John Wintermeier, pioneer stockman of Silvies Valley, came down from the ranch the other day and took his departure via Crane for a visit to The Dalles.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $ $ $ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

More rain and snow during this week. As a consequence roads are "bad and mail hard to get in, but we "should worry," as the "kids" say. Water is what we are wanting.

The Germans carried off from the manufacturing towns of Belgium all the engines and boilers and modern machinery that they could transport. They are evidently very fond of souvenirs.

Estray—Red muley cow, branded lazy bar H on left hip; marked with underbit in left ear, swallow fork and underbit in right ear, has been at my ranch for the past three months or more. Owner call and make necessary proof of animal.—P. G. Smith, Burns, Oregon.

Wanted—Men or women to take orders among friends and neighbors for the genuine guaranteed hosiery, full line of men, women and children. Eliminates darning. We pay 50c. an hour spare time or $24 a week for full time. Experience unnecessary. Write, International Stocking Mill, Norristown, Pa.—Adv. 4-25

Mrs. E. Johnson's White restaurant was opened last Saturday to the public and she has been well patronized. The lady has arranged for a rest room for ladies and their children who come in from the country. This is in the rear of the restaurant building and has been arranged comfortably with chairs and suitably heated.

Judge H. C. Levens returned from Salem the first of this week where he had been in the interest of the people of this county. Judge Levens went down several weeks ago, as did Commissioner R. L. Hass, to see what could be done about defeating the ridiculous bird bill. The obnoxious measure was finally defeated much to the satisfaction of the people who really understood conditions.

Furnished rooms. See Cleveland.

Sam Timbrell was among our visitors from Crane during this week.

Battery and electrical repair work, oxy-acetylene welding. Jack McGuire.

Joe Rutherford was among our visitors from the Lawen section during the week.

Our army in France seems to have had much more courage than artillery and a much larger stock of moral strength than of aeroplanes.

Rod Cozad came in with a load of freight from Crane Wednesday. The trucks find it entirely too soft to make the trip profitable.

Two good blacksmith outfits for sale, one in Crane, the other in Burns. Will sell complete outfits or any part of them.—W. W. Drinkwater.

Condensation is a virtue. But it becomes also an absurdity when clothes for large women are described in an advertisement as "stylish stouts."

General Pershing's attitude toward a possible presidential nomination is most praiseworthy. It is seldom that a man is so absorbed in his own proper business as not to heed the lure of a G. O. P. nomination.

If any one asks you what is going on, tell him that taxes are going up, prices are going down, the country is going dry, congress is going home, the president is going back, business is going to pay, and we're all going to be happy.

Out of town taxpayers who desire us to pay their taxes will please send us the tax collector's statement of the amount due together with instructions for payment of the same.—HARNEY COUNTY NATIONAL BANK.

No one can be in two places at once. Congressman-elect Berger of Wisconsin fully expected to spend some time in congress. But an important engagement for twenty years at Fort Leavenworth is likely to prevent.

The Store With a Push THAT MEANS US

We push the goods in--as fast as the new creations appear in the market they're placed on our shelves and counters.

And we push them Out--never permit them to become stale and shop-worn and out of style.

In this pushing out process our customers reap

THE BENEFITS OF THE PUSH

They get seasonable goods at bargain prices, as all goods must go with the season, and the price is the push.

You! We invite you to get in the push. You'll enjoy it.
