

1919 Maid Reflects Prosperity

The pessimist who can see only disaster and hard times in the affairs of the day, need only to glance at the chic and smartly dressed 1919 maid and make a few mental calculations to get full reflection of the national prosperity.

Farmer Votes in Congress

Three congressmen elected by North Dakota farmers of the Nonpartisan League will be in the House of Representatives of the sixty-sixth congress when it convenes shortly. They are George M. Young, James H. Sinclair and J. M. Baer.

The largest subscriber to the Victory Loan in each town in Oregon will receive a German helmet as a special formation to the soldiers in the enemy sward. During the flight of the airplanes at Portland on Monday, hundreds of bombs were dropped over the city in imitation of methods used by American fighters in disseminating literature to the soldiers in the enemy trenches. Fifty of the bombs contained letters that entitled the finders to helmets. The helmets are from

MARTINS LOOK FOR THEIR SUMMER HOME

"Say Mr. Handy Boy—was it the model of the martins' home you were waiting to see before starting that job of bird house building. This is it, so get busy today. It's house hunting time in birdland now. There is one feature which is important to this structure? That is the landing perch in front of the door. You know birds like to rest a moment after a long flight—before entering their house."

the supply Germany intended Hun troops to wear upon marching into Paris—Americans at Chateau Thierry stopped the advance and captured the helmets.

Manufacture of Liberty Loan medals for workers made from German cannon has required more time than was expected. If the medals do not arrive in time for immediate distribution, certificates will be issued that will be interchangeable for the medals.

When our boys now fighting in Archangel get home they will probably have permanently lost their taste for ice cream. Their girls had better begin at once to cultivate a fondness for hot chocolate.

that make a home look comfortable and inviting are the kind of furnishings we carry in stock.

is where you should spend most of your life—therefore it should be furnished accordingly.

If your habits carry you away from your home for comfort and happiness, there is SOMETHING wrong.

And the SOMETHING is the lack of good home furnishings or the lack of SOMEONE to keep up a well furnished home.

Acquire them both — they are necessary.

Are You a Quitter?

The world has no use for the quitter. In the prize ring, on the battlefield, and in the whole field of human endeavor, there is nothing but contempt for the man who fails to see his effort through. America's reputation for gameness is at stake in the Fifth Liberty Loan. All the fruits of victory will be lost if we fail to finish. It is for every money-earning individual to do his or her part for the nation's good name. Let the world say: "America saw it through—those Yankees never quit!"
