LOCAL HAPPENINGS

W. L. Best and Albert Oakerman were in from Riley the fore part of the week.

Adam George was up from his home at Lawen on business during the week.

The snow is going off and the ground is absorbing much of the moisture these days.

Settley Cream Separator, capacity 250 lbs., used only a short time, for sale. Inquire at this office.

Julian George who is now engaged in farming and stock raising in the Calamity country, was a visitor to our city yesterday.

If out-of-town customers and others desiring taxes paid will send us their tax notice or otherwise notify us, we will be glad to attend to the matter for them.—First National Bank of Burns.

Dr. J. Shelley Saurman was called Sunday to remove tonsils and adenoids for Wanda Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer of the Silver Creek country.

Bert Vincent arrived home the other day from an army camp. He formerly conducted the livery stable in this city. We did not learn where Mr. Vincent was stationed.

Wray's Auto Stage will begin regular trips as soon as the roads are passable, about April 1st, according to the weather. Any one will be reasonably safe in ordering freight and express by April 1.

Stockmen are more or less anxious about the snow which is hanging on longer than was expected. It is gradually disappearing, but the hay is getting short and the stock should be in the hills on good feed within a short time.

The Times-Herald is informed that Hadden Elliott, one of the Harney county boys who was a member of the famous "Buckaroo" regiment, will be home the coming week. Hadden was sick upon returning from overseas to New York and was retained in a hospital until recently.

R. M. Payey, another one of the boys who went from this place to take part in the war, has returned and again entered upon his duties at the Bell A Ranch. He did not get to go across, but was in a camp in California for months. Mr. Payey was very sick with pneumonia during his enlistment, but has fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Clemens expect to leave some time in May for Gima-tilla county where they will make their home for a time at least. They have leased their farm home adjoining this city for a term of five years to Arthur Turner and his wife. The Clemens' will take their stock with them as they are going to live on a stock farm near Pendleton.

Batteries repaired properly. Jack McGuire.

Walter Anderson was a business visitor to our city for a few days this week.

Leroy and Ada Johnson were up from Lawen a few days this week visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Thompson were in town for a few days during this week, visiting with relatives and friends.

E. B. Hill, one of the substantial stockmen and ranchers of the Denio country, is in town, having recently come in from a business trip to Weiser and other Snake River points.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Born—Monday, March 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson, a son. The mother and boy are at the Firewood hospital where they are reported as doing fine. Don't know whether he has been named Pat or not, but he should be.

William F. Oltman was another of the Harney county soldier boys to return home this week. The young man was in the July call and spent all the time at Camp Lewis. He went out to his home between here and Harney yesterday morning.

Estray—Red muley cow, branded lazy bar H on left hip; marked with underbit in left ear, swallow fork and underbit in right ear, has been at my ranch for the past three months or more. Owner call and make necessary proof of animal.—P. G. Smith, Burns, Oregon.

Wanted—Men or women to take orders among friends and neighbors for the genuine guaranteed hosiery, full line of men, women and children. Eliminates darning. We pay 50c an hour spare time or $24 a week for full time. Experience unnecessary. Write, International Stocking Mill, Norristown, Pa.—Adv. 4-26

E. F. Towsley was down from his mountain place during the week.

Roy Buchanan was in town this week.

Oats, barley and wheat for sale at Perry's Barn.

An incubator for sale. Phone or see Pearl Vulgamore, Burns, Oregon.

Sid Comegys was over from his home in the Diamond country during the week.

Judge Grant Thompson is home from the outside where he had been for a short visit.

Battery and electrical repair work, oxy-acetylene welding. Jack McGuire.

Fifty tons of sugar grass hay fed and stock watered for $11.00 a ton. B. R. Ausmus, Lawen, Oregon. 3-22

For Sale—Universal Steel Range in excellent condition with six holes, burns either wood or coal; also a small heater and a kitchen cupboard with screen on sides, entirely new. Inquire at this office.

E. P. Sylvester, one of our respected pioneer farmers of the up-river section, was brought to town the fore part of this week to be near his physician, he having suffered considerable of late from asthma.

A friend soon finds out the religion of his "friend" who is continually borrowing money. The money also seems to have a religion of its own, as it nearly always keeps Lent in the most astonishing fashion.

M. T. McLaughlin arrived here on last Wednesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cal Clemens. The young man is a cousin to Mrs. Clemens and has but recently been discharged from army service at Camp Lewis.

James Rayercraft, the lineman for the Inter-Mt. Tel. & Tel. Co., received a telegram yesterday afternoon stating his father was not expected to live through the day. He resides at Port Angeles, Washington.

John Wintermeier returned last Saturday evening from a trip to The Dalles where he had gone to see his father, who had gotten hurt in a fall. The old gentleman is getting along in years and is not in the most robust health.

Out of town taxpayers who desire us to pay their taxes will please send us the tax collector's statement of the amount due together with instructions for payment of the same.—HARNEY COUNTY NATIONAL BANK.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simmons are home from Idaho where they had been since last fall looking after their cattle which were being fed in the vicinity of Caldwell. They disposed of the stock and have returned home for the present but expect to leave in a short time for a visit to outside points.

Frank Thompson was in town for a few days the fore part of the week, having just returned from active war duties. He was up to spend a few days with his sisters and visit with former school friends. The Times-Herald man didn't have an opportunity to interview the young man while he was in town, therefore does not know exactly how much service he saw or where he was located.

Estrays—One small black Jersey cow, branded Q on left side and no ear marks, dehorned, should have a calf; one red muley heifer coming 3 years old, branded T wrench on left side mark with split in left ear; one pale red heifer with white face, coming 3 years old, branded flying diamond on left hip, marked split in left ear, should have calf; one red heifer coming 2 years old, both ears cropped, branded LY on left hip and flying diamond on left side. Suitable reward for information regarding same.—A. A. Tipton, Burns, Oregon.

When your son comes home from the army, don't on any account offer him corned beef. Presumably he will be grateful for it, but you won't in the least like the form his gratitude takes.

Furnished rooms. See Clevenger. For Sale or Lease—All Sec. 11 T 23 S. R. 31 E. W. M. with about 200 acres of cleared land which has been cultivated, would lease for cash or crop payment. Write B. F. Johnson, Vale, Oregon. 3-22
