Tice Schull was a business visitor to our city the fore part of this week.

Grant Reynolds will grease your windmill for you during the summer. Call phone No. G147.

R. H. Brown spent a few days in town this week attending to some business affairs.

It would be a shame if his picture and record were left out of the Honor Roll. Read the list of names on page four.

Joe Tompson and family and his mother and Miss Leona Tompson Tuesday and Wednesday at the W. H. Robertson farm near Drewsey.

The stock men of this vicinity are getting together for mutual benefit. It is time. They just as well have things in better shape than otherwise.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

M. and Mrs. Wm. Farre returned Monday from Canyon City where they had been for a few days. Their little daughter, Kathrine, remained in Canyon to visit for a time.

Walter Cross and his son Archie, accompanied by Miss Cora Shepard came down from their Trout Creek home Tuesday. They were here to do some shopping and to attend the meeting of the Stock Association.

Mrs. Geo. A. Smyth was in town for a few days this week in company with her sister Mrs. A. E. Brown. They had the privilege of attending a meeting of the Eastern Star while in town and participating in a social time following the business meeting of the Chapter.

Bruce Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker, of Paisley, Sunday had the misfortune to tear out one of the fingers of his right hand which became caught in a rope loop while he was engaged in branding cattle. He was brought to this city by auto, and the injured hand was cared for by Dr. H. E. Kelly.—Lakeview Examiner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown and their sons, Harry and Glenn, were visitors in our city for a few days during this week. The boys were both in the army, Harry getting only to New York, but Glenn volunteered before and was in the aviation department. He spent several months in France and saw considerable service in his capacity as a machinist. The young man secured some fine recommendations as to his proficiency as a mechanic upon being discharged. He was mustered out in April.

Batteries repaired properly. Jack McGuire.

I. L. Poujade was in town this week.

Are there any names missing? Read page four.

James Pirie was in town Tuesday to attend a meeting of the Burns Cattle & Horse Growers Association.

Frank Matney who was operated on by Dr. J. Shelley Saurman last week is at the Fireweed hospital making a very good recovery.

Come in and see the bakery goods. We don't keep it on display in the window because the sun dries it out rapidly.—Page's Sweet Shop.

Mrs. F. E. Swope and her children were passengers out on Wray's Stage Wednesday enroute to Portland where they go to visit for a short time with relatives.

A. E. Smith, the merchant at Blitzen, was in the city during this week attending to some business. He was accompanied in by Arthur Moore, a young man who is his assistant in the store.

I. N. Hugnet and wife and son were business visitors from their ranch near the head of Harney Lake on Tuesday and Wednesday. P. G. Smith came in with them to attend the meeting of the Stock Association of which he is president.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Barber and children arrived here Sunday evening from Ashland where they had been since last fall. Mr. Barber had work there with the railroad but had to return to resume his residence on his homestead in Catlow.

A reasonable reward will be paid for information leading to the recovery of a white faced Hereford bull branded JP on right ribs also IX on one hip and Q on the other; marked wattle behind the right ear.—James Oard, Saddlebutte, Oregon.

Mrs. Arthur Turner took her departure Thursday enroute to Tacoma, where she will visit her mother, going later to Yakima to visit with her sisters, Mrs. Beebe and Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Turner went out in company with the Clemens' who were going to Pendleton to reside.

W. B. Johnson was in town Tuesday "gassing" with his friends. Mr. Johnson stated to a representative of this paper that the proposed irrigation project on Silver Creek was progressing slowly. They have organized an irrigation district and he is one of the directors. The proposition of impounding the water is a big problem and the matter requires much detail work before the real work begins. Mr. Johnson said the matter of adjudicating the rights of the riparian owners was one thing that would be done at once in order to have that out of the way when the other work begins.

Oats, barley and wheat for sale at Perry's Barn.

James Weston was in town for a few days this week from Crane.
