COMMITTEE REPORTS INDIFFERENT SUCCESS

Few People Come Out For Victory Drive.

EXCHANGING BONDS MEETS APPROVAL
Monday Night Meeting Scheduled For Burns, Col. William Hanley To Preside.

The Victory Liberty Loan campaigners arrived home Wednesday from their tour of the southern part of the county and report only indifferent success, as nowhere did they find many people gathered to hear the message they had. The stock men are in the hills looking after their flocks and herds, while those of the home did not show as much enthusiasm as in the former drives for funds. The proposition of turning in former bonds in exchange for the Victory Loan notes has met with approval and in this manner more are being taken than otherwise. The citizen of modern means is willing to sacrifice a little temporarily to meet the present emergency, especially when it is pointed out that it will be to their advantage in the end from the fact that the Victory Bonds are higher rate of interest and mature in four years which gives the holder an opportunity to invest the amount at the commercial rate of interest and realize more.

Judge J. D. Stevens is the outside speaker with the party and has put the subject very clearly and forcibly before his hearers. The gentleman spoke for a short time at the Liberty theater in this city Wednesday evening but touched only briefly upon the subject. He announced the meeting to be held in this city on next Monday night when the matter will be put before the people of this vicinity. Other members of the party to make the tour of the southern part were Manager Donegan, Wm. Farre, Charles W. Ellis, D. Potter, Tom Allen and I. Weinstein.

It had been the intention to go to Silver Creek for Wednesday night but upon communicating with that neighborhood over the phone the speakers were advised to not come as the entire community was just recovering from an epidemic of "flu."

The party went to Drewsey yesterday and will be at Harney tonight. Among the new members of the party to go to Drewsey were Rev. B. S. Hughes and Joe Krumholz.

On Monday night the meeting is scheduled for this city and will be held in Tonawama where some of the soldier boys will have a display of war trophies and the speaking will be followed by a Victory ball under the management of returned soldiers.

Col. William Hanley has been asked to preside at the meeting Monday night and the list of speakers will be augmented with perhaps other diversions such as music.

THE PEOPLE OF HARNEY COUNTY HAVE BEEN PARTICULARLY LIBERAL IN THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS AND INVESTMENTS IN THE PAST AND IT WOULD BE A PITY TO FALL DOWN ON OUR RECORD. THEY SHOULD BEAR IN MIND THAT THIS IS THE LAST LOAN AND THAT WE MUST HONORABLY DISCHARGE THIS OBLIGATION. WE CONTRACTED A DEBT THAT MUST BE PAID.

FORMER BURNS MUSIC TEACHER VISITS HERE

Mrs. Grace B. McHose, a former music teacher of this city, arrived in town yesterday from her home at Nampa, Idaho. She is a guest of friends and will remain until after tomorrow.

Wiley, president of the college; Rev. N. B. Herrill, superintendent of the Nazarene church; Miss Olive Winchester, head of the Theological department; Mr. Harold Hart, Mr. Howard Park and Miss Ethel Sherrin, students, make up the other members.

They are on a campaign for funds for the college and have covered a portion of this state and Idaho and expect to go later to other sections including Walla Walla, Spokane, Seattle and Portland. They will conduct meetings at the Nazarene church while here.

MANY TRANSACTIONS IN REAL ESTATE

C. M. Salisbury has just purchased an 80 acre tract of land from H. C. Levens just south of this city. The tract has recently been seeded to alfalfa and will be a valuable acquisition to his dairy plant. It is well located land under irrigation and a tract that is worth good money. The consideration was not given out.

Another real estate deal during the week was the sale by Grover N. Jameson of his interest in the farm and stock up the river to his former partner, Clifford Reed. This is another valuable farm. We did not learn the consideration in this deal.

Mr. Reed has torn down the old house on the place and intends putting up a modern home where he will reside with his family.

Mr. Jameson is undecided as to his immediate future in business. He is offered flattering inducements to do office work and he may devote himself to that for a time but hopes to soon embark in business for himself. When he disposed of his interests to Mr. Reed he had prospects for another farm but this deal has fallen thru and he must look elsewhere. He retained a ranch in the mountains and will take up stock again at some future time.

Another recent sale was that of H. J. Hansen to J. H. Cameron of 280 acres of what is known as the Oliver Farra place two miles east of town. This is a fine hay ranch, well irrigated and in shape for more intensive agriculture. Mr. Cameron is a young stock man who recently bought the ranch home of Mrs. H. Dixon and his recent purchase joins it so he has a valuable plant to work out his affairs in the future.

PICKING THE PRESIDENT

Political bees are beginning to buzz for the 1920 presidency and already party leaders are looking over the available timber within their ranks while favorite sons and dark horses trot by in endless rows. These include former President William Howard Taft as a candidate for the Republican nomination, with President Wilson a possible opponent on the Democratic ticket. This is the first of a series on "Picking the President," which this paper will publish within the next few weeks.

RALPH IRVING AT O. A. C.

(L. G. South in O. A. C. Barometer.)

Ralph E. Irving, from Harney County High School where he graduated in 1911, is this year finishing a successful college course both from the standpoint of scholarship and activities. He is president of the Withycombe Club, an organization composed of students interested in Animal Husbandry. The club was named after the late Governor Withycombe and was fostered and supported by him. Mr. Irving also holds a position as student instructor.

When "Buck" Irving first landed here he was in the same predicament as many other students after being here a while. He was broke. But that did not stop him, for he has worked his way through four years of college, and he is now on the eve of graduation. The only time he was out of school was some five or six months when he was in the service of Uncle Sam down at Camp Kearney.

