Dr. Smith had two tonsil and adenoid operations during the week at the surgery of the Haines hospital, one being the little daughter of Mrs. J. E. Sizemore, and the other the little son of Geo. Whiting.

Mrs. Georgia Barbee was operated on by Dr. Saurman at the Haines hospital Thursday of this week and was removed to the home of her mother afterward where she is doing well.

P. C. Petersen is carrying one hand around in a bandage, but tells us it is nothing serious. He hurt his finger and it became infected making it necessary to have it dressed by his doctor.

Mrs. Peter Christensen and her little daughter Evelyn, who have been at the home of Mrs. J. E. Sizemore for the past several weeks being treated by their doctor, left for home yesterday, both being in much better health.

Mrs. C. A. Haines has been at the Haines hospital in this city for a couple of weeks under the care of her physician. The lady is much improved and will soon be out. Her little daughter Marie spent the last week visiting her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simmons took their departure again Tuesday for outside points, remaining at the ranch home in this vicinity only a short time after spending the winter in Idaho. They have gone to Eatonville, Wash. for the present.

A reasonable reward will be paid for information leading to the recovery of a white faced Hereford bull branded JP on right ribs, also IX on one hip and Q on the other; marked wattle behind the right ear.—James Gard, Saddlebutte, Oregon.

Mrs. Eugenia Rembold and her sister, Mrs. Platt Randall, took their departure Thursday for Portland. Mrs. Rembold goes to remain for several months in the metropolis. She had expected to go down last fall and shipped her piano and other things in anticipation of remaining down for the winter but changed her plans later. Mrs. Randall goes down for a rest of a few weeks, her stay depending upon the state of her health.

George McLaren called at this office the other day while in town, to pay his respects to the force and to contribute toward keeping this great religious weekly coming to his address regularly. George told us he was busy over at Juntura looking after the townsite farm there. He is seeding additional ground to alfalfa this spring and hoped to get his son Will over to help him for a short time.

The writer had the privilege of looking over the handsome new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker now being completed by Mr. Lazarus in the eastern part of this city. This is one of the most modern and well appointed residences in this entire country with built-in closets, bookshelves, grill, etc. Much of the wood work is hand-finished and is really artistic. It is most conveniently arranged and when completed will certainly be a fine home. It is now in the hands of the decorator.

SHE WILL MEET HER DADDY IN PARIS

Daddy's in France? Granddad's in France. Grandma's in France—so it is possible that baby Patricia Wallace will soon be seen on Paris boulevard. She is the granddaughter of Hugh Wallace, the new American ambassador to France. Her daddy is Captain Melville W. Wallace of the United States Army—and she has never yet seen him. Her mother was formerly Miss Ruth Patterson.

John Hoss is ill at the Haines hospital, having been brought in from the country the other day.

New seven-room house, 8 acres on river in city limits. Take part cattle, balance easy terms. Box 272, Burns, 4-26.

James Oard was up from his home near Saddle Butte last week looking after some business affairs and visiting with friends.

Mrs. James Wilson, formerly Miss Mary Fry, has been in this vicinity for the past two weeks visiting with relatives and friends.

William Stirling of the William Hanley Company took his departure this morning for Portland where he will be a short time on business.

Wheat for sale at Brown's Quality Store. Sold only by the sack. No phone orders. No charge accounts for wheat.

Mrs. F. L. Anderson and her little son were guests at the Levens hotel for a few days this week while she had some dental work done.

M. Horton was over from Diamond last Saturday. Mr. Horton has been in the mercantile business at that point for many years.

Tom Sullivan, one of the old time pioneers of the Stein's Mountains, is renewing acquaintances in this city.

Walton Brown has resigned his position with the Crane State Bank and will leave the first of the month for a few weeks in Portland.

Dr. J. Shelley Saurman was called to Crane Thursday to see Mr. Frank Dunn, of the Narrows, who is critically ill with pneumonia.

Miss Ruth Short, niece of G. W. Clevenger, left Thursday for her home at Payette, after a visit with relatives in this city. She expects to return in July for a longer visit.

Mrs. Lem Lowe and her daughter, Miss Susie, have recently returned home after spending the winter with old time friends and relatives in Tennessee.

The annual P. F. P. ball given on last Saturday night was the usual social success and enjoyed by a large number of our young people and a few of the older ones.

T. J. McDonald has been appointed chairman of the Armenian Relief drive for this district. This drive should have been held some time ago, but was delayed because of the influenza quarantine. The quota given for this district is $1500.

It is reported that about $3,000 worth of sheep were lost at Crane Wednesday. Because of the late hour of their arrival the railroad employees refused to permit the consignees to unload his stock and as a result several of them died. They were consigned to a resident of the south end of the county.

John Morrell, another one of our boys to volunteer his services in the navy directly after the declaration of war, arrived home last night, coming in by way of Bend. He received his discharge at San Francisco recently and after a short visit hurried home and says he's glad to be here. He saw considerable active service over seas but the writer did not get time this morning to get particular information. John said he received this great religious weekly just once in a while because he was moving about at frequent intervals and they are not so careful of second class mail matter and copies would go astray.

Order those letter heads here.

I. Weinstein, the Lawen merchant, and his son are in town today.

Mrs. R. R. Sitz was up from the ranch near Lawen this week, bringing her little niece up to have some dental work done. She was accompanied up by Mrs. Lloyd Johnson.

James Street was among our visitors from the Silver Creek section during the week. Mr. Street has been having a siege of rheumatism for several months but is now much better.

Harry Howell arrived home last night from serving in the army. We have had no opportunity to interview him and do not know where he served. We understand he has his final discharge and is home to stay.

The office boy accompanied Dr. Saurman on a trip to Crane Thursday. We like to have him get out for some fresh air occasionally. He says he had a nice ride, but will "sho nui" be glad when the new highway is put through.

Thomas Sylvester, a nephew of Porter Sylvester, is home from the war. He volunteered in the navy and was fortunate in getting a discharge. The young man had a twin brother in the navy also, being on the same boat with him for a time but he became ill and received his discharge several months ago.

Rev. Wm. Baird, the Presbyterian Sunday school missionary, who has been visiting portions of this county for the past several years, arrived in this city yesterday morning for a short visit with friends. Although he makes frequent trips into Harney county, this part does not see him very often.
