Fashion Favored Fabric of Silk

Silk is spring's favored fabric. It is startling to see the new ways fashion can handle the material for exclusiveness distinct for the new season. On the left is a silk restaurant frock of arbutus pink patriette with the drape effect in each line of the sleeve, skirt and waist, but touched off with ruffles or organdie. On the right boyish lines are brought out in the coat dress, the top of satin moderne and the skirt of founced satin ruff-a-nuff crepe.

THE BLESSING OF LABOR.

Charles Kingsley once said, "Be thankful every morning of your life that there is something you must do, whether you like to do it or not."

Whether you are painting a picture or hammering iron, whether you are keeping books or washing dishes and sweeping floors, your work is the thing which saves you from yourself. While your hands and thoughts are occupied you have no time for morbid introspection. The clear duty before you is to bend your energies to your work and do it conscientiously and well. It is only in this way that you do your duty to the world.

Every person has an obligation before him. He must engage in something useful to prove his right to live in a busy universe. If he can not leave the world better than he found it, he can at all events take his share of keeping the world in order while he is here. The responsibility of labor is incumbent upon him.

There is a wide though sometimes unconscious general recognition of this responsibility. Many wealthy people who do not need to work for their own support show their realization of this principle by taking up some work of value to the community. They enter into public life or devote themselves to some question of education or general betterment of conditions. If they do not take this course they are reduced to the most useless, profitless and wearisome form of toil—that of seeking their own amusement and pleasure.

Wholesome satisfying employment develops a man's faculties, keeps him keen and ready for opportunity. Put your heart into your work. Enter into it every morning with feelings of interest in it and gratitude for it, and you will know the blessing of labor.
