim, lien or demand in, to or upon said lands and each and every part thereof, except the statutory right of redemption; that plaintiff may have such other and further relief in the premises as shall seem equitable and just.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof for six consecutive weeks in The Times-Herald, printed and published in Burns, Harney County, Oregon, by order of Hon. H. C. Levens, County Judge of Harney County, Oregon, which said order was made and dated at the city of Burns, county and state aforesaid on the 11th day of February, 1919, and the date of the first publication of this summons is February 15, 1919, the date of the last publication thereof being March 29th, 1919, this being also the date on or before you are required to appear in said suit and answer said complaint or be in default for want thereof.
