Mrs. Lenora Smith and Mrs. Julia Reed and her three children left yesterday afternoon for a short visit with friends and relatives in the vicinity of Crane. They expect to return tomorrow night.

Rev. Wm. Baird, the Sunday School Missionary, who makes regular trips to this county, was in Burns for a short visit during Wednesday, having stopped by while on his way to Catlow Valley and other points south.

Wm. Stewart, a brother to Mrs. A. J. Jones, is here on a visit to his sister from his home at Dayville. Mr. Stewart was in the air service over in France, connected with the mechanical department, and has recently returned home after being discharged.

Mrs. Chas. Comegys and her children were in from Diamond during the week for a short visit to look after the city residence property preparatory to turning it over to its new tenant. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton will occupy the town home of Mrs. Comegys during the coming year.

C. E. Beery, the civil engineer, who was a resident of this county for several years but of late been associated with a big land concern with headquarters at Portland, has been here for the past week looking after some business affairs and renewing acquaintances. He found a hearty welcome among his friends.

Harold Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. D. Baker, was severely hurt last Wednesday evening by a horse kicking him in the groin, making a deep cut as well as a painful bruise. At first it was feared the boy was dangerously hurt but after his physician arrived and looked him over he found the injury not serious and the patient is getting along fine.

W. L. Best was in to see us the other morning and brought a couple of twigs to show how thick the apicots were setting on the trees at the Frank Clerf Alvord Ranch. Mr. Best states that Frank's orchard is looking like a full fruit crop as the peaches, apples, cherries, and in fact all varieties are loaded down and will have to be thinned or the trees will break.

Mrs. H. Dixon took her departure Wednesday morning for outside points. She goes first to The Dalles where she will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ferry and in company with them will attend the Rose Festival at Portland early next month. She will go to Walla Walla later to visit her brothers and from there she will proceed to Colorado where she will visit a sister. She will be absent for several weeks.

Married—Wednesday, May 28, at the Haas Hotel in this city, George K. Hatt and Miss Mary Hazel Van Dorn, Rev. Wm. Baird, the Presbyterian Sunday School Missionary who visits the outlying districts of this county at intervals, performing the ceremony. The contracting parties live in the vicinity of Princeton and are quite well known to Harney county people. The Times-Herald joins friends in extending best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Mrs. C. A. Haines is in town today. Will be out. See the Honor Roll advertisement on page four.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hutton, R. L. Hutton and their sister, Mrs. Isaac Foster, have business visitors in our city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Southworth were in from their home in Bear Valley yesterday on a short visit, returning in the afternoon.

Marriage license was issued this week to Joseph J. Derzulaitis and Mary Breslin; also Chas. W. Lohrey and Sophia Fleck.

Dr. Saucman performed an operation upon Mrs. Emil Baker early in the week at the Floved hospital and the patient is reported recovering nicely.

Russell Robertson and Donald Masterson came over from the Robertson ranch on Otis Creek yesterday and will be accompanied on their return by Mrs. Eunice Thompson who goes to remain at the ranch for a short time while Mrs. Robertson goes to Portland for medical treatment.

Mrs. Frank Bennett was down from her Stiles Valley home during this week visiting with her sister, Mrs. Ellis Bennett of this city. She was accompanied in by her cousin, Miss Lincoln of Bear Valley. Upon their return Mrs. Bennett's mother, Mrs. Guernsey accompanied them, going on to Canyon City for a short visit.

M. Gill was here from Parma, Idaho during the week looking after his real estate interests. Mr. Gill is well pleased with his location over in Idaho as he raises anything almost, fine alfalfa with fruit going to waste and a most agreeable climate. He was accompanied over by Donald Miller, a little neighbor boy who was making his first tour in Oregon. Donald enjoyed the trip and had a good time with his little shot gun. They have returned to Parma.

John Gilcrest is in this vicinity visiting with the Hollands and other old time friends. Mr. Gilcrest was so long associated with this country in his capacity as superintendent of the P. L. S. Co. that he finds it hard to step away. There is something about this big "out of doors" that appeals to men who have had experience in such life and Mr. Gilcrest is not an exception to the rule of, returning at intervals to get a smell of sage brush and even pick a few sage ticks off for old times sake. The gentleman always finds a hearty welcome from the pioneer people who would be neighbored for so many years.

SHIRLEY MASON AND ERNEST TRUAX IN NEW COMEDY

Capable Screen Players Have Excellent Roles in Paramount's "Come On In."

Dainty Shirley Mason, a screen player of prominence and winsome beauty, and Ernest Truax, a comedian celebrated in musical comedy, will make their first appearance as co-stars in Paramount pictures in a patriotic John Emerson-Anita Loos production written especially for them by John Emerson and Anita Loos, which will be presented at the Liberty theatre tomorrow night. The play depicts life in the soldiers' training camps and its theme is intensely patriotic.

In this photoplay, Miss Mason portrays the role of a patriotic stenographer who decides to do her bit for her country by exposing and tracking down Hun spies. While she is doing this she herself is hunted by a rascally spy who has been drafted into the United States army and she is rescued from his clutches just in time to save her, by her real sweetheart, the part played by Mr. Truax, a small but intensely patriotic soldier, full of pep and ginger. After a series of highly interesting adventures the couple foil the spies and find happiness in their mutual love.

It is said that this comedy of the training camps is the first which pictures the life of the soldier at the national cantonments and it has much educational value. The photoplay was directed by Mr. Emerson and no expense was spared to make it one of the best of its kind ever produced. The co-stars have been provided with an excellent cast of supporting players, all of them being of the highest artistic calibre.

BUY IT FROM US IT PAYS

This is a general store and we are supposed to sell everything, and we live up to the general supposition.

You can buy anything you want here, from hardware to groceries, from needles to a good smoke.

It pays to buy from us, because we sell for cash, and an enormous amount of goods, and we can therefore sell at a closer margin of profit than some others.

You CAN'T lose, and you WILL gain. Now doesn't this line of argument appeal straight to your good common sense?

PHILOSOPHY OF A COFFEE PERCOLATOR

Hiram bought a percolator,
Took it home to Susie;
Hiram he's some calculator,
Knocked her grouch all blooey.

Hiram liked his coffee black,
Susie liked her'n meller,
The percolator turned the trick—
Hiram, he's some—
Bought it at GEER'S!

That and other little labor saving devices and cooking utensils he's bought there have re-instated his wife's feeling for him quite satisfactorily, Hiram would tell you.
