Mrs. W. A. Robertson underwent a delicate and severe operation at a hospital in Portland the fore part of this week and a telegram announces she is recovering nicely. Mrs. Robertson is one of the well known pioneer women of Drewsey country and has many friends in this vicinity who are glad to hear of her recovery.

A recent letter from Mrs. J. W. Geary announces that she had been visiting at Springfield for a short time and had visited with the Fenwicks. She reports Mel Fenwick in very bad health, having had a stroke of paralysis and also with a cancer. Mrs. Geary and son Woodbridge went to Portland to take in the Rose festival and visit for a time.

James Kaycraft and that little son of his are some fishermen and no mistake. The Times-Herald family feasted on some of the finest big trout it has seen our good fortune to taste for this season. Jim had been over on the Blitzen on Sunday and brought back a nice string. He remembered the newspaper man and by so doing will be remembered gratefully by the newspaper man.

Wilbur Haines, Cecil and Ora Doan and John and C. Smyth all arrived from Portland Monday night. The boys had been attending the Hill Military Academy during the past year and are now home for the vacation period. The Doan and Smyth boys live in the southern part of the county, the two former being sons of M. M. Doan, the latter the sons of Geo. A. Smyth of Andrews.

Married—June 17, at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. J. F. Mobley officiating, Herbert E. Lewis and Miss Nellie C. Graham. Both are residents of the Warm Springs section of this county where they will make their home. The young man was among those to go at Uncle Sam's call for fighters and has but recently returned. The Times-Herald joins in extending its best wishes to these young people.
