McConnell. Dancing was indulged in, which was followed by light refreshments. Several young people were guests and all report a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lampshire arrived home Tuesday from Portland where they had been for a short visit. They went down to attend the automobile show and while in Portland Mr. Lampshire took occasion to have a specialist treat his eyes. The sight of his right eye has been failing for the past year and he found it in rather worse condition than he expected. However, it is better.

Cortes Elliott was among our business visitors during this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henderson were in town from Narrows yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Smyth has returned home from Portland, where she has been since last fall.

Wm. Dunn, one of our substantial stockmen of the Narrows neighborhood, was in town to see the Income tax man the other day.

The presidential third term has long been a bugaboo. If we were to experience one, would it probably be different from a second term?

One of the colored battalions reached home in the depths of pessimism. The captain of the transport on which they crossed had forbidden the playing of craps during the voyage.

Lloyd Johnson and Lloyd Culp were in town from Lawen Wednesday. They stated the roads were very bad but indications were favorable to their improvement at once. In fact people who came in from Crane yesterday said the roads were not nearly so bad as a few days before.

Dr. J. Shelley Saurman was called to Crane last night to see Miss Shaw, one of the teachers of that place, who was ill. Clarence Luckey drove the car for Dr. Saurman and they had expected to return home last night but the roads were so bad they did not make the journey as quickly as they expected.

S. Alberson was mixing around town with his friends the other day.

The United States has been so accustomed to using Armenian rugs and laces and embroideries that it can perhaps handle an Armenian mandate with ease and efficiency.

J. H. Witzell and his son Fred were in town from their home near the Lake last Wednesday. Fred had been working in the ship yards in Portland until recently when he returned home.

C. B. McConnell spent a few days recently in the Lawen district conferring with the people of that vicinity upon the proposed irrigation districts. Later he left for Boise to be absent some ten days.

Joe Morris was among those in town this week to meet with the income tax man. He finds it rather hard to get from Narrows to this city and back during this period of the year when the roads are so bad. He reports business good at his town at this time.

LOCAL PAYROLLS distribute money in a community just as "local rains" distribute moisture.

You can't get away from it—because it's true.

Every time you favor local products in your buying you are doing your part to help along this local distribution of money.

MRS. CHRISTY DISLIKES COWS AND CHICKENS.

"Did you ever see Zanenville, Ohio?" is one of the famous replies of Mrs. Howard Chandler Christy to questions regarding the filing of a divorce suit by her famous American illustrator husband. She prefers New York. He likes his country home near the Ohio village. For ten years the affairs of the family have hovered near a divorce court—and now seem to be up for final settlement as, for the second time, he files suit. They have a daughter.

If the Bolsheviks and labor disturbers and other elements of unrest would kindly take a short nap until the rest of us could get the world into running order again, they would confer a favor.

Champo Burmudis was in from his home in the Warm Springs district Thursday. He came over to look after some business affairs and secure a little grain to feed his weak stock before turning on the range.

Why does the sailor call his boat a "wagon," and why does the motorist call his car a "boat?" Is it in each case a longing for "the far-off, unattained and dim?"
