Wanted—Men or women to take orders among friends and neighbors for the genuine guaranteed hosiery, full line of men, women and children. Eliminates darning. We pay 50c. an hour spare time or $24 a week for full time. Experience unnecessary. Write, International Stocking Mill, Norristown, Pa.—Adv. 4-26

Mrs. W. H. Keeler and little daughter leave today for Lexington, this state, where they go to join Mr. Keeler who has gone into business there. Mrs. Keeler has made her home in this city since early childhood and her many friends regret her departure. Their best wishes follow her to her new home.

School Supt. Clark announces that she has received a number of text books to be used in connection with teaching foreigners who desire to become citizens of this country. Mrs. Clark desires that these books be placed in the proper hands and suggests that school patrons who know of cases where they are desired to let her know.

"Button, button who's got the button?" We learn that few buttons have been made here since the United States entered the war and that the supply is almost exhausted. Be careful of buttons, unless you wish the time to come when you will be obliged to pin your clothes together.

Batteries repaired properly. Jack McGuire.

J. W. Crawford is absent on business trip to Portland.

Line of Easter Eggs and Candies at Page's Sweet Shop.

"Good as wheat" is a better standard of comparison than ever.

"Own your home" is a late slogan and a good one. Just try it and see.

Wm. Catterson was among our visitors from the Lawen section during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Page of the Catlow country, were registered at the Levens hotel Thursday.

For Sale—Home Comfort Range in good condition. Cheap as dirt. Inquire of Bert Richardson. 4-26

W. H. Morrison and wife were the guests of relatives and friends in this city during the week.

If Easter eggs could only hatch, what a variety of beautifully colored and patterned chickens we should have!

A telegram was received yesterday from Will Walkup stating he was in New York on his way home from France.

Mrs. Fred Clingan returned home Thursday evening from Portland where she had been for a few weeks buying some new stock of furniture for the store in this city.

Dr. Smith removed the tonsils and adenoids from Terry Hill on Monday and on the following day performed an operation for appendicitis on Mrs. Jessie Ladd of Diamond at the Haines hospital.

Mrs. G. A. Smyth and Mrs. C. H. Smyth were over from their homes Thursday to meet with the Eastern Star on the occasion of the visit of the Grand Worthy Matron. The ladies took occasion to visit with their friends while over.

Fay Comegys was in town for a short time this week, having come in to visit his sister, Mrs. Anna Haines, who is at the Haines hospital in this city. Mrs. Haines has been ill but has about recovered her health and expects to leave the hospital in a few days.

Henry Fries and his wife and associates, who several years ago took up desert claims in the Wagontire section, were here this week offering final proof. These claims are situated in the range country and it has been some task to find suitable crops for that soil but Mr. Fries has discovered that rye grass thrives well and has seeded quite an area to that; he is confident sweet clover will also be a success and is preparing to try some this season.

Furnished rooms. See Clevenger.

Ira Mahon was in town Thursday on business.

Oats, barley and wheat for sale at Perry's Barn.

Elbert and Henry George were in town Wednesday.

A love of good literature will cast a halo of beauty over the most prosaic and commonplace life. It will lift the soul above its mean and sordid surroundings and make it to commune with the spirits of the great of earth.

George Simmons was up from Narrows yesterday. His little daughter has been in town for a few weeks, having come up with the intention of going to school but as the influenza epidemic stopped the school she was disappointed and had since been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown.

Robert Groff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Groff of this city, writes his relatives that he has asked to be released from the navy since the armistice was signed as there isn't much of a chance for active service but finds rather hard to get out. The young man is on the U. S. S. Vermont which is now engaged in bringing boys home from France.

The Times-Herald man had occasion to visit the vulcanizing department of the Universal Garage the other day and found Earl Hagey preparing to install some of the latest improvements in that line of work. He has ordered a kettle apparatus with which to facilitate the task of placing retreads on tires. This will mean a considerable saving to the auto owners as he will thus turn out work quickly at a big saving in the expense as it will renew tires at a slight cost.

The sporting editor of this great religious weekly was supposed to go fishing last Sunday but when he observed the snow on waking up he got "cold feet" therefore he has no fish story to tell this week and the boss would have been sorely disappointed had not Sheriff Goodman and his amiable wife come to the rescue with a fine big trout for his dinner. We are perfectly willing "Fees" should have an outing once in a while but believe we are surer of fish when the sheriff goes, so vote that he make a trip frequently to the Blitzen during the fishing season.
