

CHECKING ACCOUNTS

LOOK PROSPEROUS
MAKE YOU FEEL PROSPEROUS
BRING PROSPERITY

When a man pays his bills by check everybody thinks he has money.

The word of the moneyed man always has greater weight in community than that of the man who has nothing.

This is an age when it takes money to make money, and without it you can do little or nothing.

Start a checking account today, and let its possession lead the way to greater prosperity.

It is the safe, sane and business way.

Erskine Wood has been here from Portland for the past week looking after the interests of the William Hanley company in the irrigation district matter before the county court. The young man reports that his father, Colonel C. E. S. Wood, had retired from the practice of law and is at present in California where he is doing some writing.

Llewellyn Hibbard met with a severe and painful accident last Saturday afternoon out at the farm. While cranking the tractor the crank flew back with terrific force, striking the boy in the face, knocking out four teeth, breaking a piece off the lower jaw and laying his lip open until it fell down toward his neck. The boy had to come to town for medical aid and suffered very much before getting relief. His physician took several stitches in closing up the wound and the boy's father, Dr. L. E. Hibbard, will have some very difficult dentistry to do to fill in the cavity where the bone was destroyed in the lower jaw. The patient is at present getting along fine.

Batteries repaired properly. Jack McGuire.

A rainstorm Thursday night started the snow out of the mountains very rapidly.

Wheat for sale at Brown's Quality Store. Sold only by the sack. No phone orders. No charge accounts for wheat.

Jack Scarf is down from the Pur-rington mill and reports the snow as being right up to his arm pits, which shows there is some snow, for Jack stands six feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dibble were over from their Silver Creek home the fore part of this week looking after some business affairs and visiting friends.

C. B. McConnell arrived home the first of this week from a business trip to outside points. He was present to look after his interests in the irrigation district hearing before the county court.

Mrs. Len Weatherly left Thursday for Juntura after spending several weeks in this city at the home of her sister, Mrs. Eunice Thompson. Mrs. Weatherly may continue her journey to Boise where her sister resides.

If out-of-town customers and others desiring taxes paid will send us their tax notice or otherwise notify us, we will be glad to attend to the matter for them.—First National Bank of Burns.

Edward F. Treadwell was here during the week looking after the interests of the P. L. S. company in the irrigation district hearing before the county court, taking his departure for San Francisco again yesterday morning.

Estray—Red muley cow, branded lazy bar H on left hip; marked with underbit in left ear, swallow fork and underbit in right ear, has been at my ranch for the past three months or more. Owner call and make necessary proof of animal.—P. G. Smith, Burns, Oregon.

This office is in receipt of a letter from Lockley McPhail in which he announces he has received his discharge from the army and is with his mother in southern California. He writes that Uncle Sam carried him over a good portion of these United States during the period of his army experience, but didn't show him any place where he preferred to live than in the west. Lockley did not get across to France, nor did his brother, "Red."

Cashier Conser of the First National Bank of this city received a wire yesterday from J. L. Gault stating he was going to visit this city on April 8. Mr. Gault was connected with the First National here for many years, resigning his position last fall to accept the management of a big livestock bank in Spokane and since that time has been a very busy man. His institution extends its activities into this part of the country and is a factor in the livestock industry of the entire northwest.

Strayed from my ranch, one red two year old heifer branded with oar-lock, upside down, on left hip, also N P on left hip. Ear mark, crop off the left, split in the right. Suitable reward.—Lute Parker.

Is Burns standing in the way of the advancement of this country? We are accused of it. Let's show we are not and that we are progressive in every movement having for its purpose the advancement of the prosperity of the country and the development of its resources.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Swain left yesterday morning by way of Bend on the Wray stage, for Dallas, Oregon, where they go to visit for a time with relatives and friends. The Swains formerly resided in the Polk county town and Mrs. Swain's father and two of her sisters as well as a brother still live there.

Don't sit at home and complain that you can't get anything when you can help get it by co-operation with men who will take time to aid you. If Harney county is to be represented in the general scheme for advancement it must be a member of the State Chamber of Commerce. Come to Burns on the evening of April 10 and aid in organizing it.

Read that special article on page two of this issue written by S. M. Williams, president of the Highway Industries. Do we want to share in the distribution of these millions of dollars and receive personal benefit in addition to making it profitable for every citizen of the United States? Then attend a meeting in Burns on April 10 for the purpose of planning a county campaign for better roads and a consistent plan by which we may accomplish results.

Suitable reward for information regarding same.—A. A. Tipton, Burns, Oregon.

Hadden Elliott, another of the Harney county boys who succeeded in getting across but not to the front in the recent war, arrived home Thursday evening. Hadden was in the same regiment with Roy Clark, Buck Miller, Charley Spencer, Roy Skienes and other home boys, but on the return trip from France he took the "flu" and was retained in a base hospital at New York. He contracted pneumonia following the "flu" and was just recently able to resume the journey west to Camp Lewis, where he received his discharge. Hadden told a representative of this paper that the boys received copies of the Times-Herald pretty regularly during their stay in France, although not in their regular order.