While Mr. Irving was a freshman he did not take very kindly to the treatment handed to him by the sophomore class and on occasions strenuously objected. On account of his activity as a rook he became an active member of the 1919 Vigilance committee.

Before coming to college Buck was allied with the cattle industry of Harney county and was a cowboy of no mean ability as many people there will testify. When he came to college he naturally registered in Animal Husbandry.

DR. SAURMAN TO ERECT OFFICE.

The Times-Herald is informed that D. P. Jordan has taken a contract to erect an office building for Dr. J. S. Saurman on the lots adjoining the L. H. Holland residence. This building will contain five rooms which will include a reception room, a consulting room, a small surgery together with laboratory, supply room, etc. It will be commodious and in accordance with the needs of his practice. The structure is to be put up at once.

BATTLESHIP OREGON WILL NOT BE DISMANTLED

The appeal by Governor Olcott on behalf of the state and by Mayor Baker on behalf of the city of Portland, to Secretary Daniels of the navy department for the retention of the Battleship Oregon in service, seems to have been effective as word has come from Acting Secretary Roosevelt that the ship will be assigned to Portland harbor as a permanent victory ship unless reasons unforeseen arise to change the plans.

When it was learned that the fighting ship was destined to go out of commission the importance of taking steps to save the splendid old warrior from the junk heap was immediately recognized.

Ernest Musick arrived home from Portland by Wray's stage last night. He is greeting his many friends this morning and they hope he is home to stay, although he has not said.

INTEREST AWAKENED IN GOOD ROADS

Delegation Goes To Meet State Highway Commission In Portland Tuesday.

The Times-Herald is pleased to note an awakening interest in the good roads question among the citizens of this county. Recently it was ascertained that the State Highway Commission had additional funds to devote to road building in the interior part of the state during next year. With this information as a basis the county court was interviewed and being willing to pledge funds for additional work next season a delegation of citizens have volunteered to go to Portland to meet with the Highway Commission on next Tuesday and submit a proposition to continue the post road work in this county and to suggest that since the route between this point and Lawen on the Burns-Crane road had been approved and therefore assured, the route to the west toward the Deschutes county line be the next taken up.

A delegation of some fifteen or more are making preparations to go down to meet with the Highway people and this will include members of the court.

This will be an important link in the proposed Central Oregon highway and there is every reason to believe it will be acted upon favorably.

IOWA SUFFRAGE MEANS NATIONAL VICTORY

National woman's suffrage will be a reality before the next congress adjourns, according to the announcement of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association. This is made possible through the granting of presidential suffrage to Iowa women and assuring the needed majority to pass the federal amendment.

MUCH PROPERTY NEAR DREWSEY CHANGES HANDS

Largest Deal Reported Is Sale of 300 Acres By Milt Davis At $42,000

The Times-Herald has learned of several real estate deals recently near Drewsey which involved considerable money. The largest was the transfer of 300 acres together with some stock by Milt Davis to Ed Howard. This involved in the neighborhood of $42,000. The land is under a high state of cultivation with an adequate irrigation system.

Wm. Dunlap also sold 160 acres of developed land adjoining Drewsey to W. W. Miller for $15,000.

James Gearhart has purchased the interests of the other heirs in the estate of his late father, covering some 400 acres on Calamity creek.

Joe Cronin recently purchased 320 acres from Ed Howard for $10,000. This land was part farming, the other portion being grazing land.

Bert Dunten has bought 40 acres of the old Sitz place on the Malheur above Drewsey. The balance of the place was recently sold to a Yakima man who desires to engage in the stock business.

With the exception of the last named deal all these transfers are among home people who are entirely familiar with the land and are showing their faith in their county.

From the same source we are informed that the people of Drewsey had subscribed sufficient funds to sink an experimental well to the depth of 500 feet for artesian water.

ACCURATE SERVICE RECORDS REQUESTED

Photographs and Information Wanted.

ONLY PARTIAL LIST SECURED SO FAR

State Historical Society Representative - Collaborating With Publisher of Honor Roll.

The government has asked that the boys who served in the army and navy be registered in their respective states. The State Historical Society has also requested the record of these boys, together with photographs and information as to their service, regardless of its character or where it was performed, whether in this part of the world or at the front across the water.

It has been difficult to secure this information. In fact there has been no accurate record kept of the boys who went out from this county. It is important that this information be correct in every detail so far as can be obtained and the parents of boys or anyone interested whether related or not, if they are satisfied such information has not been turned in to Mrs. Clark, County School Superintendent, should send it in.

Below is a list of those whom Mrs. Clark has so far secured of Harney county boys who have served during the war. It is not complete, but she has no means of adding the omissions unless those who know will inform her. Some of those already enumerated may be wrong or duplicated because of a slight change in the spelling of the name. This should be corrected by anyone who knows.

Those who are in a position to do so are urgently requested to aid in this important work. We don't want a record of the war to go to press and leave some of our boys out when it is possible to get the information desired, which includes the branch of service, where, when, discharged, etc., also a photograph.

Those who have filled out their information blanks and given pictures to "Curly" Potter need not duplicate them as information assigned to Mrs. Clark will be used in connection with the book to be gotten out by him. Information given to either Mrs. Clark or "Curly" Potter will be used by both.

The State Historical Society is not going to put out a book, but the record of each man is to be filed in the archives of the Society; Mr. Potter is using his information for his Honor Roll of Harney County.

Read the list of names and see if your boy or your friend's is included, and if not, please notify Mrs. Clark.
