IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR HARNEY COUNTY.
In the matter of the non-payment of bills of all sickness, including Influenza patients.
Now at this time, this matter coming on for consideration for the County Court in said County and State, sitting at a regular term and it appearing to the Court that great expense has been incurred upon the said County of Harney and State of Oregon for the payment of bills for sickness, including influenza patients, and it appears to the Court that each patient should present themselves as County charges before such bills are paid by the County Court.
IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the said County Court for said County and State will not pay any bills for sickness, hospital bills, medical bills, nurse bills, or any other bills so contracted for sickness as above mentioned, unless the said patient shall present him- or herself as a County charge.
Dated at Burns, Oregon, this 6th day of February, 1919.
H. C. LEVENS, County Judge
R. L. HASS, County Commissioner
