

What Does the Bank Say About You?

Before Opportunity makes her final decision, she "checks up" on you. She wants to know if you are worthy.

What a reputable bank says about you is often the deciding factor. If you're known at a strong bank as a man of good business habits—a man who keeps his checking account in a healthy condition—and his word likewise—such a statement will go far with Opportunity in deciding in your favor.

Henry Trowbridge is here for a short time on some business and to visit with his many friends.

W. T. Lester informs us he recently located two men formerly from Idaho in the Glass Buttes section. They are J. A. and Paul P. Bovey.

Come in and see the bakery goods. We don't keep it on display in the window because the sun dries it out rapidly.—Page's Sweet Shop.

Wm. Bennett was down from his home in Stivies Valley Wednesday assisting some neighbors in making proof on their land.

Mrs. D. E. Robertson is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Eunice Thompson, in this city, having come over from the farm near Drewsey the fore part of this week.

Prompt service and courteous treatment will always be accorded patrons of the Burns Hotel Barber Shop. Baths at any hour of the day. G. W. Simmons, Prop.

Mrs. Perry Chandler and her son Glen came over from Canyon City Sunday to remain for the week and take in the Chautauqua. They were accompanied over by Katherine Farre who had been visiting over there.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Southworth are over from their Bear Valley home to visit with relatives and take in the Chautauqua programs. This is a remarkable thing to Director Allen and his Chautauqua talent when they learn that people come such distances to attend.

Mrs. Henry Dalton and her children took their departure last Wednesday morning for Tacoma where she goes to visit with her mother for a time. She will also spend some time with other relatives and then stay at the sea shore. She does not expect to return home until the latter part of August.

Ed. Morgan was up for a few days during Chautauqua. He informs us that himself and two neighbors have 700 acres of rye in the Weaver Spring section this season and while it is not a big crop it is better than last year. Mr. Morgan states it is exceedingly dry but they will harvest a profitable crop. He has recently been over the eastern part of the county looking for some lost stock and finds that crops in general are going to be rather light.

W. H. Robertson was over from his home on Otis Creek during the week. He brought his sister, Mrs. Eunice Thompson, home after she had spent a few weeks at the ranch looking after the boys while Mr. Robertson was absent in Portland where his wife recently underwent a serious operation. Will reports leaving Mrs. Robertson recovering nicely from her ordeal and she will return home within a short time.

Ralph Catterson was in town the other day.

James Young, the sheep grower associated with W. J. Davies, was a business visitor in this city during the week. Mr. Young is expecting his sister here from Scotland in the near future and will bring her to this city to reside during the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Marsden were over from their Bear Valley ranch during the fore part of this week. They came over primarily on business but remained to take in a part of the Chautauqua. George informs us his mother has gone to California on a visit.

Carroll Cecil, R. J. Williams and Albert Oakerman are home from Omaha where they accompanied Smith Crane with their respective shipments of horses. They report a good trip. They remained in town for a part of the Chautauqua program before going to their homes on Silver Creek.

Capt. A. W. Gowan arrived home Monday evening from a trip to outside points. He went from here to Portland and later came back to The Dalles where they held the annual encampment of the G. A. R. Capt. Gowan informs us there were nearly 400 old veterans in line and that they had a very profitable and enjoyable meeting.

Bert Simmons arrived here during the week from Washington where he and Mrs. Simmons have been since early in the spring. He is here to look after some business affairs and left Mrs. Simmons up in Washington. Mr. Simmons has his farms leased out this season and has disposed of a large number of his stock so has some leisure time.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ulam are here from Riddle, in Douglas county, on a visit with Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Clemens. Mr. Ulam and Mrs. Clemens are brother and sister. Peter formerly resided in this Valley and the writer recalls him in the early days. He finds a few whom he knew during his residence here but most of them are either dead or left for other points.

Mrs. Eva Goff and her daughters left here Wednesday for Corvallis where they expect to make their home for the present. Her son Othel has been in school there since last fall and as she can live there as cheaply as here and the girls can have the advantage of the O. A. C. she decided to join her son there. Many friends of the family regret their departure.

Mr. Herbert Nunn, State highway engineer, R. C. Johnson, representative of the Oregon Journal, Morrison of the Telegram and C. J. Harrington, State highway division engineer, arrived in Burns Saturday, June 22, stopping only a few minutes in town. They were on their way from John Day to inspect the survey and investigate complaints received on the Lawen and Lawen-Crane sections of the Central Oregon state highway. R. L. Hass accompanied them to Crane from where they left for Ontario on the same day.

Bank Service While Travelling

Where you're known, your checkbook is the sign of your credit at the bank. Where you're unknown, AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVELERS CHEQUES establish for you a similar credit.

Wherever you go—at home or abroad—they are as good as gold. You sign them at our bank when you buy them; you countersign them when you spend them. The signatures identify you.

The value of lost or stolen uncountersigned Cheques is refunded to you, upon filling out certain protective forms.

The cost of this credit and insurance service is but 50c for each $100.
